D. In computing Virginia taxable income there shall be deducted from Virginia adjusted gross income as defined in § 58.1-321:

1. a. The amount allowable for itemized deductions for federal income tax purposes where the taxpayer has elected for the taxable year to itemize deductions on his federal return, but reduced by the

182 amount of income taxes imposed by the Commonwealth or any other taxing jurisdiction and deducted
183 on such federal return and increased by an amount which, when added to the amount deducted under 184 § 170 of the Internal Revenue Code for mileage, results in a mileage deduction at the state level for 185 such purposes at a rate of 18 cents per mile; or 186 b. Three thousand dollars for single individuals and $6,000 for married persons (one-half of such 187 amounts in the case of a married individual filing a separate return) for taxable years beginning on and 188 after January 1, 2005; provided that the taxpayer has not itemized deductions for the taxable year on his 189 federal income tax return. For purposes of this section, any person who may be claimed as a dependent 190 on another taxpayer's return for the taxable year may compute the deduction only with respect to earned 191 income.

192 2. a. A deduction in the amount of $900 for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2005,
193 but before January 1, 2008; and $930 for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2008, for each
194 personal exemption allowable to the taxpayer for federal income tax purposes.

195 b. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1987, each blind or aged taxpayer as defined 196 under § 63(f) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be entitled to an additional personal exemption in the 197 amount of $800.

198 The additional deduction for blind or aged taxpayers allowed under this subdivision shall be
199 allowable regardless of whether the taxpayer itemizes deductions for the taxable year for federal income
200 tax purposes.

201 3. A deduction equal to the amount of employment-related expenses upon which the federal credit is 202 based under § 21 of the Internal Revenue Code for expenses for household and dependent care services
203 necessary for gainful employment.

204 4. An additional $1,000 deduction for each child residing for the entire taxable year in a home under 205 permanent foster care placement as defined in § 63.2-908, provided the taxpayer can also claim the child
206 as a personal exemption under § 151 of the Internal Revenue Code.

207 5. a. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2004, a deduction in the amount of $12,000
208 for individuals born on or before January 1, 1939.

210 for individuals born after January 1, 1939, who have attained the age of 65. This deduction shall be
211 reduced by $1 for every $1 that the taxpayer's adjusted federal adjusted gross income exceeds $50,000
212 for single taxpayers or $75,000 for married taxpayers. For married taxpayers filing separately, the 213 deduction will be reduced by $1 for every $1 the total combined adjusted federal adjusted gross income
214 of both spouses exceeds $75,000.

215 For the purposes of this subdivision, "adjusted federal adjusted gross income" means federal adjusted
216 gross income minus any benefits received under Title II of the Social Security Act and other benefits
217 subject to federal income taxation solely pursuant to § 86 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended.

218 6. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1997, the amount an individual pays as a fee
219 for an initial screening to become a possible bone marrow donor, if (i) the individual is not reimbursed
220 for such fee or (ii) the individual has not claimed a deduction for the payment of such fee on his federal 221 income tax return.

222 7. a. A deduction shall be allowed to the purchaser or contributor for the amount paid or contributed 223 during the taxable year for a prepaid tuition contract or savings trust account entered into with the 224 Virginia College Savings Plan, pursuant to Chapter 4.9 (§ 23-38.75 et seq.) of Title 23. Except as 225 provided in subdivision 7 c, the amount deducted on any individual income tax return in any taxable
226 year shall be limited to $4,000 per prepaid tuition contract or savings trust account. No deduction shall 227 be allowed pursuant to this section if such payments or contributions are deducted on the purchaser's or 228 contributor's federal income tax return. If the purchase price or annual contribution to a savings trust
229 account exceeds $4,000, the remainder may be carried forward and subtracted in future taxable years
230 until the purchase price or savings trust contribution has been fully deducted; however, except as 231 provided in subdivision 7 c, in no event shall the amount deducted in any taxable year exceed $4,000
232 per contract or savings trust account. Notwithstanding the statute of limitations on assessments contained 233 in § 58.1-312, any deduction taken hereunder shall be subject to recapture in the taxable year or years in 234 which distributions or refunds are made for any reason other than (i) to pay qualified higher education
235 expenses, as defined in § 529 of the Internal Revenue Code or (ii) the beneficiary's death, disability, or 236 receipt of a scholarship. For the purposes of this subdivision, the term "purchaser" or "contributor"
237 means the person shown as such on the records of the Virginia College Savings Plan as of December 31
238 of the taxable year. In the case of a transfer of ownership of a prepaid tuition contract or savings trust
239 account, the transferee shall succeed to the transferor's tax attributes associated with a prepaid tuition
240 contract or savings trust account, including, but not limited to, carryover and recapture of deductions.

241 b. The amount paid for a prepaid tuition contract during taxable years beginning on or after January
242 1, 1996, but before January 1, 1998, shall be deducted in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 243 1998, and shall be subject to the limitations set out in subdivision 7 a.

c. A purchaser of a prepaid tuition contract or contributor to a savings trust account who has attained age 70 shall not be subject to the limitation that the amount of the deduction not exceed $4,000 per prepaid tuition contract or savings trust account in any taxable year. Such taxpayer shall be allowed a deduction for the full amount paid for the contract or contributed to a savings trust account, less any amounts previously deducted.

8. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2000, the total amount an individual actually contributed in funds to the Virginia Public School Construction Grants Program and Fund, established in Chapter 11.1 (§ 22.1-175.1 et seq.) of Title 22.1, provided the individual has not claimed a deduction for such amount on his federal income tax return.

9. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1999, an amount equal to 20 percent of the tuition costs incurred by an individual employed as a primary or secondary school teacher licensed pursuant to Chapter 15 (§ 22.1-289.1 et seq.) of Title 22.1 to attend continuing teacher education courses that are required as a condition of employment; however, the deduction provided by this subsection shall be available only if (i) the individual is not reimbursed for such tuition costs and (ii) the individual has not claimed a deduction for the payment of such tuition costs on his federal income tax return.

10. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2000, the amount an individual pays annually in premiums for long-term health care insurance, provided the individual has not claimed a deduction for federal income tax purposes, or, for taxable years beginning before January 1, 2014, a credit under § 58.1-339.11. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2014, no such deduction for long-term health care insurance premiums paid by the individual during the taxable year shall be allowed if the individual has claimed a federal income tax deduction for such taxable year for long-term health care insurance premiums paid by him.

11. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2006, contract payments to a producer of quota tobacco or a tobacco quota holder, or their spouses, as provided under the American Jobs Creation Act of 2004 (P.L. 108-357), but only to the extent that such payments have not been subtracted pursuant to subsection D of § 58.1-402, as follows:

a. If the payment is received in installment payments, then the recognized gain, including any gain recognized in taxable year 2005, may be subtracted in the taxable year immediately following the year in which the installment payment is received.

b. If the payment is received in a single payment, then 10 percent of the recognized gain may be subtracted in the taxable year immediately following the year in which the single payment is received. The taxpayer may then deduct an equal amount in each of the nine succeeding taxable years.

12. 13. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2007, the lesser of $5,000 or the amount actually paid by a living donor of an organ or other living tissue for unreimbursed out-of-pocket expenses directly related to the donation that arose within 12 months of such donation, provided the donor has not taken a medical deduction in accordance with the provisions of § 213 of the Internal Revenue Code for such expenses. The deduction may be taken in the taxable year in which the donation is made or the taxable year in which the 12-month period expires.

14. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2013, the amount an individual age 66 or older with earned income of at least $20,000 for the year and federal adjusted gross income not in excess of $30,000 for the year pays annually in premiums for (i) a prepaid funeral insurance policy covering the individual or (ii) medical or dental insurance for any person for whom individual tax filers may claim a deduction for such premiums under federal income tax laws. "Earned income" means the same as that term is defined in § 32(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended or renumbered. The deduction shall not be allowed for any portion of such premiums paid for which the individual has (a) been reimbursed, (b) claimed a deduction for federal income tax purposes, (c) claimed

305 a deduction or subtraction under another provision of this section, or (d) claimed a federal income tax 306 credit or any income tax credit pursuant to this chapter.

307 E. There shall be added to or subtracted from federal adjusted gross income, as the case may be, the 311 transitional modifications.

312 G. Effective for all taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2007, to the extent included in
