SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 125

Offered February 6, 2014

Commending Stephen Lynn Moloney.

Patrons—Petersen; Delegate: Bulova

WHEREAS, Stephen Lynn Moloney, the deeply respected treasurer of the City of Fairfax whose sound leadership benefitted the city for over three decades, retired on December 31, 2013; and

WHEREAS, a native of Columbus, Ohio, Stephen "Steve" Moloney graduated from J.E.B. Stuart High School in Falls Church in 1967 and earned a bachelor's degree from Mount Saint Mary's University in 1971; and

WHEREAS, Steve Moloney moved to the City of Fairfax in 1979 while serving as an auditor with the Internal Revenue Service; working to enhance the community almost immediately, he helped set up a Neighborhood Watch program in Fairchester Woods; and

WHEREAS, Steve Moloney was elected treasurer of the City of Fairfax in 1982, assuming responsibility during a critical period for the city; he brought a wealth of financial and accounting experience, and he restored credibility and respectability to the office; and

WHEREAS, known as a kind and trustworthy official who was committed to the well-being of the community, Steve Moloney always took time to meet and hear the concerns of his fellow Fairfax residents; over the course of his 31-year tenure as treasurer, he often ran unopposed for the position; and

WHEREAS, among his many accomplishments as treasurer, Steve Moloney worked with the commissioner of the revenue to establish a Department of Motor Vehicles Select Agency in the City of Fairfax in 2003; and

WHEREAS, a recognized leader in the community, Steve Moloney has donated his time and talents as a past president of the Fairchester Woods Civic Association, the Noonday Optimist Club, and the Treasurers' Association of Virginia; he has also served as a treasurer for the Country Club Hills Recreation Corporation and the Fairfax High School Band Boosters; and

WHEREAS, Steve Moloney will continue to offer his wisdom and experience as the chief financial officer for an electronics industry trade association; and

WHEREAS, Steve Moloney leaves an unmatched legacy of professionalism, dedication, and integrity to future treasurers and elected officials in the Commonwealth; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend Stephen Lynn Moloney, the admired longtime treasurer of the City of Fairfax, on the occasion of his retirement from public office in 2013; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Stephen Lynn Moloney as an expression of the General Assembly's admiration for his wise leadership and dedication to the betterment of the Fairfax community.
