10	Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:
11	1. That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding in Title 9.1 a chapter numbered 5.1, consisting
12	of sections numbered 9.1-508 through 9.1-511, as follows:
13	CHAPTER 5.1.
14 15	CORRECTIONAL OFFICER PROCEDURAL GUARANTEE ACT.
15	§ 9.1-508. Definitions.
16 17	As used in this chapter, unless the context requires a different meaning:
17 18	"Correctional officer" means a duly sworn employee of the Department of Corrections whose normal duties relate to maintaining immediate control, supervision, and custody of prisoners confined in any
10 19	state correctional facility.
20	"State correctional facility" means any correctional center or correctional field unit used for the
$\frac{20}{21}$	incarceration of adult offenders established and operated by the Department of Corrections or operated
$\frac{1}{22}$	under contract pursuant to § 53.1-262.
23	§ 9.1-509. Conduct of investigation; notice of charges.
24	A. Whenever an investigation focuses on matters that could lead to the dismissal, demotion,
25	suspension, or transfer for punitive reasons of a correctional officer:
26	1. Any questioning shall take place at a reasonable time and place, preferably when the correctional
27	officer under investigation is on duty; and
28	2. Prior to the questioning of the correctional officer, he shall be informed of (i) the name and job
29	title of the investigator, (ii) the name and job title of any other individual to be present during the
30	questioning, and (iii) the nature of the investigation. The correctional officer shall also be afforded the
31	right to have a representative or other person of his choice present during such questioning only as an
32	observer.
33 34	B. After questioning pursuant to subsection A but before any dismissal, demotion, suspension, or transfer for punitive reasons may be imposed, the following rights shall be afforded:
34 35	1. The correctional officer shall be notified in writing of all charges, the basis therefor, and the
33 36	action that may be taken;
37	2. The correctional officer shall be given an opportunity, within a reasonable time limit after the
38	date of receipt of the written notice required by subdivision 1, to respond orally and in writing to the charges. The time limit shall be determined by the Department of Corrections, but in no event shall it 40	be less than five calendar days unless agreed to by the correctional officer; and
41	3. In making his response, the correctional officer may be assisted by counsel at his own expense or
42	by a representative of his choice.
43	C. The correctional officer shall also be given written notification of his right to initiate a grievance
44	under the grievance procedure established by the Department of Corrections or his right to request a
45	hearing under this chapter. A copy of the grievance procedure, as well as instructions on how to
46	proceed to a hearing under this chapter, shall be provided to the correctional officer upon his request.
47	§ 9.1-510. Hearing; recommendations.
48	A. Whenever a correctional officer is dismissed, demoted, suspended without pay, or transferred for
49 50	punitive reasons, he may, within a reasonable amount of time following such action, as set by the
50 51	agency, request a hearing. If such request is timely made, a hearing shall be held within a reasonable amount of time set by the agency. The hearing shall be set no later than 14 calendar days following the
51 52	amount of time set by the agency. The hearing shall be set no later than 14 calendar days following the date of request, unless a later date is agreed to by the correctional officer.
52 53	B. At the hearing, the correctional officer and the agency shall have the opportunity to present
53 54	evidence and to examine and cross-examine witnesses. The correctional officer shall also be given the
55	opportunity to be represented by counsel or a representative of his choice at the hearing.
56	C. The hearing shall be conducted by a panel consisting of one member from within the agency
57	selected by the grievant, one member from within the agency appointed by the agency head, and a third
58	member selected by the other two members. These members shall be security officers of no more than

9/19/22 2:39

59 three ranks above the rank of the grievant. If there is no agreement on a third member, the third

60 member shall be chosen by the chief circuit court judge of the circuit where the correctional officer is 61 employed. The hearing panel may issue subpoenas to compel witness testimony at the request of either 62 the correctional officer or the agency. A record shall be made of the hearing.

D. The recommendations of the hearing panel and the reasons therefor shall be made in writing and transmitted promptly to the correctional officer or his counsel and to the agency. Such recommendations shall be advisory only but shall be accorded significant weight.

66 § 9.1-511. Informal counseling not prohibited.

67 Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit the informal counseling of a correctional 68 officer by a supervisor in reference to a minor infraction of policy or procedure that does not result in 69 disciplinary action being taken against the correctional officer

69 disciplinary action being taken against the correctional officer.
