§ 2-1. General grant of powers.

The powers set forth in §§ ~~15.1-837~~ 15.2-1100 through ~~15.1-915~~ 15.2-1133, inclusive, of Chapter 18 11 of Title ~~15.1~~ 15.2 of the Code of Virginia as in force on January 1, 1966, as amended, are hereby conferred on and vested in the Town of Tazewell, Virginia, together with all other powers which are now or may hereafter be conferred upon or delegated to towns under the Constitution and laws of the Commonwealth, and all other powers pertinent to the town government the exercise of which is not in conflict with the said Constitution and the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, and which, in the opinion of the council are necessary or desirable to promote the general welfare of the town and the safety, health, peace, good order, comfort, convenience, and morals of its inhabitants as fully and completely as though such powers were specifically enumerated in this charter, and no enumeration of particular powers in this charter shall be held to be exclusive but shall be held to be in addition to this general grant of powers.

§ 2-420. To provide for the protection of the town's property, real and personal, the prevention of the pollution of the town's water supply, and the regulation of the use of parks, playgrounds, playfields, recreational facilities, cemeteries, airports and other public property, whether located within or without the town. For the purpose of enforcing such regulations all town property wherever located shall be under the police jurisdiction of the town. Any member of the police force of the town, or employee thereof appointed as a special policeman, shall have power to make arrests for violation of any ordinance, rule or regulation adopted pursuant to this section, and the police justice shall have jurisdiction in all cases arising thereunder within the town and the county court of the county wherein the offense occurs shall have jurisdiction of all cases arising thereunder without the town appropriate District Court shall have jurisdiction in all cases arising thereunder within or without the Town wherein the offense occurs.

§ 3-2. Nominations and elections.

The mayor and members of council in office on the effective date of this act shall serve until their successors have been elected and qualified. Municipal elections within the Town of Tazewell shall take place on the first Tuesday in May after the first Monday in the month of November of each even-numbered year to coincide with the general election. At each such regular municipal election, three councilmen shall be elected for terms of four years each, and a mayor shall be elected for a term of two years. The terms of office for both councilmen and mayor so elected shall commence on the first day of ~~July~~ January, immediately following such election, and shall continue until their successors have been elected and qualified. The council shall be a continuing body and no measure pending before such body shall abate or be discontinued by reason of expiration of the term or removal of any of its members.

§ 3-401. Appoint and remove the town manager, the town clerk, the town attorney, ~~the police justice,~~ issuing justices and officers of the volunteer fire department.

§ 3-5. Mayor.

The mayor shall preside over the meetings of the council, have the same right to speak therein as other members and shall vote only in case of a tie but shall have no veto. He shall be recognized as the head of the town government for all ceremonial purposes, the purposes of military law, and the service of civil process. At the regular meeting of the council held in the month of ~~July~~ January following a municipal election, the council shall choose, by a majority vote of all the members thereof, one of their number to be vice-mayor for the ensuing two years. The vice-mayor shall in the absence or disability of the mayor perform the duties of mayor, and if a vacancy shall occur in the office of mayor, shall become mayor for the unexpired portion of the term. In the absence or disability of both the mayor and vice-mayor the council shall, by majority vote of those present, choose one of their number to perform the duties of mayor.

§ 3-9. Appointees.

At the first meeting in ~~September~~ January following each councilmanic election, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the council shall appoint:

§ 4-11. The fiscal year of the town shall begin on the first day of ~~September~~ July and end on the ~~thirty-first~~ thirtieth day of ~~August~~ June of the succeeding year.

§ 6-1. Power to adopt a ~~master~~ comprehensive plan.

In addition to the powers granted elsewhere in this charter the council shall have the power to adopt by ordinance a ~~master~~ comprehensive plan for the physical development of the town to promote health, safety, morals, comfort, prosperity, and the general welfare. The master plan may include but shall not be limited to the following:

§ 6-11. Town planning commission. There shall be a town planning commission consisting of ~~seven~~ eight members, appointed by the council. One member shall be a member of the council appointed for a term concurrent with his term in the council. One member shall be the town manager, who shall be a nonvoting member, appointed for a term concurrent with his term in such capacity. There shall be ~~five~~ six citizen members, who shall be qualified voters of the town appointed for a term of four years, one of whom may be a member of the Board of Zoning Appeals and who shall hold office for a term concurrent with his term on said board. Members may be removed for malfeasance in office, and a member of the commission may be removed from office by the Town without limitation in the event that the commission member is absent from any three consecutive meetings of the commission, or is absent from any four meetings of the commission within any one-month period. Vacancies on the commission shall be filled by the council. Members of the town planning commission shall serve as such without compensation.

§ 6-12. Organization and expenditures of planning commission. The commission shall elect a chairman and vice-chairman from among the citizen members appointed by the council, for a term of one year, who shall be eligible for re-election, and appoint a secretary. The commission shall hold at least one regular meeting in each month, shall adopt rules for the transaction of its business, and shall keep a record of its resolutions, transactions, findings and determinations, which record shall be a public record. ~~Four~~ Five voting members shall constitute a quorum. The commission shall appoint such employees as it may deem necessary for its work and may contract with city planners, engineers, architects and other consultants for services it may require. All expenditures shall not exceed the sums appropriated by the council therefor.

§ 6-131. To make and adopt a ~~master~~ comprehensive plan which with accompanying maps, plats, charts and descriptive matter shall show the commission's recommendations for the development of the territory covered by the plan. In the preparation of such plan the commission shall make careful and comprehensive surveys and studies of existing conditions and future growth. The plan shall be made with the general purpose of guiding and accomplishing a coordinated, adjusted and harmonious development of the town and its environs which will, in accordance with existing and future needs, best promote health, safety, morals, comfort, prosperity and general welfare, as well as efficiency and economy in the process of development.

§ 6-133. To promote public interest in and understanding of the ~~master~~ comprehensive plan and to that end may publish and distribute copies of the plan or of any report and may employ such other means of publicity and education as it may determine.

§ 6-14. Adoption of ~~master~~ comprehensive plan by the Commission. The Commission may adopt the plan as a whole by a single resolution or may by successive resolutions adopt successive parts of the plan, said parts corresponding to ~~major~~ major geographical or topographical divisions of the town, or with functional subdivisions of the subject matter of the plan, and may adopt any amendment or extension thereof or addition thereto. Before the adoption of the plan or any such part, amendment, extension or addition, the commission shall hold at least one public hearing thereon, at least fifteen days' notice of the time and place of which shall be given by one publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the town. The adoption of the plan or of any such part, amendment, extension or addition shall be by resolution of the commission carried by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the entire membership of the commission. The resolution shall refer expressly to the maps and descriptive matter and other matter intended by the commission to form the whole or part of the plan adopted, which resolution shall be signed by the chairman of the commission and attested by its secretary. An attested copy of the resolution, accompanied by a copy of so much of the plan in whole or in part as was adopted thereby, and each amendment, alteration, extension or addition thereto adopted thereby, shall be certified to the council, and to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Tazewell County who shall file the same in his office.

§ 6-15. Legal status of ~~master~~ comprehensive plan. Whenever the commission shall have adopted a ~~master~~ comprehensive plan for the town or one or more parts thereof, geographical, topographical or functional, and the ~~master~~ comprehensive plan or such part or parts thereof shall have been approved by the council and it has been certified and filed as provided in the preceding section, then and thereafter no street, square, park or other public way, ground, open space, public building or structure shall be constructed or authorized in the town or in the planned section or division thereof until and unless the general location, character and extent thereof has been submitted to and approved by the commission; and no public utility, whether publicly or privately owned, shall be constructed or authorized in the town or in the planned section or division thereof until and unless its general location, but not its character and extent, has been submitted to and approved by the commission, but such submission and approval shall not be necessary in the case of pipes or conduits in any existing street or proposed street, square, park or other public way, ground or open space, the location of which has been approved by the commission; and no ordinance giving effect to or amending the comprehensive zoning plan as provided in § 6-2 shall be adopted until it has been submitted to and approved by the commission. In case of disapproval in any of the instances enumerated above, the commission shall communicate its reason to the council, which shall have the power to overrule such action by a recorded vote of not less than two-thirds of its entire membership. The failure of the commission to act within sixty days from the date of the official submission to it shall be deemed approval. The widening, extension, narrowing, enlargement, vacation or change in the use of streets and other public ways, grounds and places within the town as well as the acquisition by the town of any land within or without the town for public purposes, or the sale of any land then held by the town shall be subject to similar approval and in case the same is disapproved such disapproval may be similarly overruled. The foregoing provisions of this section shall not be deemed to apply to the pavement, repavement, reconstruction, improvement, drainage or other work in or upon any existing street or other existing public way.

§ 6-23. Board of Zoning Appeals. The council may ~~appoint~~ establish a Board of Zoning Appeals, ~~and in the members of which shall be appointed by the judge of the Circuit Court of Tazewell County. The~~ regulations and restrictions adopted pursuant to the authority of this act, may provide that the board of zoning appeals may, in appropriate cases and subject to appropriate conditions and safeguards, vary the application of the terms of the ordinance in harmony with its general purpose and intent and in accordance with general or specific rules therein contained.

§ 6-231. The board of zoning appeals shall consist of five members, one of whom may be a member of the Planning Commission, each of whom is to be appointed for a term of two years, and subject to removal for cause by the council, upon written charges and after public hearing. Vacancies shall be filled by the council for the unexpired term of any member.

§ 6-234. The board of zoning appeals shall fix a reasonable time and a reasonable appeal fee for the hearing of the appeal, give public notice thereof, as well as due notice to the parties in interest, and decide the same within a reasonable time. Upon the hearing any party may appear in person or by agent or attorney.

§ 7-6. Citation of act.

This act may for all purposes be referred to or cited as the Town of Tazewell Charter of 1958, as amended by the Acts of Assembly of 2014.

2. That §§ 3-94, 3-95, 5-1, and 5-11, § 5-12, as amended, and §§ 5-13 through 5-31 of Chapter 358 of the Acts of Assembly of 1958 are repealed.
