68 offense shall be determined first, by computing the actual time-served distribution for similarly situated 69 offenders, in terms of their conviction offense and prior criminal history, released from incarceration 70 during the base period of calendar years 1988 through 1992, increased by 13.4 percent, and second, by 71 eliminating from this range the upper and lower quartiles. The midpoint of each initial recommended 72 sentencing range shall be the median time served for the middle two quartiles and subject to the 73 following additional enhancements:

74 1. The midpoint of the initial recommended sentencing range for first degree murder, second degree 75 murder, rape in violation of § 18.2-61, forcible sodomy, object sexual penetration, and aggravated sexual 76 battery, shall be further increased by (i) 125 percent in cases in which the defendant has no previous 77 conviction of a violent felony offense; (ii) 300 percent in cases in which the defendant has previously
78 been convicted of a violent felony offense punishable by a maximum punishment of less than 40 years;
79 or (iii) 500 percent in cases in which the defendant has previously been convicted of a violent felony
80 offense punishable by a maximum punishment of 40 years or more, except that the recommended 81 sentence for a defendant convicted of first degree murder who has previously been convicted of a 82 violent felony offense punishable by a maximum term of imprisonment of 40 years or more shall be 83 imprisonment for life;

84 2. The midpoint of the initial recommended sentencing range for voluntary manslaughter, robbery, 85 aggravated malicious wounding, malicious wounding, and any burglary of a dwelling house or statutory 86 burglary of a dwelling house or any burglary committed while armed with a deadly weapon or any 87 statutory burglary committed while armed with a deadly weapon shall be further increased by (i) 100
88 percent in cases in which the defendant has no previous conviction of a violent felony offense, (ii) 300
89 percent in cases in which the defendant has previously been convicted of a violent felony offense 90 punishable by a maximum term of imprisonment of less than 40 years, or (iii) 500 percent in cases in 91 which the defendant has previously been convicted of a violent felony offense punishable by a 92 maximum term of imprisonment of 40 years or more;

93 3. The midpoint of the initial recommended sentencing range for manufacturing, selling, giving or 94 distributing, or possessing with the intent to manufacture, sell, give or distribute a Schedule I or II
95 controlled substance shall be increased by (i) 200 percent in cases in which the defendant has previously
96 been convicted of a violent felony offense punishable by a maximum punishment of less than 40 years
97 or (ii) 400 percent in cases in which the defendant has previously been convicted of a violent felony 98 offense punishable by a maximum term of imprisonment of 40 years or more; and

99 4. The midpoint of the initial recommended sentencing range for felony offenses not specified in 100 subdivision 1, 2, or 3 shall be increased by 100 percent in cases in which the defendant has previously
101 been convicted of a violent felony offense punishable by a maximum punishment of less than 40 years,
102 and by 300 percent in cases in which the defendant has previously been convicted of a violent felony 103 offense punishable by a maximum term of imprisonment of 40 years or more.

104 B. For purposes of this chapter, previous convictions shall include prior adult convictions and 105 juvenile convictions and adjudications of delinquency based on an offense which would have been at the 106 time of conviction a felony if committed by an adult under the laws of any state, the District of

A. For purposes of this section:

"Coercion" means:

1. The use of force against, abduction of, or physical restraint of, an individual;
2. The use of a plan, pattern, or threat with intent to cause an individual to believe that failure to perform labor, services, or commercial sexual activity will result in the use of force against, abduction of, or physical restraint of, an individual;

4. Controlling or threatening to control an individual's access to a controlled substance as defined in the Drug Control Act (§ 54.1-3400 et seq.);

192 C. Any person who knowingly maintains or makes available a minor for the purpose of engaging the 193 minor in commercial sexual activity is guilty of sexual servitude of a minor, a Class 3 felony. It is not a

202 § 18.2-67.7. Admission of evidence (Supreme Court Rule 2:412 derived from this section).

204 18.2-356, 18.2-370, 18.2-370.01, or 18.2-370.1, general reputation or opinion evidence of the 205 complaining witness's unchaste character or prior sexual conduct shall not be admitted. Unless the 206 complaining witness voluntarily agrees otherwise, evidence of specific instances of his or her prior 207 sexual conduct shall be admitted only if it is relevant and is:

208 1. Evidence offered to provide an alternative explanation for physical evidence of the offense charged 209 which is introduced by the prosecution, limited to evidence designed to explain the presence of semen, 210 pregnancy, disease, or physical injury to the complaining witness's intimate parts; or

211 2. Evidence of sexual conduct between the complaining witness and the accused offered to support a
212 contention that the alleged offense was not accomplished by force, threat or intimidation or through the 213 use of the complaining witness's mental incapacity or physical helplessness, provided that the sexual 214 conduct occurred within a period of time reasonably proximate to the offense charged under the 215 circumstances of this case; or

216 3. Evidence offered to rebut evidence of the complaining witness's prior sexual conduct introduced 217 by the prosecution.

218 B. Nothing contained in this section shall prohibit the accused from presenting evidence relevant to 219 show that the complaining witness had a motive to fabricate the charge against the accused. If such 220 evidence relates to the past sexual conduct of the complaining witness with a person other than the 221 accused, it shall not be admitted and may not be referred to at any preliminary hearing or trial unless 222 the party offering same files a written notice generally describing the evidence prior to the introduction
223 of any evidence, or the opening statement of either counsel, whichever first occurs, at the preliminary 224 hearing or trial at which the admission of the evidence may be sought.

225 C. Evidence described in subsections A and B of this section shall not be admitted and may not be 226 referred to at any preliminary hearing or trial until the court first determines the admissibility of that 227 evidence at an evidentiary hearing to be held before the evidence is introduced at such preliminary 228 hearing or trial. The court shall exclude from the evidentiary hearing all persons except the accused, the 229 complaining witness, other necessary witnesses, and required court personnel. If the court determines 230 that the evidence meets the requirements of subsections A and B of this section, it shall be admissible 231 before the judge or jury trying the case in the ordinary course of the preliminary hearing or trial. If the 232 court initially determines that the evidence is inadmissible, but new information is discovered during the 233 course of the preliminary hearing or trial which may make such evidence admissible, the court shall 234 determine in an evidentiary hearing whether such evidence is admissible.

235 § 18.2-346. Prostitution; commercial sexual conduct; commercial exploitation of a minor;
236 penalties.

237 A. Any person who, for money or its equivalent, (i) commits adultery, fornication, or any act in 240 is punishable as a Class 1 misdemeanor.

241 B. Any person who offers money or its equivalent to another for the purpose of engaging in sexual 242 acts as enumerated in subsection A and thereafter does any substantial act in furtherance thereof is 243 guilty of solicitation of prostitution, which is punishable as a Class 1 misdemeanor. However, any 244 person who solicits prostitution from a minor (i) 16 years of age or older is guilty of a Class 6 felony or (ii) younger than 16 years of age is guilty of a Class 5 felony.

C. In any delinquency proceeding under subsection A involving a juvenile where the juvenile expresses a willingness to participate in specialized services for those engaged in commercial sexual conduct, the court may continue the case and provide notice of the charge and the time and place for the next hearing to the local department of social services. A child in need of services petition may be filed on the juvenile's behalf pursuant to subsection D of § 16.1-260. If a child in need of services petition is filed and the court finds that the juvenile is willing to participate in specialized services for those engaged in commercial sexual conduct, the court may proceed pursuant to § 16.1-278.4 and order specialized services for the juvenile. Such specialized services may include, but are not limited to, specialized housing, case management, integrated mental health and chemical dependency, educational assistance, and any other available programs or services that, in the opinion of the court, may be best suited to the needs of the juvenile. In any instance where the court proceeds on a child in need of services petition, the court shall dismiss the delinquency petition.

§ 19.2-305.1. Restitution for property damage or loss; community service.

A. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no person convicted of a crime in violation of any provision in Title 18.2, which resulted in property damage or loss, shall be placed on probation or have his sentence suspended unless such person shall make at least partial restitution for such property damage or loss, or shall be compelled to perform community services, or both, or shall submit a plan for doing that which appears to the court to be feasible under the circumstances.

B. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any person who, on or after July 1, 1995, commits, and is convicted of, a crime in violation of any provision in Title 18.2 shall make at least partial restitution for any property damage or loss caused by the crime or for any medical expenses or expenses directly related to funeral or burial incurred by the victim or his estate as a result of the crime, may be compelled to perform community services and, if the court so orders, shall submit a plan for doing that which appears to be feasible to the court under the circumstances.

B1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any person, who on or after July 1, 2005 commits and is convicted of a crime in violation of § 18.2-248 involving the manufacture of any controlled substance, may be ordered, upon presentation of suitable evidence of such costs, by the court to reimburse the Commonwealth or the locality for the costs incurred by the jurisdiction, as the case may be, for the removal and remediation associated with the illegal manufacture of any controlled substance by the defendant.

C. At or before the time of sentencing, the court shall receive and consider any plan for making restitution submitted by the defendant. The plan shall include the defendant's home address, place of employment and address, social security number and bank information. If the court finds such plan to be reasonable and practical under the circumstances, it may consider probation or suspension of whatever portion of the sentence that it deems appropriate. By order of the court incorporating the defendant's plan or a reasonable and practical plan devised by the court, the defendant shall make restitution while he is free on probation or work release or following his release from confinement. Additionally, the court may order that the defendant make restitution during his confinement, if feasible, based upon both his earning capacity and net worth as determined by the court at sentencing.

D. At the time of sentencing, the court shall determine the amount to be repaid by the defendant and the terms and conditions thereof. If community service work is ordered, the court shall determine the terms and conditions upon which such work shall be performed. The court shall include such findings in the judgment order. E. Unreasonable failure to execute the plan by the defendant shall result in revocation of the probation or imposition of the suspended sentence. A hearing shall be held in accordance with the provisions of this Code relating to revocation of probation or imposition of a suspended sentence before either such action is taken.

E1. A defendant convicted of an offense under § 18.2-374.1, 18.2-374.1:1, or 18.2-374.3 shall be ordered to pay mandatory restitution to the victim of the offense in an amount as determined by the court. F. If restitution is ordered to be paid by the defendant to the victim of a crime and the victim can no longer be located or identified, the clerk shall deposit any such restitution collected to the Criminal Injuries Compensation Fund for the benefit of crime victims. The administrator shall reserve a sum sufficient in the Fund from which he shall make prompt payment to the victim for any proper claims. Before making the deposit he shall record the name, last known address and amount of restitution due each victim appearing from the clerk's report to be entitled to restitution.

G. If restitution pursuant to § 19.2-305 or this section is ordered to be paid by the defendant to the victim of a crime or other entity, and the Criminal Injuries Compensation Fund has made any payments to or on behalf of the victim for any loss, damage, or expenses included in the restitution order, then upon presentation by the Fund of a written request that sets forth the amount of payments made by the Fund to the victim or on the victim's behalf, the entity collecting restitution shall pay to the Fund as much of the restitution collected as will reimburse the Fund for its payments made to the victim or on the victim's behalf.
