4. Title: Office of State Long-Term Care Ombudsman; access to clients, patients, individuals, facilities, etc.

5. Summary: The bill provides that the Office of the State Long-Term Care Ombudsman shall have access to client records, during the investigation of complaints, of unlicensed adult day care centers, assisted living facilities, hospices, home care organizations, other providers licensed by the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services, and state training centers. The bill further requires that if an individual is unable to consent to the review of their medical records and has a legal representative that refuses to consent then the records can still be reviewed if the representative's refusal is deemed contrary to the best interests of the individual.

6. Budget Amendment Necessary: No.

7. No Fiscal Impact

8. Fiscal Implications: This bill has no fiscal impact. It adds to the list of long-term care providers that must allow access to medical records by the Office of the State Long-Term Care Ombudsman during investigations of complaints filed with the office. In addition, it specifies how that access is granted if the client is unable to consent.

9. Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Department for Aging and Rehabilitative Services.

10. Technical Amendment Necessary: No.

11. Other Comments: None.
