

VIRGINIA ACTS OF ASSEMBLY — CHAPTER

An Act to amend and reenact § 8.01-229 of the Code of Virginia, relating to nonsuits; tolling of limitations; contractual limitation periods.

[H 441]

Approved

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 8.01-229 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 8.01-229. Suspension or tolling of statute of limitations; effect of disabilities; effect of death; injunction; prevention of service by defendant; dismissal, nonsuit or abatement; devise for payment of debts; new promises; debts proved in creditors' suits.

A. Disabilities which toll the statute of limitations. — Except as otherwise specifically provided in §§ 8.01-237, 8.01-241, 8.01-242, 8.01-243, 8.01-243.1 and other provisions of this Code,

1. If a person entitled to bring any action is at the time the cause of action accrues an infant, except if such infant has been emancipated pursuant to Article 15 (§ 16.1-331 et seq.) of Chapter 11 of Title 16.1, or incapacitated, such person may bring it within the prescribed limitation period after such disability is removed; or

2. After a cause of action accrues,

a. If an infant becomes entitled to bring such action, the time during which he is within the age of minority shall not be counted as any part of the period within which the action must be brought except as to any such period during which the infant has been judicially declared emancipated; or

b. If a person entitled to bring such action becomes incapacitated, the time during which he is incapacitated shall not be computed as any part of the period within which the action must be brought, except where a conservator, guardian or committee is appointed for such person in which case an action may be commenced by such conservator, committee or guardian before the expiration of the applicable period of limitation or within one year after his qualification as such, whichever occurs later.

For the purposes of subdivisions 1 and 2 of this subsection, a person shall be deemed incapacitated if he is so adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction, or if it shall otherwise appear to the court or jury determining the issue that such person is or was incapacitated within the prescribed limitation period.

3. If a convict is or becomes entitled to bring an action against his committee, the time during which he is incarcerated shall not be counted as any part of the period within which the action must be brought.

B. Effect of death of a party. — The death of a person entitled to bring an action or of a person against whom an action may be brought shall toll the statute of limitations as follows:

1. Death of person entitled to bring a personal action. — If a person entitled to bring a personal action dies with no such action pending before the expiration of the limitation period for commencement thereof, then an action may be commenced by the decedent's personal representative before the expiration of the limitation period including the limitation period as provided by subdivision E 3 or within one year after his qualification as personal representative, whichever occurs later.

2. Death of person against whom personal action may be brought. — a. If a person against whom a personal action may be brought dies before the commencement of such action and before the expiration of the limitation period for commencement thereof then a claim may be filed against the decedent's estate or an action may be commenced against the decedent's personal representative before the expiration of the applicable limitation period or within one year after the qualification of such personal representative, whichever occurs later.

b. If a person against whom a personal action may be brought dies before suit papers naming such person as defendant have been filed with the court, then such suit papers may be amended to substitute the decedent's personal representative as party defendant before the expiration of the applicable limitation period or within two years after the date such suit papers were filed with the court, whichever occurs later, and such suit papers shall be taken as properly filed.

3. Effect of death on actions for recovery of realty, or a proceeding for enforcement of certain liens relating to realty. — Upon the death of any person in whose favor or against whom an action for recovery of realty, or a proceeding for enforcement of certain liens relating to realty, may be brought, such right of action shall accrue to or against his successors in interest as provided in Article 2 (§ 8.01-236 et seq.) of this chapter.

4. Accrual of a personal cause of action against the estate of any person subsequent to such person's death. — If a personal cause of action against a decedent accrues subsequent to his death, an action may

57 be brought against the decedent's personal representative or a claim thereon may be filed against the 58 estate of such decedent before the expiration of the applicable limitation period or within two years after 59 the qualification of the decedent's personal representative, whichever occurs later.

60 5. Accrual of a personal cause of action in favor of decedent. — If a person dies before a personal 61 cause of action which survives would have accrued to him, if he had continued to live, then an action
 62 may be commenced by such decedent's personal representative before the expiration of the applicable
 63 limitation period or within one year after the qualification of such personal representative, whichever 64 occurs later.

65 6. Delayed qualification of personal representative. — If there is an interval of more than two years 66 between the death of any person in whose favor or against whom a cause of action has accrued or shall 67 subsequently accrue and the qualification of such person's personal representative, such personal 68 representative shall, for the purposes of this chapter, be deemed to have qualified on the last day of such 69 two-year period.

70 C. Suspension during injunctions. — When the commencement of any action is stayed by injunction, 71 the time of the continuance of the injunction shall not be computed as any part of the period within 72 which the action must be brought.

73 D. Obstruction of filing by defendant. — When the filing of an action is obstructed by a defendant's 74 (i) filing a petition in bankruptcy or filing a petition for an extension or arrangement under the United 75 States Bankruptcy Act or (ii) using any other direct or indirect means to obstruct the filing of an action, 76 then the time that such obstruction has continued shall not be counted as any part of the period within 77 which the action must be brought.

78 E. Dismissal, abatement, or nonsuit.

79 1. Except as provided in subdivision 3 of ~~this subsection~~, if any action is commenced within the 80 prescribed limitation period and for any cause abates or is dismissed without determining the merits, the 81 time such action is pending shall not be computed as part of the period within which such action may 82 be brought, and another action may be brought within the remaining period.

83 2. If a judgment or decree is rendered for the plaintiff in any action commenced within the 84 prescribed limitation period and such judgment or decree is arrested or reversed upon a ground which 85 does not preclude a new action for the same cause, or if there is occasion to bring a new action by 86 reason of the loss or destruction of any of the papers or records in a former action which was 87 commenced within the prescribed limitation period, then a new action may be brought within one year 88 after such arrest or reversal or such loss or destruction, but not after.

89 3. If a plaintiff suffers a voluntary nonsuit as prescribed in § 8.01-380, the statute of limitations with 90 respect to such action shall be tolled by the commencement of the nonsuited action, regardless of 91 whether the statute of limitations is statutory or contractual, and the plaintiff may recommence his 92 action within six months from the date of the order entered by the court, or within the original period of 93 limitation, or within the limitation period as provided by subdivision B 1, whichever period is longer.
 94 This tolling provision shall apply irrespective of whether the action is originally filed in a federal or a 95 state court and recommenced in any other court, and shall apply to all actions irrespective of whether 96 they arise under common law or statute.

97 F. Effect of devise for payment of debts. — No provision in the will of any testator devising his real 98 estate, or any part thereof, subject to the payment of his debts or charging the same therewith, or 99 containing any other provision for the payment of debts, shall prevent this chapter from operating 100 against such debts, unless it plainly appears to be the testator's intent that it shall not so operate.

101 G. Effect of new promise in writing.

102 1. If any person against whom a right of action has accrued on any contract, other than a judgment 103 or recognizance, promises, by writing signed by him or his agent, payment of money on such contract, 104 the person to whom the right has accrued may maintain an action for the money so promised, within 105 such number of years after such promise as it might be maintained if such promise were the original 106 cause of action. An acknowledgment in writing, from which a promise of payment may be implied, 107 shall be deemed to be such promise within the meaning of this subsection.

108 2. The plaintiff may sue on the new promise described in subdivision 1 of ~~this subsection~~ or on the 109 original cause of action, except that when the new promise is of such a nature as to merge the original 110 cause of action then the action shall be only on the new promise.

111 H. Suspension of limitations in creditors' suits. — When an action is commenced as a general 112 creditors' action, or as a general lien creditors' action, or as an action to enforce a mechanics' lien, the 113 running of the statute of limitations shall be suspended as to debts provable in such action from the 114 commencement of the action, provided they are brought in before the commissioner in chancery under 115 the first reference for an account of debts; but as to claims not so brought in the statute shall continue 116 to run, without interruption by reason either of the commencement of the action or of the order for an 117 account, until a later order for an account, under which they do come in, or they are asserted by petition

118 or independent action.

119 In actions not instituted originally either as general creditors' actions, or as general lien creditors'
120 actions, but which become such by subsequent proceedings, the statute of limitations shall be suspended 121 by an order of reference for an account of debts or of liens only as to those creditors who come in and 122 prove their claims under the order. As to creditors who come in afterwards by petition or under an order 123 of recommittal, or a later order of reference for an account, the statute shall continue to run without 124 interruption by reason of previous orders until filing of the petition, or until the date of the reference 125 under which they prove their claims, as the case may be.

126 I. When an action is commenced within a period of ~~thirty~~ 30 days prior to the expiration of the 127 limitation period for commencement thereof and the defending party or parties desire to institute an 128 action as third-party plaintiff against one or more persons not party to the original action, the running of 129 the period of limitation against such action shall be suspended as to such new party for a period of ~~sixty~~ 130 60 days from the expiration of the applicable limitation period.

131 J. If any award of compensation by the Workers' Compensation Commission pursuant to Chapter 5
132 (§ 65.2-500 et seq.) of Title 65.2 is subsequently found void ab initio, other than an award voided for 133 fraudulent procurement of the award by the claimant, the statute of limitations applicable to any civil 134 action upon the same claim or cause of action in a court of this Commonwealth shall be tolled for that 135 period of time during which compensation payments were made.

136 K. Suspension of limitations during criminal proceedings. — In any personal action for damages, if a 137 criminal prosecution arising out of the same facts is commenced, the time such prosecution is pending 138 shall not be computed as part of the period within which such a civil action may be brought. For 139 purposes of this subsection, the time during which a prosecution is pending shall be calculated from the 140 date of the issuance of a warrant, summons or capias, the return or filing of an indictment or 141 information, or the defendant's first appearance in any court as an accused in such a prosecution, 142 whichever date occurs first, until the date of the final judgment or order in the trial court, the date of 143 the final disposition of any direct appeal in state court, or the date on which the time for noting an 144 appeal has expired, whichever date occurs last. Thereafter, the civil action may be brought within the 145 remaining period of the statute or within one year, whichever is longer.

146 If a criminal prosecution is commenced and a grand jury indictment is returned or a grand jury 147 indictment is waived after the period within which a civil action arising out of the same set of facts may 148 be brought, a civil action may be brought within one year of the date of the final judgment or order in 149 the trial court, the date of the final disposition of any direct appeal in state court, or the date on which 150 the time for noting an appeal has expired, whichever date occurs last, but no more than ~~ten~~ 10 years
151 after the date of the crime or two years after the cause of action shall have accrued under § 8.01-249, 152 whichever date occurs last.
