7 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:8 1. That § 2.2-3011 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:9 § 2.2-3011. Discrimination and retaliatory actions against whistle blowers prohibited; good faith
10 required; remedies.11 A. No employer may discharge, threaten, or otherwise discriminate or retaliate against a whistle
12 blower whether acting on his own or through a person acting on his behalf or under his direction.13 B. No employer may discharge, threaten, or otherwise discriminate or retaliate against a whistle
14 blower, in whole or in part, because the whistle blower is requested or subpoenaed by an appropriate 15 authority to participate in an investigation, hearing, or inquiry by an appropriate authority or in a court
16 action.17 C. To be protected by the provisions of this chapter, an employee who discloses information about 18 suspected wrongdoing or abuse shall do so in good faith and upon a reasonable belief that the 19 information is accurate. Disclosures that are reckless or the employee knew or should have known were 20 false, confidential by law, or malicious shall not be deemed good faith reports and shall not be 21 protected.22 D. In addition to the remedies provided in § 2.2-3012, any whistle blower may bring a civil action
23 for violation of this section in the circuit court of the jurisdiction where the whistle blower is employed.
24 In a proceeding commenced against any employer under this section, the court, if it finds that a 25 violation was willfully and knowingly made, may impose upon such employer that is a party to the 26 action, whether a writ of mandamus or injunctive relief is awarded or not, a civil penalty of not less
27 than $500 nor more than $2,500, which amount shall be paid into the Fraud and Abuse Whistle Blower
28 Reward Fund. The court may also order appropriate remedies, including (i) reinstatement to the same 29 position or, if the position is filled, to an equivalent position; (ii) back pay; (iii) full reinstatement of 30 fringe benefits and seniority rights; or (iv) any combination of these remedies. The whistle blower may 31 be entitled to recover reasonable attorney fees and costs. No action brought under this subsection shall 32 be brought more than three years after the date the unlawful discharge, discrimination, or retaliation
33 occurs. Any whistle blower proceeding under this subsection shall not be required to exhaust existing 34 *internal procedures or other administrative remedies.*35 E. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit an employer from disciplining or discharging a whistle 36 blower for his misconduct or any violation of criminal law.
