HB598

14101613D HOUSE BILL NO. 598 1 2 Offered January 8, 2014 3 Prefiled January 7, 2014 4 A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 19.2-327.2, 19.2-327.3, 19.2-327.10, and 19.2-327.11 of the Code of 5 Virginia, relating to the type of plea required for issuance of a writ of actual innocence. 6 Patron—Herring 7 8 Referred to Committee for Courts of Justice 9 10 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. That §§ 19.2-327.2, 19.2-327.3, 19.2-327.10, and 19.2-327.11 of the Code of Virginia are amended 11 12 and reenacted as follows: § 19.2-327.2. Issuance of writ of actual innocence based on biological evidence. 13 14 Notwithstanding any other provision of law or rule of court, upon a petition of a person who was 15 convicted of a felony upon a plea of not guilty or who was adjudicated delinquent upon a plea of not guilty by a circuit court of an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult, or for any 16 person, regardless of the plea, sentenced to death, or convicted or adjudicated delinquent of (i) a Class 1 17 felony, (ii) a Class 2 felony, or (iii) any felony for which the maximum penalty is imprisonment for life, 18 19 the Supreme Court shall have the authority to issue writs of actual innocence under this chapter. The 20 writ shall lie to the circuit court that entered the felony conviction or adjudication of delinquency and that court shall have the authority to conduct hearings, as provided for in § 19.2-327.5, on such a 21 22 petition as directed by order from the Supreme Court. 23 § 19.2-327.3. Contents and form of the petition based on previously unknown or untested 24 human biological evidence of actual innocence. 25 A. The petitioner shall allege categorically and with specificity, under oath, the following: (i) the crime for which the petitioner was convicted or the offense for which the petitioner was adjudicated 26 27 delinquent, and that such conviction or adjudication of delinquency was upon a plea of not guilty or that 28 the person is under a sentence of death or convicted of (a) a Class 1 felony, (b) a Class 2 felony, or (c) 29 any felony for which the maximum penalty is imprisonment for life; (ii) that the petitioner is actually 30 innocent of the crime for which he was convicted or adjudicated delinquent; (iii) an exact description of 31 the human biological evidence and the scientific testing supporting the allegation of innocence; (iv) that the evidence was not previously known or available to the petitioner or his trial attorney of record at the 32 33 time the conviction or adjudication of delinquency became final in the circuit court, or if known, the 34 reason that the evidence was not subject to the scientific testing set forth in the petition; (v) the date the 35 test results under § 19.2-327.1 became known to the petitioner or any attorney of record; (vi) that the 36 petitioner or his attorney of record has filed the petition within 60 days of obtaining the test results 37 under § 19.2-327.1; (vii) the reason or reasons the evidence will prove that no rational trier of fact 38 would have found proof of guilt or delinquency beyond a reasonable doubt; and (viii) for any conviction 39 or adjudication of delinquency that became final in the circuit court after June 30, 1996, that the 40 evidence was not available for testing under § 9.1-1104. The Supreme Court may issue a stay of 41 execution pending proceedings under the petition. Nothing in this chapter shall constitute grounds to delay setting an execution date pursuant to § 53.1-232.1 or to grant a stay of execution that has been set 42 43 pursuant to clause (iii) or (iv) of § 53.1-232.1. 44 B. Such petition shall contain all relevant allegations of facts that are known to the petitioner at the 45 time of filing and shall enumerate and include all previous records, applications, petitions, and appeals 46 and their dispositions. A copy of any test results shall be filed with the petition. The petition shall be 47 filed on a form provided by the Supreme Court. If the petitioner fails to submit a completed form, the Court may dismiss the petition or return the petition to the prisoner pending the completion of such 48 49 form. The petitioner shall be responsible for all statements contained in the petition. Any false statement 50 in the petition, if such statement is knowingly or willfully made, shall be a ground for prosecution and 51 conviction of perjury as provided for in § 18.2-434. C. The Supreme Court shall not accept the petition unless it is accompanied by a duly executed 52

53 return of service in the form of a verification that a copy of the petition and all attachments has been served on the attorney for the Commonwealth of the jurisdiction where the conviction or adjudication of 54 55 delinquency occurred and the Attorney General or an acceptance of service signed by these officials, or any combination thereof. The Attorney General shall have 30 days after receipt of the record by the 56 clerk of the Supreme Court in which to file a response to the petition. The response may contain a 57 proffer of any evidence pertaining to the guilt or delinguency or innocence of the petitioner that is not 58

59 included in the record of the case, including evidence that was suppressed at trial.

D. The Supreme Court may, when the case has been before a trial or appellate court, inspect the record of any trial or appellate court action, and the Court may, in any case, award a writ of certiorari to the clerk of the respective court below, and have brought before the Court the whole record or any 63 part of any record.

64 E. In any petition filed pursuant to this chapter, the petitioner is entitled to representation by counsel 65 subject to the provisions of Article 3 (§ 19.2-157 et seq.) of Chapter 10.

§ 19.2-327.10. Issuance of writ of actual innocence based on nonbiological evidence.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law or rule of court, upon a petition of a person who was 67 convicted of a felony upon a plea of not guilty, or the petition of a person who was adjudicated 68 delinquent, upon a plea of not guilty, by a circuit court of an offense that would be a felony if 69 70 committed by an adult, the Court of Appeals shall have the authority to issue writs of actual innocence 71 under this chapter. Only one such writ based upon such conviction or adjudication of delinquency may 72 be filed by a petitioner. The writ shall lie to the circuit court that entered the conviction or the 73 adjudication of delinquency and that court shall have the authority to conduct hearings, as provided for 74 in this chapter, on such a petition as directed by order from the Court of Appeals. In accordance with 75 §§ 17.1-411 and 19.2-317, either party may appeal a final decision of the Court of Appeals to the Supreme Court of Virginia. Upon an appeal from the Court of Appeals, the Supreme Court of Virginia 76 77 shall have the authority to issue writs in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

$ 19.2-327.11. Contents and form of the petition based on previously unknown or unavailable evidence of actual innocence.

80 A. The petitioner shall allege categorically and with specificity, under oath, all of the following: (i) 81 the crime for which the petitioner was convicted or the offense for which the petitioner was adjudicated 82 delinquent, and that such conviction or adjudication of delinquency was upon a plea of not guilty; (ii) 83 that the petitioner is actually innocent of the crime for which he was convicted or the offense for which 84 he was adjudicated delinquent; (iii) an exact description of the previously unknown or unavailable 85 evidence supporting the allegation of innocence; (iv) that such evidence was previously unknown or 86 unavailable to the petitioner or his trial attorney of record at the time the conviction or adjudication of 87 delinquency became final in the circuit court; (v) the date the previously unknown or unavailable 88 evidence became known or available to the petitioner, and the circumstances under which it was 89 discovered; (vi) that the previously unknown or unavailable evidence is such as could not, by the 90 exercise of diligence, have been discovered or obtained before the expiration of 21 days following entry 91 of the final order of conviction or adjudication of delinquency by the circuit court; (vii) the previously 92 unknown or unavailable evidence is material and, when considered with all of the other evidence in the 93 current record, will prove that no rational trier of fact would have found proof of guilt or delinquency beyond a reasonable doubt; and (viii) the previously unknown or unavailable evidence is not merely cumulative, corroborative or collateral. Nothing in this chapter shall constitute grounds to delay setting 94 95 96 an execution date pursuant to § 53.1-232.1 or to grant a stay of execution that has been set pursuant to 97 clause (iii) or (iv) of § 53.1-232.1 or to delay or stay any other appeals following conviction or 98 adjudication of delinquency, or petitions to any court. Human biological evidence may not be used as 99 the sole basis for seeking relief under this writ but may be used in conjunction with other evidence.

B. Such petition shall contain all relevant allegations of facts that are known to the petitioner at the time of filing, shall be accompanied by all relevant documents, affidavits and test results, and shall enumerate and include all relevant previous records, applications, petitions, and appeals and their dispositions. The petition shall be filed on a form provided by the Supreme Court. If the petitioner fails to submit a completed form, the Court of Appeals may dismiss the petition or return the petition to the petitioner pending the completion of such form. Any false statement in the petition, if such statement is knowingly or willfully made, shall be a ground for prosecution of perjury as provided for in § 18.2-434.

107 C. In cases brought by counsel for the petitioner, the Court of Appeals shall not accept the petition 108 unless it is accompanied by a duly executed return of service in the form of a verification that a copy of 109 the petition and all attachments have been served on the attorney for the Commonwealth of the 110 jurisdiction where the conviction or adjudication of delinquency occurred and the Attorney General, or 111 an acceptance of service signed by these officials, or any combination thereof. In cases brought by 112 petitioners pro se, the Court of Appeals shall not accept the petition unless it is accompanied by a 113 certificate that a copy of the petition and all attachments have been sent, by certified mail, to the attorney for the Commonwealth of the jurisdiction where the conviction or adjudication of delinquency 114 115 occurred and the Attorney General. If the Court of Appeals does not summarily dismiss the petition, it shall so notify in writing the Attorney General, the attorney for the Commonwealth, and the petitioner. 116 117 The Attorney General shall have 60 days after receipt of such notice in which to file a response to the petition that may be extended for good cause shown; however, nothing shall prevent the Attorney 118 119 General from filing an earlier response. The response may contain a proffer of any evidence pertaining 120 to the guilt or delinquency or innocence of the petitioner that is not included in the record of the case, 121 including evidence that was suppressed at trial.

D. The Court of Appeals may inspect the record of any trial or appellate court action, and the Court may, in any case, award a writ of certiorari to the clerk of the respective court below, and have brought before the Court the whole record or any part of any record. If, in the judgment of the Court, the petition fails to state a claim, or if the assertions of previously unknown or unavailable evidence, even if true, would fail to qualify for the granting of relief under this chapter, the Court may dismiss the petition summarily, without any hearing or a response from the Attorney General.

E. In any petition filed pursuant to this chapter that is not summarily dismissed, the petitioner is entitled to representation by counsel subject to the provisions of Article 3 (§ 19.2-157 et seq.) and Article 4 (§ 19.2-163.3 et seq.) of Chapter 10. The Court of Appeals may, in its discretion, appoint counsel prior to deciding whether a petition should be summarily dismissed.
