HOUSE BILL NO. 1606

House Amendments in [ ] - February 9, 2015

A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 2.2-3701 and 9.1-101 of the Code of Virginia, relating to private police departments.

Patron Prior to Engrossment—Delegate Garrett

Referred to Committee on Militia, Police and Public Safety

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 2.2-3701 and 9.1-101 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 2.2-3701. Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context requires a different meaning:

"Closed meeting" means a meeting from which the public is excluded.

"Electronic communication" means any audio or combined audio and visual communication method.

"Emergency" means an unforeseen circumstance rendering the notice required by this chapter impossible or impracticable and which circumstance requires immediate action.

"Meeting" or "meetings" means the meetings including work sessions, when sitting physically, or through telephonic or video equipment pursuant to § 2.2-3708 or 2.2-3708.1, as a body or entity, or as an informal assemblage of (i) as many as three members or (ii) a quorum, if less than three, of the constituent membership, wherever held, with or without minutes being taken, whether or not votes are cast, of any public body. The gathering of employees of a public body shall not be deemed a "meeting" subject to the provisions of this chapter.

"Open meeting" or "public meeting" means a meeting at which the public may be present.

"Public body" means any legislative body, authority, board, bureau, commission, district or agency of the Commonwealth or of any political subdivision of the Commonwealth, including cities, towns and counties, municipal councils, governing bodies of counties, school boards and planning commissions; boards of visitors of public institutions of higher education; and other organizations, corporations or agencies in the Commonwealth supported wholly or principally by public funds. It shall include (i) the Virginia Birth-Related Neurological Injury Compensation Program and its board of directors established pursuant to Chapter 50 (§ 38.2-5000 et seq.) of Title 38.2 and (ii) any committee, subcommittee, or other entity however designated, of the public body created to perform delegated functions of the public body or to advise the public body. It shall not exclude any such committee, subcommittee or entity because it has private sector or citizen members. Corporations organized by the Virginia Retirement System are "public bodies" for purposes of this chapter.

For the purposes of the provisions of this chapter applicable to access to public records, constitutional officers and private police departments as defined in § 9.1-101 shall be considered public bodies and, except as otherwise expressly provided by law, shall have the same obligations to disclose public records as other custodians of public records.

"Public records" means all writings and recordings that consist of letters, words or numbers, or their equivalent, set down by handwriting, typewriting, printing, photostating, photography, magnetic impulse, optical or magneto-optical form, mechanical or electronic recording or other form of data compilation, however stored, and regardless of physical form or characteristics, prepared or owned by, or in the possession of a public body or its officers, employees or agents in the transaction of public business. Records that are not prepared for or used in the transaction of public business are not public records.

"Regional public body" means a unit of government organized as provided by law within defined boundaries, as determined by the General Assembly, whose members are appointed by the participating local governing bodies, and such unit includes two or more counties or cities.

"Scholastic records" means those records containing information directly related to a student or an applicant for admission and maintained by a public body that is an educational agency or institution or by a person acting for such agency or institution.

§ 9.1-101. Definitions.

As used in this chapter or in Chapter 23 (§ 19.2-387 et seq.) of Title 19.2, unless the context requires a different meaning:

"Administration of criminal justice" means performance of any activity directly involving the detection, apprehension, detention, pretrial release, post-trial release, prosecution, adjudication, correctional supervision, or rehabilitation of accused persons or criminal offenders or the collection, storage, and dissemination of criminal history record information.

"Board" means the Criminal Justice Services Board.

111 police agents under the provisions of § 56-353, ] that employs private police officers operated by an 112 entity authorized by statute or an act of assembly to establish a private police department. No entity is
113 authorized to operate a private police department or represent that it is a private police department
114 unless such entity has been authorized by statute or an act of assembly. The authority of a private 115 police department shall be limited to real property owned, leased, or controlled by the entity and, if 116 approved by the local chief of police or sheriff, any contiguous property; such authority shall not
117 supersede the authority, duties, or jurisdiction vested by law with the local police department or sheriff's 118 office including as provided in §§ 15.2-1609 and 15.2-1704. [ The chief of police or sheriff who is the 119 chief local law-enforcement officer shall enter into a memorandum of understanding with the private 120 police department that addresses the duties and responsibilities of the private police department and the

121 chief law-enforcement officer in the conduct of criminal investigations. ] Private police departments and 122 private police officers shall be subject to and comply with the Constitution of the United States; the 123 Constitution of Virginia; the laws governing municipal police departments, including the provisions of 124 §§ 9.1-600, 15.2-1705 through 15.2-1708, 15.2-1719, 15.2-1721, and 15.2-1722; and any regulations
 125 adopted by the Board that the Department designates as applicable to private police departments. Any 126 person employed as a private police officer pursuant to this section shall meet all requirements,
 127 including the minimum compulsory training requirements, for law-enforcement officers pursuant to this
 128 chapter. A private police officer is not entitled to benefits under the Line of Duty Act (§ 9.1-400 et seq.)
 129 or under the Virginia Retirement System, is not a "qualified law enforcement officer" or "qualified
 130 retired law enforcement officer" within the meaning of the federal Law Enforcement Officers Safety Act,
 131 18 U.S.C. § 926B et seq., and shall not be deemed an employee of the Commonwealth or any locality.
 132 An authorized private police department may use the word "police" to describe its sworn officers and 133 may join a regional criminal justice academy created pursuant to Article 5 (§ 15.2-1747 et seq.) of 134 Chapter 17 of Title 15.2. Any private police department in existence on January 1, 2013, that was not
 135 otherwise established by statute or an act of assembly and whose status as a private police department
 136 was recognized by the Department at that time is hereby validated and may continue to operate as a
 137 private police department, provided it complies with the requirements set forth herein.

138 "School resource officer" means a certified law-enforcement officer hired by the local
 139 law-enforcement agency to provide law-enforcement and security services to Virginia public elementary
 140 and secondary schools.

141 "School security officer" means an individual who is employed by the local school board for the
 142 singular purpose of maintaining order and discipline, preventing crime, investigating violations of school
 143 board policies, and detaining students violating the law or school board policies on school property or at 144 school-sponsored events and who is responsible solely for ensuring the safety, security, and welfare of 145 all students, faculty, staff, and visitors in the assigned school.
