74 this chapter shall not apply to any single-family house sold or rented by an owner, provided that such
75 private individual does not own more than three single-family houses at any one time. In the case of the 76 sale of any single-family house by a private individual-owner not residing in the house at the time of 77 the sale or who was not the most recent resident of the house prior to sale, the exemption granted shall 78 apply only with respect to one such sale within any 24-month period; provided that such bona fide
79 private individual owner does not own any interest in, nor is there owned or reserved on his behalf,
80 under any express or voluntary agreement, title to or any right to all or a portion of the proceeds from 81 the sale or rental of, more than three such single-family houses at any one time. The sale or rental of 82 any such single-family house shall be exempt from the application of this chapter only if the house is
83 sold or rented (i) without the use in any manner of the sales or rental facilities or the sales or rental
84 services of any real estate broker, agent, salesperson, or of the facilities or the services of any person in 85 the business of selling or renting dwellings, or of any employee, independent contractor, or agent of any 86 broker, agent, salesperson, or person and (ii) without the publication, posting, or mailing, after notice, of 87 any advertisement or written notice in violation of this chapter. However, nothing herein shall prohibit 88 the use of attorneys, escrow agents, abstractors, title companies, and other professional assistance as 89 necessary to perfect or transfer the title. This exemption shall not apply to or inure to the benefit of any 90 licensee of the Real Estate Board or regulant of the Fair Housing Board, regardless of whether the 91 licensee is acting in his personal or professional capacity.

92 B. Except for subdivision A 3 of § 36-96.3, this chapter shall not apply to rooms or units in 93 dwellings containing living quarters occupied or intended to be occupied by no more than four families
94 living independently of each other, if the owner actually maintains and occupies one of such living
95 quarters as his residence.

96 C. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit a religious organization, association or society, or any
97 nonprofit institution or organization operated, supervised, or controlled by or in conjunction with a
98 religious organization, association or society, from limiting the sale, rental, or occupancy of dwellings
99 that it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose to persons of the same religion, or from 100 giving preferences to such persons, unless membership in such religion is restricted on account of race,
101 color, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or handicap.
102 Nor shall anything in this chapter apply to a private membership club not in fact open to the public,
103 which as an incident to its primary purpose or purposes provides lodging which it owns or operates for
104 other than a commercial purpose, from limiting the rental or occupancy of such lodgings to its members
105 or from giving preference to its members. Nor, where matters of personal privacy are involved, shall 106 anything in this chapter be construed to prohibit any private, state-owned or state-supported educational 107 institution, hospital, nursing home, religious or correctional institution, from requiring that persons of 108 both sexes not occupy any single-family residence or room or unit of dwellings or other buildings, or 109 restrooms in such room or unit in dwellings or other buildings, which it owns or operates.

110 D. Nothing in this chapter prohibits conduct against a person because such person has been convicted
111 by any court of competent jurisdiction of the illegal manufacture or distribution of a controlled
112 substance as defined in federal law.

113 E. It shall not be unlawful under this chapter for any owner to deny or limit the rental of housing to 114 persons who pose a clear and present threat of substantial harm to others or to the dwelling itself.

115 F. A rental application may require disclosure by the applicant of any criminal convictions and the 116 owner or managing agent may require as a condition of acceptance of the rental application that
117 applicant consent in writing to a criminal record check to verify the disclosures made by applicant in the 118 rental application. The owner or managing agent may collect from the applicant moneys to reimburse the owner or managing agent for the exact amount of the out-of-pocket costs for such criminal record checks. Nothing in this chapter shall require an owner or managing agent to rent a dwelling to an individual who, based on a prior record of criminal convictions involving harm to persons or property, would constitute a clear and present threat to the health or safety of other individuals.

G. Nothing in this chapter limits the applicability of any reasonable local, state or federal restriction regarding the maximum number of occupants permitted to occupy a dwelling. Owners or managing agents of dwellings may develop and implement reasonable occupancy and safety standards based on factors such as the number and size of sleeping areas or bedrooms and overall size of a dwelling unit so long as the standards do not violate local, state or federal restrictions. Nothing in this chapter prohibits the rental application or similar document from requiring information concerning the number, ages, sex and familial relationship of the applicants and the dwelling's intended occupants.

§ 36-96.3. Unlawful discriminatory housing practices.

A. It shall be an unlawful discriminatory housing practice for any person:

1. To refuse to sell or rent after the making of a bona fide offer or to refuse to negotiate for the sale or rental of, or otherwise make unavailable or deny, a dwelling to any person because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, ~~or~~ familial status, sexual orientation, or gender identity;

2. To discriminate against any person in the terms, conditions, or privileges of sale or rental of a dwelling, or in the provision of services or facilities in the connection therewith to any person because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, ~~or~~ familial status, sexual orientation, or gender identity;

3. To make, print, or publish, or cause to be made, printed, or published any notice, statement, or advertisement, with respect to the sale or rental of a dwelling that indicates any preference, limitation, or discrimination or an intention to make any such preference, limitation or discrimination ~~based on the~~ basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or handicap. The use of words or symbols associated with a particular religion, national origin, sex, or race shall be prima facie evidence of an illegal preference under this chapter which shall not be overcome by a general disclaimer. However, reference alone to places of worship including, but not limited to, churches, synagogues, temples, or mosques in any such notice, statement or advertisement shall not be prima facie evidence of an illegal preference;

4. To represent to any person because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or handicap that any dwelling is not available for inspection, sale, or rental when such dwelling is in fact so available;

5. To deny any person access to membership in or participation in any multiple listing service, real estate brokers' organization, or other service, organization or facility relating to the business of selling or renting dwellings, or to discriminate against such person in the terms or conditions of such access, membership, or participation because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or handicap;

6. To include in any transfer, sale, rental, or lease of housing, any restrictive covenant that discriminates because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or handicap or for any person to honor or exercise, or attempt to honor or exercise any such discriminatory covenant pertaining to housing;

7. To induce or attempt to induce to sell or rent any dwelling by representations regarding the entry or prospective entry into the neighborhood of a person or persons of a particular race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or handicap;

8. To refuse to sell or rent, or refuse to negotiate for the sale or rental of, or otherwise discriminate or make unavailable or deny a dwelling because of a handicap of (i) the buyer or renter, (ii) a person residing in or intending to reside in that dwelling after it is so sold, rented or made available, or (iii) any person associated with the buyer or renter; or

9. To discriminate against any person in the terms, conditions, or privileges of sale or rental of a dwelling, or in the provision of services or facilities in connection therewith because of a handicap of (i) that person, (ii) a person residing in or intending to reside in that dwelling after it was so sold, rented or made available, or (iii) any person associated with that buyer or renter.

B. For the purposes of this section, discrimination includes: (i) a refusal to permit, at the expense of the handicapped person, reasonable modifications of existing premises occupied or to be occupied by any person if such modifications may be necessary to afford such person full enjoyment of the premises; except that, in the case of a rental, the landlord may, where it is reasonable to do so, condition permission for a modification on the renter's agreeing to restore the interior of the premises to the condition that existed before the modification, reasonable wear and tear excepted; (ii) a refusal to make reasonable accommodations in rules, practices, policies, or services when such accommodations may be necessary to afford such person equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling; or (iii) in connection with the design and construction of covered multi-family dwellings for first occupancy after March 13,

1991, a failure to design and construct dwellings in such a manner that:

1. The public use and common use areas of the dwellings are readily accessible to and usable by handicapped persons;

2. All the doors designed to allow passage into and within all premises are sufficiently wide to allow passage by handicapped persons in wheelchairs; and

3. All premises within covered multi-family dwelling units contain an accessible route into and through the dwelling; light switches, electrical outlets, thermostats, and other environmental controls are in accessible locations; there are reinforcements in the bathroom walls to allow later installation of grab bars; and there are usable kitchens and bathrooms such that an individual in a wheelchair can maneuver about the space. As used in this subdivision the term "covered multi-family dwellings" means buildings consisting of four or more units if such buildings have one or more elevators and ground floor units in other buildings consisting of four or more units.

C. Compliance with the appropriate requirements of the American National Standards for Building and Facilities (commonly cited as "ANSI A117.1") or with any other standards adopted as part of regulations promulgated by HUD providing accessibility and usability for physically handicapped people shall be deemed to satisfy the requirements of subdivision B 3.

D. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to invalidate or limit any Virginia law or regulation which requires dwellings to be designed and constructed in a manner that affords handicapped persons greater access than is required by this chapter.

§ 36-96.4. Discrimination in residential real estate-related transactions; unlawful practices by lenders, insurers, appraisers, etc.; deposit of state funds in such institutions.

A. It shall be unlawful for any person or other entity, including any lending institution, whose business includes engaging in residential real estate-related transactions, to discriminate against any person in making available such a transaction, or in the terms or conditions of such a transaction, or in the manner of providing such a transaction, because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or handicap. It shall not be unlawful, however, for any person or other entity whose business includes engaging in residential real estate transactions to require any applicant to qualify financially for the loan or loans for which such person is making application.

B. As used in this section, the term "residential real estate-related transaction" means any of the following:

1. The making or purchasing of loans or providing other financial assistance (i) for purchasing, constructing, improving, repairing, or maintaining a dwelling or (ii) secured by residential real estate; or

2. The selling, brokering, insuring or appraising of residential real property. However, nothing in this chapter shall prohibit a person engaged in the business of furnishing appraisals of real property to take into consideration factors other than race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or handicap.

C. It shall be unlawful for any state, county, city, or municipal treasurer or governmental official whose responsibility it is to account for, to invest, or manage public funds to deposit or cause to be deposited any public funds in any lending institution provided for herein which is found to be committing discriminatory practices, where such findings were upheld by any court of competent jurisdiction. Upon such a court's judicial enforcement of any order to restrain a practice of such lending institution or for said institution to cease or desist in a discriminatory practice, the appropriate fiscal officer or treasurer of the Commonwealth or any political subdivision thereof which has funds deposited in any lending institution which is practicing discrimination, as set forth herein, shall take immediate steps to have the said funds withdrawn and redeposited in another lending institution. If for reasons of sound economic management, this action will result in a financial loss to the Commonwealth or any of its political subdivisions, the action may be deferred for a period not longer than one year. If the lending institution in question has corrected its discriminatory practices, any prohibition set forth in this section shall not apply.

§ 55-248.47. Sale or lease of manufactured home by owner.

A. As used in this section:

"Gender identity" means the gender-related identity, appearance, or other gender-related characteristics of an individual, with or without regard to the individual's designated sex at birth.

"Sexual orientation" means a person's actual or perceived heterosexuality, bisexuality, or homosexuality.

B. The landlord shall not unreasonably refuse or restrict the sale or rental of a manufactured home located in his manufactured home park by a tenant. The landlord shall not prohibit the manufactured home owner from placing a "for sale" sign on or in his home except that the size, placement, and character of all signs are subject to the rules and regulations of the park. Prior to selling or leasing the manufactured home the tenant shall give notice to the landlord, including, but not limited to, the name of the prospective vendee or lessee if the prospective vendee or lessee intends to occupy the 242 manufactured home in that manufactured home park. The landlord shall have the burden of proving that 243 his refusal or restriction regarding the sale or rental of a manufactured home was reasonable. The refusal 244 or restriction of the sale or rental of a manufactured home based exclusively or predominantly on the 245 age of the home shall be considered unreasonable. Any refusal or restriction because of race, color,

246 religion, national origin, familial status, elderliness, handicap, sexual orientation, gender identity, or sex
247 shall be conclusively presumed to be unreasonable.
