§ 18.2-308.01:1. Carrying a concealed handgun with a valid protective order.

A. The prohibition against carrying a concealed handgun in clause (i) of subsection A of § 18.2-308 shall not apply to any person 21 years of age or older who is not prohibited from purchasing, possessing, or transporting a firearm under state or federal law and is protected by (i) a protective order issued pursuant to § 16.1-253.1, 16.1-253.4, 16.1-279.1, 19.2-152.8, 19.2-152.9, or 19.2-152.10; (ii) an order issued pursuant to subsection B of § 20-103; or (iii) an order issued pursuant to subsection E of § 18.2-60.3 for 45 days after such order was issued or until such order expires or is otherwise dissolved by the issuing court, whichever occurs first, provided the order includes clause (i) of subsection B of § 18.2-308.1:4 as a condition of such order.

B. If during the period set forth in subsection A the person issued the protective order applies for a concealed handgun permit, the prohibition against carrying a concealed handgun in clause (i) of subsection A of § 18.2-308 shall not apply to such person for an additional 45 days from the date of the application. The clerk shall certify on the application that the period has been extended for an additional 45 days from the date of the application and shall indicate the date on which the period expires. A copy of the certified application shall be given to such person and shall serve as a de facto permit. The clerk shall expedite the processing of any application for a concealed handgun permit submitted by a person in accordance with this subsection.

C. The person issued the protective order shall have such order on his person at all times during which he is carrying a concealed handgun, except if such person has been given a copy of a certified application pursuant to subsection B, then such person shall have such certified application on his person at all times during which he is carrying a concealed handgun. Such person shall display the order or certified application and a photo identification issued by a government agency of the Commonwealth or by the U.S. Department of Defense or U.S. State Department (passport) upon demand by a law-enforcement officer.

D. Failure to display the order or certified application and a photo identification upon demand by a law-enforcement officer is punishable by a $25 civil penalty, which shall be paid into the state treasury. Any attorney for the Commonwealth of the county or city in which the alleged violation occurred may bring an action to recover the civil penalty. A court may waive such penalty upon presentation to the court of a valid order or certified application and government-issued photo identification. Any law-enforcement officer may issue a summons for the civil violation of failure to display the order or certified application and photo identification upon demand.
