73 A. Except as provided in subdivision A 3 of § 36-96.3 and subsections A, B, and C of § 36-96.6, 74 this chapter shall not apply to any single-family house sold or rented by an owner, provided that such 75 private individual does not own more than three single-family houses at any one time. In the case of the 76 sale of any single-family house by a private individual-owner not residing in the house at the time of 77 the sale or who was not the most recent resident of the house prior to sale, the exemption granted shall 78 apply only with respect to one such sale within any 24-month period; provided that such bona fide 79 private individual owner does not own any interest in, nor is there owned or reserved on his behalf, 80 under any express or voluntary agreement, title to or any right to all or a portion of the proceeds from the sale or rental of, more than three such single-family houses at any one time. The sale or rental of 81 any such single-family house shall be exempt from the application of this chapter only if the house is 82 83 sold or rented (i) without the use in any manner of the sales or rental facilities or the sales or rental services of any real estate broker, agent, salesperson, or of the facilities or the services of any person in 84 85 the business of selling or renting dwellings, or of any employee, independent contractor, or agent of any broker, agent, salesperson, or person and (ii) without the publication, posting, or mailing, after notice, of 86 87 any advertisement or written notice in violation of this chapter. However, nothing herein shall prohibit 88 the use of attorneys, escrow agents, abstractors, title companies, and other professional assistance as 89 necessary to perfect or transfer the title. This exemption shall not apply to or inure to the benefit of any 90 licensee of the Real Estate Board or regulant of the Fair Housing Board, regardless of whether the 91 licensee is acting in his personal or professional capacity.

B. Except for subdivision A 3 of § 36-96.3, this chapter shall not apply to rooms or units in dwellings containing living quarters occupied or intended to be occupied by no more than four families living independently of each other, if the owner actually maintains and occupies one of such living quarters as his residence.

96 C. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit a religious organization, association or society, or any 97 nonprofit institution or organization operated, supervised, or controlled by or in conjunction with a 98 religious organization, association or society, from limiting the sale, rental, or occupancy of dwellings 99 that it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose to persons of the same religion, or from 100 giving preferences to such persons, unless membership in such religion is restricted on account of race, 101 color, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, or handicap. Nor shall anything 102 in this chapter apply to a private membership club not in fact open to the public, which as an incident 103 to its primary purpose or purposes provides lodging which it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose, from limiting the rental or occupancy of such lodgings to its members or from 104 giving preference to its members. Nor, where matters of personal privacy are involved, shall anything in 105 this chapter be construed to prohibit any private, state-owned or state-supported educational institution, 106 107 hospital, nursing home, religious or correctional institution, from requiring that persons of both sexes not 108 occupy any single-family residence or room or unit of dwellings or other buildings, or restrooms in such 109 room or unit in dwellings or other buildings, which it owns or operates.

D. Nothing in this chapter prohibits conduct against a person because such person has been convicted by any court of competent jurisdiction of the illegal manufacture or distribution of a controlled substance as defined in federal law.

E. It shall not be unlawful under this chapter for any owner to deny or limit the rental of housing to persons who pose a clear and present threat of substantial harm to others or to the dwelling itself.

F. A rental application may require disclosure by the applicant of any criminal convictions and the owner or managing agent may require as a condition of acceptance of the rental application that applicant consent in writing to a criminal record check to verify the disclosures made by applicant in the rental application. The owner or managing agent may collect from the applicant moneys to reimburse the owner or managing agent for the exact amount of the out-of-pocket costs for such criminal record checks. Nothing in this chapter shall require an owner or managing agent to rent a dwelling to an individual who, based on a prior record of criminal convictions involving harm to persons or property,would constitute a clear and present threat to the health or safety of other individuals.

G. Nothing in this chapter limits the applicability of any reasonable local, state or federal restriction regarding the maximum number of occupants permitted to occupy a dwelling. Owners or managing agents of dwellings may develop and implement reasonable occupancy and safety standards based on factors such as the number and size of sleeping areas or bedrooms and overall size of a dwelling unit so long as the standards do not violate local, state or federal restrictions. Nothing in this chapter prohibits the rental application or similar document from requiring information concerning the number, ages, sex and familial relationship of the applicants and the dwelling's intended occupants.

- 130 § 36-96.3. Unlawful discriminatory housing practices.
- 131 A. It shall be an unlawful discriminatory housing practice for any person:

132 1. To refuse to sell or rent after the making of a bona fide offer or to refuse to negotiate for the sale
133 or rental of, or otherwise make unavailable or deny, a dwelling to any person because of race, color, 134 religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, or familial status, or sexual orientation;

135 2. To discriminate against any person in the terms, conditions, or privileges of sale or rental of a 136 dwelling, or in the provision of services or facilities in the connection therewith to any person because 137 of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, or familial status, or sexual orientation;

138 3. To make, print, or publish, or cause to be made, printed, or published any notice, statement, or 139 advertisement, with respect to the sale or rental of a dwelling that indicates any preference, limitation, or 140 discrimination or an intention to make any such preference, limitation or discrimination based on race, 141 color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, or handicap. The use 142 of words or symbols associated with a particular religion, national origin, sex, or race shall be prima 143 facie evidence of an illegal preference under this chapter which shall not be overcome by a general 144 disclaimer. However, reference alone to places of worship including, but not limited to, churches, 145 synagogues, temples, or mosques in any such notice, statement or advertisement shall not be prima facie 146 evidence of an illegal preference;

4. To represent to any person because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, or handicap that any dwelling is not available for inspection, sale, or rental when such dwelling is in fact so available;

5. To deny any person access to membership in or participation in any multiple listing service, real estate brokers' organization, or other service, organization or facility relating to the business of selling or renting dwellings, or to discriminate against such person in the terms or conditions of such access, membership, or participation because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, or handicap;

6. To include in any transfer, sale, rental, or lease of housing, any restrictive covenant that discriminates because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, or handicap or for any person to honor or exercise, or attempt to honor or exercise any such discriminatory covenant pertaining to housing;

7. To induce or attempt to induce to sell or rent any dwelling by representations regarding the entry or prospective entry into the neighborhood of a person or persons of a particular race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, or handicap;

8. To refuse to sell or rent, or refuse to negotiate for the sale or rental of, or otherwise discriminate or make unavailable or deny a dwelling because of a handicap of (i) the buyer or renter, (ii) a person residing in or intending to reside in that dwelling after it is so sold, rented or made available, or (iii) any person associated with the buyer or renter;

166 9. To discriminate against any person in the terms, conditions, or privileges of sale or rental of a
167 dwelling, or in the provision of services or facilities in connection therewith because of a handicap of (i) 168 that person, (ii) a person residing in or intending to reside in that dwelling after it was so sold, rented or 169 made available, or (iii) any person associated with that buyer or renter.

170 B. For the purposes of this section, discrimination includes: (i) a refusal to permit, at the expense of 171 the handicapped person, reasonable modifications of existing premises occupied or to be occupied by 172 any person if such modifications may be necessary to afford such person full enjoyment of the premises; 173 except that, in the case of a rental, the landlord may, where it is reasonable to do so, condition 174 permission for a modification on the renter's agreeing to restore the interior of the premises to the 175 condition that existed before the modification, reasonable wear and tear excepted; (ii) a refusal to make 176 reasonable accommodations in rules, practices, policies, or services when such accommodations may be 177 necessary to afford such person equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling; or (iii) in connection 178 with the design and construction of covered multi-family dwellings for first occupancy after March 13, 179 1991, a failure to design and construct dwellings in such a manner that:

180 1. The public use and common use areas of the dwellings are readily accessible to and usable by handicapped persons;

182 2. All the doors designed to allow passage into and within all premises are sufficiently wide to allow 183 passage by handicapped persons in wheelchairs; and 184 3. All premises within covered multi-family dwelling units contain an accessible route into and 185 through the dwelling; light switches, electrical outlets, thermostats, and other environmental controls are 186 in accessible locations; there are reinforcements in the bathroom walls to allow later installation of grab 187 bars; and there are usable kitchens and bathrooms such that an individual in a wheelchair can maneuver 188 about the space. As used in this subdivision the term "covered multi-family dwellings" means buildings 189 consisting of four or more units if such buildings have one or more elevators and ground floor units in 190 other buildings consisting of four or more units.

191 C. Compliance with the appropriate requirements of the American National Standards for Building and Facilities (commonly cited as "ANSI A117.1") or with any other standards adopted as part of 192 193 regulations promulgated by HUD providing accessibility and usability for physically handicapped people 194 shall be deemed to satisfy the requirements of subdivision B 3.

195 D. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to invalidate or limit any Virginia law or regulation 196 which requires dwellings to be designed and constructed in a manner that affords handicapped persons 197 greater access than is required by this chapter.

198 § 36-96.4. Discrimination in residential real estate-related transactions; unlawful practices by 199 lenders, insurers, appraisers, etc.; deposit of state funds in such institutions.

200 A. It shall be unlawful for any person or other entity, including any lending institution, whose 201 business includes engaging in residential real estate-related transactions, to discriminate against any 202 person in making available such a transaction, or in the terms or conditions of such a transaction, or in 203 the manner of providing such a transaction, because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, or handicap. It shall not be unlawful, however, for any 204 205 person or other entity whose business includes engaging in residential real estate transactions to require 206 any applicant to qualify financially for the loan or loans for which such person is making application.

B. As used in this section, the term "residential real estate-related transaction" means any of the 207 208 following:

209 1. The making or purchasing of loans or providing other financial assistance (i) for purchasing, 210 constructing, improving, repairing, or maintaining a dwelling or (ii) secured by residential real estate; or

2. The selling, brokering, insuring or appraising of residential real property. However, nothing in this 211 212 chapter shall prohibit a person engaged in the business of furnishing appraisals of real property to take 213 into consideration factors other than race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, 214 sexual orientation, or handicap.

215 C. It shall be unlawful for any state, county, city, or municipal treasurer or governmental official 216 whose responsibility it is to account for, to invest, or manage public funds to deposit or cause to be 217 deposited any public funds in any lending institution provided for herein which is found to be 218 committing discriminatory practices, where such findings were upheld by any court of competent jurisdiction. Upon such a court's judicial enforcement of any order to restrain a practice of such lending 219 220 institution or for said institution to cease or desist in a discriminatory practice, the appropriate fiscal 221 officer or treasurer of the Commonwealth or any political subdivision thereof which has funds deposited 222 in any lending institution which is practicing discrimination, as set forth herein, shall take immediate 223 steps to have the said funds withdrawn and redeposited in another lending institution. If for reasons of 224 sound economic management, this action will result in a financial loss to the Commonwealth or any of 225 its political subdivisions, the action may be deferred for a period not longer than one year. If the lending 226 institution in question has corrected its discriminatory practices, any prohibition set forth in this section 227 shall not apply. 228

§ 55-248.47. Sale or lease of manufactured home by owner.

229 The landlord shall not unreasonably refuse or restrict the sale or rental of a manufactured home 230 located in his manufactured home park by a tenant. The landlord shall not prohibit the manufactured 231 home owner from placing a "for sale" sign on or in his home except that the size, placement, and 232 character of all signs are subject to the rules and regulations of the park. Prior to selling or leasing the 233 manufactured home the tenant shall give notice to the landlord, including, but not limited to, the name 234 of the prospective vendee or lessee if the prospective vendee or lessee intends to occupy the 235 manufactured home in that manufactured home park. The landlord shall have the burden of proving that 236 his refusal or restriction regarding the sale or rental of a manufactured home was reasonable. The refusal 237 or restriction of the sale or rental of a manufactured home based exclusively or predominantly on the 238 age of the home shall be considered unreasonable. Any refusal or restriction because of race, color, 239 religion, national origin, familial status, elderliness, handicap, sexual orientation, or sex shall be 240 conclusively presumed to be unreasonable.

As used in this section, "sexual orientation" means a person's actual or perceived heterosexuality, 241 242 bisexuality, homosexuality, or gender identity or expression. "Sexual orientation" does not include 243 sexually deviant disorders (paraphilias) as defined in the Diagnostic and Statistic Manual of Mental 244 Disorders (DSM-IV).
