5 Approved

6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 63.2-1707 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:8 § 63.2-1707. Issuance or refusal of license; notification; provisional and conditional licenses.

9 Upon completion of his investigation, the Commissioner shall issue an appropriate license to the 10 applicant if (i) the applicant has made adequate provision for such activities, services, and facilities as 11 are reasonably conducive to the welfare of the residents, participants, or children over whom he may 12 have custody or control; (ii) at the time of initial application, the applicant has submitted an operating 13 budget and at least one letter of credit reference; (iii) he is, or the officers and agents of the applicant if 14 it is an association, partnership, limited liability company, or corporation are, of good character and 15 reputation; and (iv) the applicant and agents comply with the provisions of this subtitle. Otherwise, the 16 license shall be denied. Immediately upon taking final action, the Commissioner shall notify the 17 applicant of such action.

18 Upon completion of the investigation for the renewal of a license, the Commissioner may issue a 19 provisional license to any applicant if the applicant is temporarily unable to comply with all of the 20 licensure requirements. The provisional license may be renewed, but the issuance of a provisional 21 license and any renewals thereof shall be for no longer a period than six successive months. A copy of 22 the provisional license shall be prominently displayed by the provider at each public entrance of the 23 subject facility and shall be printed in a clear and legible size and style. In addition, the facility shall be 24 required to prominently display next to the posted provisional license a notice that a description of 25 specific violations of licensing standards to be corrected and the deadline for completion of such 26 corrections is available for inspection at the facility and on the facility's website, if applicable.

27 At the discretion of the Commissioner, a conditional license may be issued to an applicant to operate 28 a new facility in order to permit the applicant to demonstrate compliance with licensure requirements.
29 Such conditional license may be renewed, but the issuance of a conditional license and any renewals 30 thereof shall be for no longer a period than six successive months.
