14101556D HOUSE BILL NO. 717 Offered January 8, 2014 Prefiled January 7, 2014 A BILL to amend and reenact $ 58.1-322 of the Code of Virginia, relating to an individual income deduction for mental health professionals volunteering with community services boards by proviservices to inmates. Patrons—McClellan and Mason Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. That $ 58.1-322 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: $$ Patrons—McClellan and Mason Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. That $ 58.1-322 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: $$ S1-322. Virginia taxable income of residents. A. The Virginia taxable income tadjusted gross income, there shall be added	e for nited tions , on nless
 A BILL to amend and reenact § 58.1-322 of the Code of Virginia, relating to an individual income deduction for mental health professionals volunteering with community services boards by provise services to inmates. Patrons—McClellan and Mason Patrons—McClellan and Mason Referred to Committee on Finance Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. That § 58.1-322 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: § 58.1-322. Virginia taxable income of residents. A. The Virginia taxable income of a resident individual means his federal adjusted gross income the taxable year, which excludes combat pay for certain members of the Armed Forces of the U States as provided in § 112 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and with the modifica specified in this section. B. To the extent excluded from federal adjusted gross income, there shall be added: 1. Interest, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal income obligations of any state other than Virginia is a party; 2. Interest or dividends, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal income income taxes; 3. Unrelated business taxable income as defined by § 512 of the Internal Revenue Code; 4. The amount of a lump sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan, less the minini distribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax purposes that is excluded federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax of accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code; 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax of accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code; 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the pa	e for nited tions , on nless
 A BILL to amend and reenact § 58.1-322 of the Code of Virginia, relating to an individual income deduction for mental health professionals volunteering with community services boards by provise services to inmates. Patrons—McClellan and Mason Patrons—McClellan and Mason Referred to Committee on Finance Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. That § 58.1-322 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: § 58.1-322. Virginia taxable income of residents. A. The Virginia taxable income of a resident individual means his federal adjusted gross income the taxable year, which excludes combat pay for certain members of the Armed Forces of the U States as provided in § 112 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and with the modifica specified in this section. B. To the extent excluded from federal adjusted gross income, there shall be added: 1. Interest, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal income obligations of any state other than Virginia is a party; 2. Interest or dividends, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal income income taxes; 3. Unrelated business taxable income as defined by § 512 of the Internal Revenue Code; 4. The amount of a lump sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan, less the minini distribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax purposes that is excluded federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax of accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code; 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax of accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code; 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the pa	e for nited tions , on nless deduction for mental health professionals volunteering with community services boards by provesservices to inmates. Patrons—McClellan and Mason Referred to Committee on Finance Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. That § 58.1-322 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: § 58.1-322. Virginia taxable income of residents. A. The Virginia taxable income of a resident individual means his federal adjusted gross income the taxable year, which excludes combat pay for certain members of the Armed Forces of the U States as provided in § 112 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and with the modifica specified in this section. B. To the extent excluded from federal adjusted gross income, there shall be added: 1. Interest, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal income obligations of any state other than Virginia is a party; 2. Interest or dividends, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal income income taxes; 3. Unrelated business taxable income as defined by § 512 of the Internal Revenue Code; 4. The amount of a lump sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan, less the minini distribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax but not from income taxes; 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax of accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code; 4. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax of accumulation distribution guess and adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: 1. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United State the extent termination distribution distribution guess and the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United State the extent termination distribution from obligati	e for nited tions , on nless services to inmates. Patrons—McClellan and Mason Referred to Committee on Finance Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. That § 58.1-322 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: § 58.1-322. Virginia taxable income of residents. A. The Virginia taxable income of residents. A. The Virginia taxable income of residents. B. To the extent excluded from federal adjusted gross income, there shall be added: Interest, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal income of explicit stable income, or of a political subdivision of any such other state u created by compact or agreement to which Virginia is a party; 2. Interest or dividends, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal income taxable income, on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of United States, which the laws of the United States exempt from federal income taxes; 3. Unrelated business taxable income as defined by § 512 of the Internal Revenue Code; 4. The amount of a lump sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan, less the mini distribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax purposes that is excluded federal adjusted gross income solely by virtue of an individual's election to use the averaging provision or sucumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code. C. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: 1. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United States including, but not lift to work the the averaging provision or instrumentality of the United States including, but not lift to, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal tax or accumulation distribution from states under the laws of the United States i	e for nited tions , on nless
 Patrons—McClellan and Mason Patrons—McClellan and Mason Referred to Committee on Finance Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. That § 58.1-322 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: § 58.1-322. Virginia taxable income of residents. A. The Virginia taxable income of a resident individual means his federal adjusted gross income the taxable year, which excludes combat pay for certain members of the Armed Forces of the U States as provided in § 112 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and with the modifica specified in this section. B. To the extent excluded from federal adjusted gross income, there shall be added: 1. Interest, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal income obligations of any state other than Virginia is a party; 2. Interest or dividends, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining fe taxable income, on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of United States, which the laws of the United States exempt from federal income tax but not from income taxes; 3. Unrelated business taxable income as defined by § 512 of the Internal Revenue Code; 4. The amount of a lump sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan, less the minin distribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax purposes that is excluded federal adjusted gross income solely by virtue of an individual's election to use the averaging provision under § 402 of the Internal Revenue Code; and 5. Through 8. [Repealed.] 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax or accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code. C. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: 1. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligati	nited tions , on nless
 Patrons—McClellan and Mason Referred to Committee on Finance Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. That § 58.1-322 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: § 58.1-322. Virginia taxable income of a residents. A. The Virginia taxable income of a residents. A. The Virginia taxable income of a resident individual means his federal adjusted gross incom the taxable year, which excludes combat pay for certain members of the Armed Forces of the U States as provided in § 112 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and with the modifical specified in this section. B. To the extent excluded from federal adjusted gross income, there shall be added: 1. Interest, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal income obligations of any state other than Virginia, or of a political subdivision of any such other state u created by compact or agreement to which Virginia is a party; 2. Interest or dividends, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining fe taxable income, on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of United States, which the laws of the United States exempt from federal income tax but not from income taxes; 3. Urrelated business taxable income as defined by § 512 of the Internal Revenue Code; 4. The amount of a lump sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan, less the minit distribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax purposes that is excluded federal adjusted gross income solely by virtue of an individual's election to use the averaging provision under § 402 of the Internal Revenue Code; and 5. Through 8. [Repealed.] 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax of accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code. C. To the extent included in fede	nited tions , on nless
 Referred to Committee on Finance Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. That § 58.1-322 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: § 58.1-322. Of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: § 58.1-322. Virginia taxable income of residents. A. The Virginia taxable income of a resident individual means his federal adjusted gross income the taxable year, which excludes combat pay for certain members of the Armed Forces of the U States as provided in § 112 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and with the modifica specified in this section. B. To the extent excluded from federal adjusted gross income, there shall be added: 1. Interest, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal income obligations of any state other than Virginia, or of a political subdivision of any such other state u created by compact or agreement to which Virginia is a party; 2. Interest or dividends, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining fe taxable income, on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of United States, which the laws of the United States exempt from federal income tax but not from income taxes; 3. Unrelated business taxable income as defined by § 512 of the Internal Revenue Code; 4. The amount of a lump sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan, less the mini distribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax purposes that is excluded federal adjusted gross income solely by virtue of an individual's election to use the averaging provision under § 402 of the Internal Revenue Code; 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax of accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code. C. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: <li< th=""><th>nited tions , on nless</th></li<>	nited tions , on nless
 9 Referred to Committee on Finance 10 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 11 That § 58.1-322 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: § 58.1-322. Virginia taxable income of residents. 14 A. The Virginia taxable income of a resident individual means his federal adjusted gross income the taxable year, which excludes combat pay for certain members of the Armed Forces of the U 10 States as provided in § 112 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and with the modifica specified in this section. 18 B. To the extent excluded from federal adjusted gross income, there shall be added: 11. Interest, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal income obligations of any state other than Virginia, or of a political subdivision of any such other state u created by compact or agreement to which Virginia is a party; 2. Interest or dividends, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal income taxable income, on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of United States, which the laws of the United States exempt from federal income tax but not from income taxes; 3. Unrelated business taxable income as defined by § 512 of the Internal Revenue Code; 4. The amount of a lump sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan, less the minim distribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax purposes that is excluded federal adjusted gross income solely by virtue of an individual's election to use the averaging provisunder § 402 of the Internal Revenue Code; and 5 through 8. [Repealed.] 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax or accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code. C. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross incom, there shall be subtracted: 1. Income derived fr	nited tions , on nless
 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. That § 58.1-322. of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: § 58.1-322. Virginia taxable income of a resident individual means his federal adjusted gross income the taxable year, which excludes combat pay for certain members of the Armed Forces of the U States as provided in § 112 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and with the modifical specified in this section. B. To the extent excluded from federal adjusted gross income, there shall be added: 1. Interest, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal income obligations of any state other than Virginia, or of a political subdivision of any such other state u created by compact or agreement to which Virginia is a party; 2. Interest or dividends, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining fe taxable income, on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of United States, which the laws of the United States exempt from federal income tax but not from income taxes; 3. Unrelated business taxable income as defined by § 512 of the Internal Revenue Code; 4. The amount of a lump sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan, less the mininid distribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax purposes that is excluded federal adjusted gross income solely by virtue of an individual's election to use the averaging provisuid under § 402 of the Internal Revenue Code; and 5. through 8. [Repealed.] 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax of accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code. C. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: 1. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United State and on obligations or securities of any aut	nited tions , on nless
 1. That § 58.1-322 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: § 58.1-322. Virginia taxable income of residents. A. The Virginia taxable income of a resident individual means his federal adjusted gross income the taxable year, which excludes combat pay for certain members of the Armed Forces of the U States as provided in § 112 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and with the modifica specified in this section. B. To the extent excluded from federal adjusted gross income, there shall be added: 1. Interest, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal income obligations of any state other than Virginia, or of a political subdivision of any such other state u created by compact or agreement to which Virginia is a party; 2. Interest or dividends, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal taxable income, on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of United States, which the laws of the United States exempt from federal income tax but not from income taxes; 3. Unrelated business taxable income as defined by § 512 of the Internal Revenue Code; 4. The amount of a lump sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan, less the minim distribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax purposes that is excluded federal adjusted gross income solely by virtue of an individual's election to use the averaging provision under § 402 of the Internal Revenue Code; and 5. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax or accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code. C. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: 1. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United State including, but not lint to, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury no	nited tions , on nless
 § 58.1-322. Virginia taxable income of residents. A. The Virginia taxable income of a resident individual means his federal adjusted gross income the taxable year, which excludes combat pay for certain members of the Armed Forces of the U States as provided in § 112 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and with the modifical specified in this section. B. To the extent excluded from federal adjusted gross income, there shall be added: Interest, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal income obligations of any state other than Virginia, or of a political subdivision of any such other state u created by compact or agreement to which Virginia is a party; Interest or dividends, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining fe taxable income, on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of United States, which the laws of the United States exempt from federal income tax but not from income taxes; Unrelated business taxable income as defined by § 512 of the Internal Revenue Code; The amount of a lump sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan, less the minimidistribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax purposes that is excluded federal adjusted gross income solely by virtue of an individual's election to use the averaging provision under § 402 of the Internal Revenue Code; and Through 8. [Repealed.] The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax or accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code. C. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: I. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United State income taxes under the laws of the United States including, but not lint of using the partial tax or accumulation distribution pursuant tos § 667 of the Intern	nited tions , on nless
 A. The Virginia taxable income of a resident individual means his federal adjusted gross income the taxable year, which excludes combat pay for certain members of the Armed Forces of the U. States as provided in § 112 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and with the modifical specified in this section. B. To the extent excluded from federal adjusted gross income, there shall be added: Interest, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal income obligations of any state other than Virginia, or of a political subdivision of any such other state u created by compact or agreement to which Virginia is a party; Interest or dividends, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining fe taxable income, on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of United States, which the laws of the United States exempt from federal income tax but not from income taxes; Unrelated business taxable income as defined by § 512 of the Internal Revenue Code; The amount of a lump sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan, less the minimal distribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax purposes that is excluded federal adjusted gross income solely by virtue of an individual's election to use the averaging provisu under § 402 of the Internal Revenue Code; and 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax of accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code. C. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: 1. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United States and on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United States and on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United States and on obligations or securities	nited tions , on nless
 the taxable year, which excludes combat pay for certain members of the Armed Forces of the U States as provided in § 112 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and with the modifica specified in this section. B. To the extent excluded from federal adjusted gross income, there shall be added: I. Interest, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal income obligations of any state other than Virginia, or of a political subdivision of any such other state u created by compact or agreement to which Virginia is a party; Interest or dividends, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining fe taxable income, on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of United States, which the laws of the United States exempt from federal income tax but not from income taxes; Unrelated business taxable income as defined by § 512 of the Internal Revenue Code; The amount of a lump sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan, less the mining distribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax purposes that is excluded federal adjusted gross income solely by virtue of an individual's election to use the averaging provision under § 402 of the Internal Revenue Code; To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: I. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United States and on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the extent exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States including, but not lint through 8, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal ta 	nited tions , on nless
 States as provided in § 112 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and with the modifica specified in this section. B. To the extent excluded from federal adjusted gross income, there shall be added: Interest, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal income obligations of any state other than Virginia, or of a political subdivision of any such other state u created by compact or agreement to which Virginia is a party; Interest or dividends, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining fe taxable income, on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of United States, which the laws of the United States exempt from federal income tax but not from income taxes; Unrelated business taxable income as defined by § 512 of the Internal Revenue Code; The amount of a lump sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan, less the minim distribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax purposes that is excluded federal adjusted gross income solely by virtue of an individual's election to use the averaging provision under § 402 of the Internal Revenue Code; and through 8. [Repealed.] The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax or accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United State income taxes including, but not lint to, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal to the extent resurt of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United State income taxes including, but not lint to, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal to the including interest on refunds of fed	tions , on nless
 B. To the extent excluded from federal adjusted gross income, there shall be added: Interest, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal income obligations of any state other than Virginia, or of a political subdivision of any such other state u created by compact or agreement to which Virginia is a party; Interest or dividends, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal income, on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of United States, which the laws of the United States exempt from federal income tax but not from income taxes; Unrelated business taxable income as defined by § 512 of the Internal Revenue Code; The amount of a lump sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan, less the minimal distribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax purposes that is excluded federal adjusted gross income solely by virtue of an individual's election to use the averaging provision under § 402 of the Internal Revenue Code; and 5 through 8. [Repealed.] 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax or accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code. C. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: 1. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United State and on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United State includes of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the state securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United State income taxes; 	nless
 Interest, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal income obligations of any state other than Virginia, or of a political subdivision of any such other state u created by compact or agreement to which Virginia is a party; Interest or dividends, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining fe taxable income, on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of United States, which the laws of the United States exempt from federal income tax but not from income taxes; Unrelated business taxable income as defined by § 512 of the Internal Revenue Code; The amount of a lump sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan, less the minim distribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax purposes that is excluded federal adjusted gross income solely by virtue of an individual's election to use the averaging provisu under § 402 of the Internal Revenue Code; and 5 through 8. [Repealed.] 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax or accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code. C. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: 1. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United State and on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United State the extent exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States including, but not lir to, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal to the stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal to the stocks. 	nless obligations of any state other than Virginia, or of a political subdivision of any such other state u created by compact or agreement to which Virginia is a party; Interest or dividends, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining fe taxable income, on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of United States, which the laws of the United States exempt from federal income tax but not from income taxes; Unrelated business taxable income as defined by § 512 of the Internal Revenue Code; The amount of a lump sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan, less the minimized istribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax purposes that is excluded federal adjusted gross income solely by virtue of an individual's election to use the averaging provision under § 402 of the Internal Revenue Code; and 5 through 8. [Repealed.] 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax or accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code. C. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: 1. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United States and on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United States including, but not lir to, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal to the extent exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States including, but not lir to, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal to the extent exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States including, but not lir to, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal to the extent exempt form state income taxes under the laws of t	nless created by compact or agreement to which Virginia is a party; Interest or dividends, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining fe taxable income, on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of United States, which the laws of the United States exempt from federal income tax but not from income taxes; Unrelated business taxable income as defined by § 512 of the Internal Revenue Code; The amount of a lump sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan, less the mining distribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax purposes that is excluded federal adjusted gross income solely by virtue of an individual's election to use the averaging provision under § 402 of the Internal Revenue Code; and 5 through 8. [Repealed.] 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax or accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code. C. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: 1. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United State the extent exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States including, but not lirit to, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal to federal to federal to the include in the sale or exchange of obligations, of the united State the extent exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States including, but not lirit to, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal to the stocks.
 2. Interest or dividends, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining fe taxable income, on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of United States, which the laws of the United States exempt from federal income tax but not from income taxes; 3. Unrelated business taxable income as defined by § 512 of the Internal Revenue Code; 4. The amount of a lump sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan, less the minin distribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax purposes that is excluded federal adjusted gross income solely by virtue of an individual's election to use the averaging provis under § 402 of the Internal Revenue Code; and 5 through 8. [Repealed.] 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax or accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code. C. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: 1. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United State and on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United State the extent exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States including, but not lir to, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal ta 	deral taxable income, on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of United States, which the laws of the United States exempt from federal income tax but not from income taxes; 3. Unrelated business taxable income as defined by § 512 of the Internal Revenue Code; 4. The amount of a lump sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan, less the minin distribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax purposes that is excluded federal adjusted gross income solely by virtue of an individual's election to use the averaging provise under § 402 of the Internal Revenue Code; and 5 through 8. [Repealed.] 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax or accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code. C. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: 1. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United States and on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United States including, but not lir to, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal ta 	~~· u1 income taxes; Unrelated business taxable income as defined by § 512 of the Internal Revenue Code; The amount of a lump sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan, less the minine distribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax purposes that is excluded federal adjusted gross income solely by virtue of an individual's election to use the averaging provise under § 402 of the Internal Revenue Code; and 5 through 8. [Repealed.] 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax or accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code. C. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: 1. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United State the extent exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States including, but not limits to, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal tax 	the
 3. Unrelated business taxable income as defined by § 512 of the Internal Revenue Code; 4. The amount of a lump sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan, less the minine distribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax purposes that is excluded federal adjusted gross income solely by virtue of an individual's election to use the averaging provise under § 402 of the Internal Revenue Code; and 5 through 8. [Repealed.] 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax of accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code. C. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: 1. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United States and on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United States the extent exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States including, but not limit to, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal tax 	state
 4. The amount of a lump sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan, less the minine distribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax purposes that is excluded federal adjusted gross income solely by virtue of an individual's election to use the averaging provise under § 402 of the Internal Revenue Code; and 5 through 8. [Repealed.] 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax or accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code. C. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: 1. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United State the extent exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States including, but not limit to, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal tax.
 distribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax purposes that is excluded federal adjusted gross income solely by virtue of an individual's election to use the averaging provis under § 402 of the Internal Revenue Code; and 5 through 8. [Repealed.] 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax of accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code. C. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: 1. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United State and on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United State the extent exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States including, but not line stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal tax 	num under § 402 of the Internal Revenue Code; and 5 through 8. [Repealed.] 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax of accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code. C. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: 1. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United State the extent exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States including, but not limits to, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal to the state including interest on the state inclu	from
 5 through 8. [Repealed.] 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax of accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code. C. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: 1. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United State and on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United State the extent exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States including, but not limit to, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal tax 	sions
 9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax of accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code. C. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: 1. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United State and on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United State the extent exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States including, but not limit to, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal tax accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code. C. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United S and on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United State the extent exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States including, but not line stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal tax 	non
 C. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted: I. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United State and on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United State the extent exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States including, but not line stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal tax 	II all
 1. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations, of the United S and on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United State the extent exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States including, but not line to, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal tax
37 the extent exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States including, but not lin38 to, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal ta
38 to, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal ta
57 Interest on equipment purchase contracts, or interest on other normal business transactions.	ixes,
40 2. Income derived from obligations, or on the sale or exchange of obligations of this Commonw	ealth
41 or of any political subdivision or instrumentality of the Commonwealth.
42 3. [Repealed.]
43 4. Benefits received under Title II of the Social Security Act and other benefits subject to fe	deral income taxation solely pursuant to § 86 of the Internal Revenue Code.45 4a. Through December 31, 2000, the same amount used in computing the federal credit allocation of the same amount used in computing the federal credit allocation.	wed
46 under § 22 of the Internal Revenue Code by a retiree under age 65 who qualified for such retirement
47 the basis of permanent and total disability and who is a qualified individual as defined in § 22(b)(
48 the Internal Revenue Code; however, any person who claims a deduction under subdivision D 5 may	⊆) OI
49 also claim a subtraction under this subdivision. 50 the For tayable years beginning on or after January 1, 2001, up to $20,000 of disability incom	¹ not
50 4b. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2001, up to $20,000$ of disability incom 51 defined in $22(c)(2)(B)(iii)$ of the Internal Revenue Code; however, any person who claims a deduced	/ not under subdivision D 5 may not also claim a subtraction under this subdivision.	y not e, as 53 5. The amount of any refund or credit for overpayment of income taxes imposed by	y not e, as
54 Commonwealth or any other taxing jurisdiction.	v not e, as ction
55 6. The amount of wages or salaries eligible for the federal Targeted Jobs Credit which was 56 deducted for federal nurneses on account of the provisions of $$$ 280C(a) of the Internal Pavanua Cost	y not e, as ction the deducted for federal purposes on account of the provisions of § 280C(a) of the Internal Revenue Cod 7, 8. [Repealed.] 	y not e, as ction the s not
58 9. [Expired.]	y not e, as ction the s not

71 72

73

112

59 10. Any amount included therein less than $600 from a prize awarded by the State Lottery 60 Department.

11. The wages or salaries received by any person for active and inactive service in the National 61 Guard of the Commonwealth of Virginia, not to exceed the amount of income derived from 39 calendar 62 63 days of such service or $3,000, whichever amount is less; however, only those persons in the ranks of 64 O3 and below shall be entitled to the deductions specified herein.

65 12. Amounts received by an individual, not to exceed $1,000 in any taxable year, as a reward for information provided to a law-enforcement official or agency, or to a nonprofit corporation created 66 exclusively to assist such law-enforcement official or agency, in the apprehension and conviction of 67 68 perpetrators of crimes. This provision shall not apply to the following: an individual who is an employee 69 of, or under contract with, a law-enforcement agency, a victim or the perpetrator of the crime for which the reward was paid, or any person who is compensated for the investigation of crimes or accidents. 70

13. [Repealed.]

14. [Expired.]

15, 16. [Repealed.]

17. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1995, the amount of "qualified research 74 75 expenses" or "basic research expenses" eligible for deduction for federal purposes, but which were not deducted, on account of the provisions of § 280C(c) of the Internal Revenue Code and which shall be 76 77 available to partners, shareholders of S corporations, and members of limited liability companies to the 78 extent and in the same manner as other deductions may pass through to such partners, shareholders, and 79 members. 80

18. [Repealed.]

81 19. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1996, any income received during the taxable 82 year derived from a qualified pension, profit-sharing, or stock bonus plan as described by § 401 of the 83 Internal Revenue Code, an individual retirement account or annuity established under § 408 of the Internal Revenue Code, a deferred compensation plan as defined by § 457 of the Internal Revenue 84 85 Code, or any federal government retirement program, the contributions to which were deductible from 86 the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income, but only to the extent the contributions to such plan or 87 program were subject to taxation under the income tax in another state.

20. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1997, any income attributable to a 88 89 distribution of benefits or a refund from a prepaid tuition contract or savings trust account with the 90 Virginia College Savings Plan, created pursuant to Chapter 4.9 (§ 23-38.75 et seq.) of Title 23. The 91 subtraction for any income attributable to a refund shall be limited to income attributable to a refund in 92 the event of a beneficiary's death, disability, or receipt of a scholarship.

93 21. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, all military pay and allowances, to the 94 extent included in federal adjusted gross income and not otherwise subtracted, deducted or exempted 95 under this section, earned by military personnel while serving by order of the President of the United States with the consent of Congress in a combat zone or qualified hazardous duty area which is treated 96 97 as a combat zone for federal tax purposes pursuant to § 112 of the Internal Revenue Code.

98 22. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2000, the gain derived from the sale or 99 exchange of real property or the sale or exchange of an easement to real property which results in the 100 real property or the easement thereto being devoted to open-space use, as that term is defined in 101 § 58.1-3230, for a period of time not less than 30 years. To the extent a subtraction is taken in accordance with this subdivision, no tax credit under this chapter for donating land for its preservation 102 103 shall be allowed for three years following the year in which the subtraction is taken.

104 23. Effective for all taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2000, $15,000 of military basic pay for military service personnel on extended active duty for periods in excess of 90 days; however, 105 the subtraction amount shall be reduced dollar-for-dollar by the amount which the taxpayer's military 106 107 basic pay exceeds $15,000 and shall be reduced to zero if such military basic pay amount is equal to or 108 exceeds $30,000.

109 24. Effective for all taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2000, the first $15,000 of salary 110 for each federal and state employee whose total annual salary from all employment for the taxable year 111 is $15,000 or less.

25. Unemployment benefits taxable pursuant to § 85 of the Internal Revenue Code.

113 26. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2001, any amount received as military 114 retirement income by an individual awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor.

115 27. Effective for all taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1999, income received as a result of (i) the "Master Settlement Agreement," as defined in § 3.2-3100; and (ii) the National Tobacco 116 Grower Settlement Trust dated July 19, 1999, by (a) tobacco farmers; (b) any person holding a tobacco 117 118 marketing quota, or tobacco farm acreage allotment, under the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938; or 119 (c) any person having the right to grow tobacco pursuant to such a quota or allotment, but only to the 120 extent that such income has not been subtracted pursuant to subdivision C 18 of § 58.1-402.

121 28. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2000, items of income attributable to, 122 derived from or in any way related to (i) assets stolen from, hidden from or otherwise lost by an 123 individual who was a victim or target of Nazi persecution or (ii) damages, reparations, or other 124 consideration received by a victim or target of Nazi persecution to compensate such individual for 125 performing labor against his will under the threat of death, during World War II and its prelude and 126 direct aftermath. This subtraction shall not apply to assets acquired with such items of income or with 127 the proceeds from the sale of assets stolen from, hidden from or otherwise lost to, during World War II and its prelude and direct aftermath, a victim or target of Nazi persecution. The provisions of this 128 129 subdivision shall only apply to an individual who was the first recipient of such items of income and 130 who was a victim or target of Nazi persecution, or a spouse, widow, widower, or child or stepchild of 131 such victim.

132 "Victim or target of Nazi persecution" means any individual persecuted or targeted for persecution by 133 the Nazi regime who had assets stolen from, hidden from or otherwise lost as a result of any act or omission in any way relating to (i) the Holocaust; (ii) World War II and its prelude and direct 134 135 aftermath; (iii) transactions with or actions of the Nazi regime; (iv) treatment of refugees fleeing Nazi 136 persecution; or (v) the holding of such assets by entities or persons in the Swiss Confederation during 137 World War II and its prelude and aftermath. A victim or target of Nazi persecution shall also include 138 any individual forced into labor against his will, under the threat of death, during World War II and its 139 prelude and direct aftermath. As used in this subdivision, "Nazi regime" means the country of Nazi 140 Germany, areas occupied by Nazi Germany, those European countries allied with Nazi Germany, or any 141 other neutral European country or area in Europe under the influence or threat of Nazi invasion. 142

29, 30. [Repealed.]

143 31. Effective for all taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2001, the military death gratuity 144 payment made after September 11, 2001, to the survivor of deceased military personnel killed in the line of duty, pursuant to Chapter 75 of Title 10 of the United States Code; however, the subtraction amount 145 146 shall be reduced dollar-for-dollar by the amount that the survivor may exclude from his federal gross 147 income in accordance with § 134 of the Internal Revenue Code.

148 32. Effective for all taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2007, the death benefit payments 149 from an annuity contract that are received by a beneficiary of such contract provided that (i) the death 150 benefit payment is made pursuant to an annuity contract with an insurance company and (ii) the death 151 benefit payment is paid solely by lump sum. The subtraction under this subdivision shall be allowed 152 only for that portion of the death benefit payment that is included in federal adjusted gross income.

153 33. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2009, any gain recognized from the sale of 154 launch services to space flight participants, as defined in 49 U.S.C. § 70102, or launch services intended 155 to provide individuals the training or experience of a launch, without performing an actual launch. To 156 qualify for a deduction under this subdivision, launch services must be performed in Virginia or 157 originate from an airport or spaceport in Virginia.

34. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2009, any gain recognized as a result of 158 159 resupply services contracts for delivering payload, as defined in 49 U.S.C. § 70102, entered into with the Commercial Orbital Transportation Services division of the National Aeronautics and Space 160 161 Administration or other space flight entity, as defined in § 8.01-227.8, and launched from an airport or 162 spaceport in Virginia.

163 35. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2011, any income taxed as a long-term capital 164 gain for federal income tax purposes, or any income taxed as investment services partnership interest 165 income (otherwise known as investment partnership carried interest income) for federal income tax purposes. To qualify for a subtraction under this subdivision, such income shall be attributable to an 166 investment in a "qualified business," as defined in § 58.1-339.4, or in any other technology business 167 approved by the Secretary of Technology, provided the business has its principal office or facility in the 168 Commonwealth and less than $3 million in annual revenues in the fiscal year prior to the investment. To 169 170 qualify for a subtraction under this subdivision, the investment shall be made between the dates of April 171 1, 2010, and June 30, 2015. No taxpayer who has claimed a tax credit for an investment in a "gualified 172 business" under § 58.1-339.4 shall be eligible for the subtraction under this subdivision for an 173 investment in the same business.

174 D. In computing Virginia taxable income there shall be deducted from Virginia adjusted gross income as defined in § 58.1-321: 175

176 1. a. The amount allowable for itemized deductions for federal income tax purposes where the 177 taxpayer has elected for the taxable year to itemize deductions on his federal return, but reduced by the 178 amount of income taxes imposed by the Commonwealth or any other taxing jurisdiction and deducted 179 on such federal return and increased by an amount which, when added to the amount deducted under 180 § 170 of the Internal Revenue Code for mileage, results in a mileage deduction at the state level for 181 such purposes at a rate of 18 cents per mile; or

4 of 6

b. Three thousand dollars for single individuals and $6,000 for married persons (one-half of such amounts in the case of a married individual filing a separate return) for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2005; provided that the taxpayer has not itemized deductions for the taxable year on his federal income tax return. For purposes of this section, any person who may be claimed as a dependent on another taxpayer's return for the taxable year may compute the deduction only with respect to earned income.

188 2. a. A deduction in the amount of $900 for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2005, 189 but before January 1, 2008; and $930 for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2008, for each 190 personal exemption allowable to the taxpayer for federal income tax purposes.

b. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1987, each blind or aged taxpayer as defined under § 63(f) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be entitled to an additional personal exemption in the amount of $800.

194 The additional deduction for blind or aged taxpayers allowed under this subdivision shall beallowable regardless of whether the taxpayer itemizes deductions for the taxable year for federal incometax purposes.

197 3. A deduction equal to the amount of employment-related expenses upon which the federal credit is 198 based under § 21 of the Internal Revenue Code for expenses for household and dependent care services 199 necessary for gainful employment.

4. An additional $1,000 deduction for each child residing for the entire taxable year in a home under permanent foster care placement as defined in § 63.2-908, provided the taxpayer can also claim the child as a personal exemption under § 151 of the Internal Revenue Code.

5. a. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2004, a deduction in the amount of $12,000 for individuals born on or before January 1, 1939.

b. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2004, a deduction in the amount of $12,000 for individuals born after January 1, 1939, who have attained the age of 65. This deduction shall be reduced by $1 for every $1 that the taxpayer's adjusted federal adjusted gross income exceeds $50,000 for single taxpayers or $75,000 for married taxpayers. For married taxpayers filing separately, the deduction will be reduced by $1 for every $1 the total combined adjusted federal adjusted gross income of both spouses exceeds $75,000.

For the purposes of this subdivision, "adjusted federal adjusted gross income" means federal adjusted gross income minus any benefits received under Title II of the Social Security Act and other benefits subject to federal income taxation solely pursuant to § 86 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended.

6. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1997, the amount an individual pays as a fee for an initial screening to become a possible bone marrow donor, if (i) the individual is not reimbursed for such fee or (ii) the individual has not claimed a deduction for the payment of such fee on his federal income tax return.

218 7. a. A deduction shall be allowed to the purchaser or contributor for the amount paid or contributed 219 during the taxable year for a prepaid tuition contract or savings trust account entered into with the 220 Virginia College Savings Plan, pursuant to Chapter 4.9 (§ 23-38.75 et seq.) of Title 23. Except as 221 provided in subdivision 7 c, the amount deducted on any individual income tax return in any taxable 222 year shall be limited to $4,000 per prepaid tuition contract or savings trust account. No deduction shall 223 be allowed pursuant to this section if such payments or contributions are deducted on the purchaser's or 224 contributor's federal income tax return. If the purchase price or annual contribution to a savings trust 225 account exceeds $4,000, the remainder may be carried forward and subtracted in future taxable years 226 until the purchase price or savings trust contribution has been fully deducted; however, except as 227 provided in subdivision 7 c, in no event shall the amount deducted in any taxable year exceed $4,000 228 per contract or savings trust account. Notwithstanding the statute of limitations on assessments contained 229 in § 58.1-312, any deduction taken hereunder shall be subject to recapture in the taxable year or years in 230 which distributions or refunds are made for any reason other than (i) to pay qualified higher education expenses, as defined in § 529 of the Internal Revenue Code or (ii) the beneficiary's death, disability, or 231 232 receipt of a scholarship. For the purposes of this subdivision, the term "purchaser" or "contributor" 233 means the person shown as such on the records of the Virginia College Savings Plan as of December 31 234 of the taxable year. In the case of a transfer of ownership of a prepaid tuition contract or savings trust 235 account, the transferee shall succeed to the transferor's tax attributes associated with a prepaid tuition 236 contract or savings trust account, including, but not limited to, carryover and recapture of deductions.

b. The amount paid for a prepaid tuition contract during taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1996, but before January 1, 1998, shall be deducted in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, and shall be subject to the limitations set out in subdivision 7 a.

c. A purchaser of a prepaid tuition contract or contributor to a savings trust account who has attained age 70 shall not be subject to the limitation that the amount of the deduction not exceed $4,000 per prepaid tuition contract or savings trust account in any taxable year. Such taxpayer shall be allowed a deduction for the full amount paid for the contract or contributed to a savings trust account, less any amounts previously deducted.

8. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2000, the total amount an individual actually contributed in funds to the Virginia Public School Construction Grants Program and Fund, established in Chapter 11.1 (§ 22.1-175.1 et seq.) of Title 22.1, provided the individual has not claimed a deduction for such amount on his federal income tax return.

9. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1999, an amount equal to 20 percent of the tuition costs incurred by an individual employed as a primary or secondary school teacher licensed pursuant to Chapter 15 (§ 22.1-289.1 et seq.) of Title 22.1 to attend continuing teacher education courses that are required as a condition of employment; however, the deduction provided by this subsection shall be available only if (i) the individual is not reimbursed for such tuition costs and (ii) the individual has not claimed a deduction for the payment of such tuition costs on his federal income tax return.

10. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2000, the amount an individual pays annually in premiums for long-term health care insurance, provided the individual has not claimed a deduction for federal income tax purposes, or, for taxable years beginning before January 1, 2014, a credit under $58.1-339.11. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2014, no such deduction for long-term health care insurance premiums paid by the individual during the taxable year shall be allowed if the individual has claimed a federal income tax deduction for such taxable year for long-term health care insurance premiums paid by him.

11. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2006, contract payments to a producer of quota tobacco or a tobacco quota holder, or their spouses, as provided under the American Jobs Creation Act of 2004 (P.L. 108-357), but only to the extent that such payments have not been subtracted pursuant to subsection D of § 58.1-402, as follows:

a. If the payment is received in installment payments, then the recognized gain, including any gain recognized in taxable year 2005, may be subtracted in the taxable year immediately following the year in which the installment payment is received.

b. If the payment is received in a single payment, then 10 percent of the recognized gain may be subtracted in the taxable year immediately following the year in which the single payment is received.
The taxpayer may then deduct an equal amount in each of the nine succeeding taxable years.

272 12. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2007, an amount equal to 20 percent of the 273 sum paid by an individual pursuant to Chapter 6 (§ 58.1-600 et seq.), not to exceed $500 in each taxable 274 year, in purchasing for his own use the following items of tangible personal property: (i) any clothes 275 washers, room air conditioners, dishwashers, and standard size refrigerators that meet or exceed the 276 applicable energy star efficiency requirements developed by the United States Environmental Protection 277 Agency and the United States Department of Energy; (ii) any fuel cell that (a) generates electricity using 278 an electrochemical process, (b) has an electricity-only generation efficiency greater than 35 percent, and 279 (c) has a generating capacity of at least two kilowatts; (iii) any gas heat pump that has a coefficient of performance of at least 1.25 for heating and at least 0.70 for cooling; (iv) any electric heat pump hot 280 281 water heater that yields an energy factor of at least 1.7; (v) any electric heat pump that has a heating 282 system performance factor of at least 8.0 and a cooling seasonal energy efficiency ratio of at least 13.0; 283 (vi) any central air conditioner that has a cooling seasonal energy efficiency ratio of at least 13.5; (vii) 284 any advanced gas or oil water heater that has an energy factor of at least 0.65; (viii) any advanced 285 oil-fired boiler with a minimum annual fuel-utilization rating of 85; (ix) any advanced oil-fired furnace 286 with a minimum annual fuel-utilization rating of 85; and (x) programmable thermostats.

13. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2007, the lesser of $5,000 or the amount actually paid by a living donor of an organ or other living tissue for unreimbursed out-of-pocket expenses directly related to the donation that arose within 12 months of such donation, provided the donor has not taken a medical deduction in accordance with the provisions of § 213 of the Internal Revenue Code for such expenses. The deduction may be taken in the taxable year in which the donation is made or the taxable year in which the 12-month period expires.

293 14. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2013, the amount an individual age 66 or 294 older with earned income of at least $20,000 for the year and federal adjusted gross income not in 295 excess of $30,000 for the year pays annually in premiums for (i) a prepaid funeral insurance policy 296 covering the individual or (ii) medical or dental insurance for any person for whom individual tax filers 297 may claim a deduction for such premiums under federal income tax laws. "Earned income" means the 298 same as that term is defined in § 32(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended or 299 renumbered. The deduction shall not be allowed for any portion of such premiums paid for which the 300 individual has (a) been reimbursed, (b) claimed a deduction for federal income tax purposes, (c) claimed 301 a deduction or subtraction under another provision of this section, or (d) claimed a federal income tax 302 credit or any income tax credit pursuant to this chapter.

303 15. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2014, $1,500 for the taxable year by any 304 qualified mental health professional who volunteers at least 20 hours during the taxable year to a 305 community services board as described under Chapter 5 (§ 37.2-500 et seq.) of Title 37.2 by providing 306 mental health, developmental, or substance abuse services to inmates.

307 E. There shall be added to or subtracted from federal adjusted gross income, as the case may be, the individual's share, as beneficiary of an estate or trust, of the Virginia fiduciary adjustment determined under § 58.1-361.

310 F. There shall be added or subtracted, as the case may be, the amounts provided in § 58.1-315 as transitional modifications.

312 G. Effective for all taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2007, to the extent included in 313 federal adjusted gross income, there shall be (i) subtracted from federal adjusted gross income by a 314 shareholder of an electing small business corporation (S corporation) that is subject to the bank franchise 315 tax imposed under Chapter 12 (§ 58.1-1200 et seq.) for the calendar year in which such taxable year begins, the shareholder's allocable share of the income or gain of such electing small business 316 317 corporation (S corporation), and (ii) added back to federal adjusted gross income such that, federal 318 adjusted gross income shall be increased, by a shareholder of an electing small business corporation (S 319 corporation) that is subject to the bank franchise tax imposed under Chapter 12 (§ 58.1-1200 et seq.) for 320 the calendar year in which such taxable year begins, the shareholder's allocable share of the losses or 321 deductions of such electing small business corporation (S corporation).

Effective for all taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2007, to the extent excluded from federal adjusted gross income, there shall be added to federal adjusted gross income by a shareholder of an electing small business corporation (S corporation) that is subject to the bank franchise tax imposed under Chapter 12 (§ 58.1-1200 et seq.) for the calendar year in which such taxable year begins, the value of any distribution paid or distributed to the shareholder by such electing small business corporation (S corporation).

H. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the income from any disposition of real property 328 329 which is held by the taxpayer for sale to customers in the ordinary course of the taxpayer's trade or business, as defined in § 453(1)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code, of property made on or after 330 331 January 1, 2009, may, at the election of the taxpayer, be recognized under the installment method 332 described under § 453 of the Internal Revenue Code, provided that (i) the election relating to the dealer 333 disposition of the property has been made on or before the due date prescribed by law (including 334 extensions) for filing the taxpayer's return of the tax imposed under this chapter for the taxable year in 335 which the disposition occurs, and (ii) the dealer disposition is in accordance with restrictions or 336 conditions established by the Department, which shall be set forth in guidelines developed by the 337 Department. Along with such restrictions or conditions, the guidelines shall also address the recapture of 338 such income under certain circumstances. The development of the guidelines shall be exempt from the 339 Administrative Process Act (§ 2.2-4000 et seq.).