59 remaining members of the Council from among the qualified voters of the Town. For purposes of this
60 section, no distinction shall be made between a member elected to the council and a member who has
61 been appointed to the council except as to voting on those matters set forth in Article VII, Section 7 of 62 the Constitution of Virginia. Upon any matter except those set forth in Article VII, Section 7 of the
63 Constitution of Virginia coming before the council, the votes of all members shall be of the same
64 dignity, whether a member has been elected or appointed.

65 E. The members of the Council in office at the time of the passage of this Act shall continue until 66 the expiration of the terms for which they were elected, or until their successors are duly elected, qualify
67 and assume office.

68 § 3.3 - Mayor.

69 A. Powers and duties.

70 1. The mayor shall be the chief executive officer of the Town and shall be recognized as the head of 71 Town government for all ceremonial purposes, the purpose of military law and the service of civil 72 process; he shall have and exercise all power and authority conferred by general law on the mayors of 73 towns not inconsistent with this charter; he shall authenticate by his signature such documents as the
74 council, this charter or the laws of the Commonwealth shall require; and he shall perform such other
75 duties consistent with his office as may be imposed by the council.

76 2. The mayor shall preside at all meetings of the council, but shall have no vote except in case of 77 tie; he shall have the power to veto resolutions, acts and ordinances of the council, which resolutions,
78 acts and ordinances may be passed over such veto by a two-thirds vote of the entire council; and he
79 shall from time to time recommend to the council such measures as he may deem necessary for the 80 welfare of the Town.

81 3. ~~The~~ Except as otherwise provided herein or by law, the mayor shall have the authority to appoint
82 such officers and employees as specifically authorized herein ~~or committees~~ as are necessary for the
83 proper administration of the affairs of the Town, but shall report each appointment to the council for 84 confirmation at the next meeting thereof following any such appointment; the mayor shall see that the 85 duties of the various Town officers are faithfully performed, and he shall have the power to suspend any 86 such officer for misconduct in office or neglect of duty until the next regular or special meeting of the 87 council, when the decision of the council shall be final.

88 B. Election. In each even-numbered year, on the date specified by general law for municipal
89 elections, a mayor for the Town shall be elected for a term of two years. The person so elected shall so
90 qualify and take office on July 1, following election. Mayors shall continue to serve until their 91 successors are duly elected, qualify and assume office.

92 C. Qualifications. Any person qualified to vote in Town elections shall be eligible for the office of 93 mayor.

94 D. Vacancies. A vacancy in the office of mayor shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority
95 vote of the members elected to the council from among the qualified voters of the Town. A member of 96 the council shall not be qualified to fill a vacancy in the office of mayor. For the purposes of this
97 section, no distinction shall be made between a person elected as mayor and a person who has been
98 appointed as mayor except as to voting on those matters set forth in Article VII, Section 7 of the
99 Constitution of Virginia. Upon any matter except those set forth in Article VII, Section 7 of the
100 Constitution of Virginia coming before the council, the votes of all members shall be of the same
101 dignity, whether a member has been elected or appointed.

102 E. The mayor in office at the time of the passage of this Act shall continue in office until the 103 expiration of the term for which he was elected, or until his successor is duly elected, qualifies and 104 assumes office.

105 § 3.4 - Vice-Mayor.

106 A. The council ~~may~~ shall elect from among its members a vice-mayor, who shall preside at council
107 meetings in the absence of the mayor. Election of the vice-mayor shall be made at the organizational 108 meeting of the council following the regular election of mayor and council members.

109 B. In the event of the disability or absence of the mayor, his place may be filled and his duties
110 discharged by the vice-mayor.

111 § 3.5 - Meeting.

112 A. All meetings of the council shall be public, unless ~~an executive~~ a closed session is called 113 according to law. No official action shall be taken by the council while in ~~executive~~ closed session.

114 B. The council, by ordinance, shall adopt such rules as it may deem proper for the regulation of its 115 proceedings and the time of its meetings. It shall hold at least ~~one such~~ regular ~~monthly~~ meeting
116 meetings as may be required by § 15.2-1416 of the Code of Virginia. Special meetings may be called at
117 any time by the mayor or by three members of the council, provided all members of the council are 118 actually notified of such meeting.

119 C. A majority of the council shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Each member
120 of the council shall have one vote.

§ 4.1 - Town officers.

A. Town Clerk. A Town Clerk shall be appointed who shall be the Clerk of the council and shall keep the journal of its proceedings and shall record all ordinances and resolutions in a book or books kept for that purpose. All such records shall be public records, stored and filed at the Town's offices and open to inspection at any time during the Town's regular office hours. The Town Clerk ~~may be a resident of the Town and shall serve for a term coincident with that of the mayor at the pleasure of the town council.~~

B. Town Treasurer. A Town Treasurer shall be appointed who shall receive all money belonging to the Town and keep correct accounts of all receipts from all sources and of all expenditures; he shall be responsible for the collection of all license fees, taxes, levies and charges due to the Town and shall disburse the funds of the Town as the council may direct. The Town Treasurer ~~may be a resident of the Town and shall serve for a term coincident with that of the mayor at the pleasure of the town council.~~

C. Town Manager. A Town Manager, in the discretion of the mayor and council, may be appointed who shall serve as the chief administrative officer of the Town. The Town Manager ~~need not be a resident of the Town and shall serve at the pleasure of the mayor and council.~~

D. Other town officers. The mayor, in his discretion and with the approval of the council, may appoint a town attorney, a town zoning administrator, and such other town officers as may be deemed appropriate. Such officers ~~need not be residents of the Town and shall serve at the pleasure of the mayor and council, unless the council shall provide otherwise.~~

E. Duties, etc. Each officer shall have such duties as are specified by the council not inconsistent with the Constitution and general laws of the Commonwealth and this charter, shall execute such bonds as may be prescribed by resolution of the council, and shall receive such compensation as the council may prescribe.

F. The same person may be appointed to more than one office; provided, however, that no person may serve both as an officer of the Town and as mayor or member of the council except as otherwise provided in this charter or by general law.

§ 4.2 - Boards, commissions and committees.

A. Planning commission. The council shall appoint a Town planning commission which shall have such powers and duties as are provided by general law.

B. Board of Zoning Appeals. The council shall appoint the members of the Board of Zoning Appeals for the Town, which shall consist of three or five members, and prescribe their terms of office and qualifications. The Board of Zoning Appeals shall have such powers and duties as are provided by general law.

C. Committees. The council, in its discretion, may establish such committees, whether standing or ad hoc, as it may deem appropriate, to study and report to the council on those matters referred to such committees by the council. The report of any such committee shall not be binding upon the council, but shall be advisory only.

D. Membership. ~~Members~~ Except as otherwise provided by law, members of the council and the mayor are eligible to serve as members of any Town commission, committee or group; provided, however, that they shall have no vote in any official matter before any such commission, committee or group; although they may participate fully in all debate and discussion. Members of the council and the mayor so serving shall be entitled to participate fully as voting members of such commission, committee or group except as otherwise provided by law.

E. Compensation. The council may provide for compensation to such of their boards, commissions or committees performing special work to the extent that may be reasonable and fair.

§ 4.3 - Fiscal control.

A. Fiscal year. The fiscal year of the Town shall begin on July 1, and end on June 30, ~~unless and until changed by ordinance.~~

B. Fiscal control. The council shall have the power to control and manage the fiscal affairs of the Town and to make such ordinances, orders and resolutions relating to the same as it may deem necessary. After the close of each fiscal year, the council shall cause to be made an independent audit of the accounts, books, records and financial transactions of the Town either by the Auditor of Public Accounts of the Commonwealth or by an independent certified public accountant to be selected by the council. The report of such audit shall be filed within such time as the council shall specify, and one copy thereof shall always be available for public inspection in the Town's offices during the Town's regular business hours.

§ 5.2 - Historic districts.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the council may establish one or more historic districts within the Town for the purpose of promoting the general welfare, education and recreational pleasure of the public through the perpetuation of those general areas, individual structures or premises which have been officially designated by the council as having historical or architectural significance. The

182 establishment of historic districts shall be by amendment of the Town's zoning ordinance and consistent
183 with the purposes, criteria and procedures set forth in § ~~15.1-503.2~~ 15.2-2306 of the Code of Virginia.
