1. Bill Number: SB 65

House of Origin ☐ Introduced ☐ Substitute ☐ Engrossed
Second House ☐ In Committee ☐ Substitute ☒ Enrolled

2. Patron: Marsh

3. Committee: Passed both houses

4. Title: Reckless handling of firearms

5. Summary:

The proposed legislation would make it a Class 6 felony for someone to handle any firearm in a manner so gross, wanton, and culpable as to show a reckless disregard for human life and cause serious bodily injury of another person resulting in permanent and significant physical impairment.

6. Budget Amendment Necessary: Yes. Item 385. The House and Senate have included funding for the fiscal impact of this legislation in their amendments to the budget bill.

7. Fiscal Impact Estimates: Final. See Item 8 below.

Expenditure Impact:

Fiscal Year	Dollars	Fund
2015	$50,000	General
2016	$0
2017	$0
2018	$0
2019	$0
2020	$0

8. Fiscal Implications:

For someone convicted of a Class 6 felony, a judge has the option of sentencing him to up to one year in jail, or 1 to 5 years in prison. Therefore, this proposal could result in an increase in the number of persons sentenced to jail or prison.

There is not enough information available to reliably estimate how many additional inmates in jail could result from this proposal. Any increase in jail population will increase costs to the state. The Commonwealth presently pays the localities $4.00 a day for each misdemeanor or otherwise local responsible prisoner held in a jail and $12.00 a day for each state responsible inmate. It also funds a considerable portion of the jails' operating costs, e.g. correctional officers. The state's share of these costs on a per prisoner, per day basis varies from locality to locality. However, according to the Compensation Board's most recent Jail Cost Report (November 2013), the estimated total state support for local jails averaged $30.06 per inmate, per day in FY 2012.

Due to the lack of data, the Virginia Criminal Sentencing Commission has concluded, pursuant to §30-19.1:4 of the Code of Virginia, that the impact of the proposed legislation on state-responsible (prison) bed space cannot be determined. In such cases, Chapter 806 of the 2013 Acts of Assembly, requires that a minimum impact of $50,000 be assigned to the bill.

9. Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected:

11. Other Comments: Identical to HB 810.
