D. *Except in cases of short-term suspensions pursuant to § 22.1-277.04, when a school board or a committee thereof, in accordance with regulations of the school board, determines that (i) two or more students have engaged in closely related offenses arising out of the same incident or circumstances that lead to each student's expulsion or suspension, (ii) the cases resulted in highly disparate disciplinary decisions in which at least one student received a lesser punishment, and (iii) no rational basis exists for the disparate disciplinary decisions, the school board or a committee thereof may, after reviewing the facts of each case and reporting in writing its reasons for finding that no rational basis exists for the disparate disciplinary decisions, reduce the suspension or expulsion of the student or students who received a greater punishment.
