HOUSE BILL NO. 564

Offered January 8, 2014

Prefiled January 6, 2014

A BILL to amend and reenact § 24.2-643, as it is currently effective and as it shall become effective, of the Code of Virginia, relating to voter identification; name on identification reasonably similar to name in pollbook.

Patrons—Watts and Simon

Referred to Committee on Privileges and Elections

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 24.2-643, as it is currently effective and as it shall become effective, of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 24.2-643. (Effective until July 1, 2014) Qualified voter permitted to vote; procedures at polling place; voter identification.

A. After the polls are open, each qualified voter at a precinct shall be permitted to vote. The officers of election shall ascertain that a person offering to vote is a qualified voter before admitting him to the voting booth and furnishing an official ballot to him.

B. An officer of election shall ask the voter for his full name and current residence address and repeat, in a voice audible to party and candidate representatives present, the full name and address stated by the voter. The officer shall ask the voter to present any one of the following forms of identification: his Commonwealth of Virginia voter registration card, his social security card, his valid Virginia driver's license, his concealed handgun permit issued pursuant to § 18.2-308.04, or any other identification card issued by a government agency of the Commonwealth, one of its political subdivisions, or the United States; any valid student identification card issued by any institution of higher education located in the Commonwealth of Virginia; any valid employee identification card containing a photograph of the voter and issued by an employer of the voter in the ordinary course of the employer's business; or a copy of a current utility bill, bank statement, government check, or paycheck that shows the name and address of the voter.

Any voter who does not show one of the forms of identification specified in this subsection shall be offered a provisional ballot under the provisions of § 24.2-653. The State Board of Elections shall provide an ID-ONLY provisional ballot envelope that requires no follow-up action by the registrar or electoral board other than matching submitted identification documents from the voter for the electoral board to make a determination on whether to count the ballot.

If the voter's name is found on the pollbook, if he voter presents one of the forms of identification listed above, if his name is found on the pollbook in a form identical to or reasonably similar to the name on the presented form of identification and the name stated by the voter, if he is qualified to vote in the election, and if no objection is made, an officer shall enter, opposite the voter's name on the pollbook, the first or next consecutive number from the voter count form provided by the State Board, or shall enter that the voter has voted if the pollbook is in electronic form; an officer shall provide the voter with the official ballot; and another officer shall admit him to the voting booth. Each voter whose name has been marked on the pollbooks as present to vote and entitled to a ballot shall remain in the presence of the officers of election in the polling place until he has voted. If a line of voters who have been marked on the pollbooks as present to vote forms to await entry to the voting booths, the line shall not be permitted to extend outside of the room containing the voting booths and shall remain under observation by the officers of election.

A voter may be accompanied into the voting booth by his child age 15 or younger.

C. If the current residence address stated by the voter is different from the address shown on the pollbook, the officer of election shall furnish the voter with a change of address form prescribed by the State Board. Upon its completion, the voter shall sign the prescribed form, subject to felony penalties for making false statements pursuant to § 24.2-1016, which the officer of election shall then place in an envelope provided for such forms for transmission to the general registrar who shall then transfer or cancel the registration of such voter pursuant to Chapter 4 (§ 24.2-400 et seq.).

D. At the time the voter is asked his full name and current residence address, the officer of election shall ask any voter for whom the pollbook indicates that an identification number other than a social security number is recorded on the Virginia voter registration system if he presently has a social security number. If the voter is able to provide his social security number, he shall be furnished with a voter registration form prescribed by the State Board to update his registration information. Upon its

59 completion, the form shall be placed by the officer of election in an envelope provided for such forms
60 for transmission to the general registrar. Any social security numbers so provided shall be entered by the 61 general registrar in the voter's record on the voter registration system.

62 E. For federal elections held after January 1, 2004, this subsection shall apply in the case of any 63 voter who is required by subparagraph (b) of 42 U.S.C.S. § 15483 of the Help America Vote Act of 64 2002 to show identification the first time the voter votes in a federal election in the state. At such 65 election, such voter shall present (i) a current and valid photo identification or (ii) a copy of a current 66 utility bill, bank statement, government check, paycheck or other government document that shows the 67 name and address of the voter. Such individual who desires to vote in person but who does not show 68 one of the forms of identification specified in this subsection shall be offered a provisional ballot under 69 the provisions of § 24.2-653. Neither the identification requirements of subsection B, nor the 70 identification requirements of subsection A of § 24.2-653, shall apply to such voter at that election. The 71 State Board of Elections shall provide instructions to the electoral boards for the handling and counting 72 of such provisional ballots pursuant to subsection B of § 24.2-653 and this section.

73 § 24.2-643. (Effective July 1, 2014) Qualified voter permitted to vote; procedures at polling 74 place; voter identification.

75 A. After the polls are open, each qualified voter at a precinct shall be permitted to vote. The officers 76 of election shall ascertain that a person offering to vote is a qualified voter before admitting him to the 77 voting booth and furnishing an official ballot to him.

78 B. An officer of election shall ask the voter for his full name and current residence address and 79 repeat, in a voice audible to party and candidate representatives present, the full name and address stated
80 by the voter. The officer shall ask the voter to present any one of the following forms of identification:
81 his valid Virginia driver's license, his valid United States passport, or any other photo identification
82 issued by the Commonwealth, one of its political subdivisions, or the United States; any valid student 83 identification card containing a photograph of the voter and issued by any institution of higher education
84 located in the Commonwealth; or any valid employee identification card containing a photograph of the 85 voter and issued by an employer of the voter in the ordinary course of the employer's business.

86 Any voter who does not show one of the forms of identification specified in this subsection shall be 87 offered a provisional ballot under the provisions of § 24.2-653. The State Board of Elections shall 88 provide an ID-ONLY provisional ballot envelope that requires no follow-up action by the registrar or 89 electoral board other than matching submitted identification documents from the voter for the electoral 90 board to make a determination on whether to count the ballot.

91 If the ~~voter's name is found on the pollbook~~, if he voter presents one of the forms of identification 92 listed above, if his name is found on the pollbook in a form identical to or reasonably similar to the 93 name on the presented form of identification and the name stated by the voter, if he is qualified to vote 94 in the election, and if no objection is made, an officer shall enter, opposite the voter's name on the 95 pollbook, the first or next consecutive number from the voter count form provided by the State Board, 96 or shall enter that the voter has voted if the pollbook is in electronic form; an officer shall provide the 97 voter with the official ballot; and another officer shall admit him to the voting booth. Each voter whose 98 name has been marked on the pollbooks as present to vote and entitled to a ballot shall remain in the 99 presence of the officers of election in the polling place until he has voted. If a line of voters who have 100 been marked on the pollbooks as present to vote forms to await entry to the voting booths, the line shall 101 not be permitted to extend outside of the room containing the voting booths and shall remain under 102 observation by the officers of election.

103 A voter may be accompanied into the voting booth by his child age 15 or younger.

104 C. If the current residence address stated by the voter is different from the address shown on the 105 pollbook, the officer of election shall furnish the voter with a change of address form prescribed by the 106 State Board. Upon its completion, the voter shall sign the prescribed form, subject to felony penalties 107 for making false statements pursuant to § 24.2-1016, which the officer of election shall then place in an 108 envelope provided for such forms for transmission to the general registrar who shall then transfer or 109 cancel the registration of such voter pursuant to Chapter 4 (§ 24.2-400 et seq.).

110 D. At the time the voter is asked his full name and current residence address, the officer of election
111 shall ask any voter for whom the pollbook indicates that an identification number other than a social 112 security number is recorded on the Virginia voter registration system if he presently has a social security
113 number. If the voter is able to provide his social security number, he shall be furnished with a voter 114 registration form prescribed by the State Board to update his registration information. Upon its 115 completion, the form shall be placed by the officer of election in an envelope provided for such forms
116 for transmission to the general registrar. Any social security numbers so provided shall be entered by the 117 general registrar in the voter's record on the voter registration system.
