6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 9.1-913 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:8 § 9.1-913. Public dissemination by means of the Internet.

9 The State Police shall develop and maintain a system for making certain Registry information on 10 persons convicted of an offense for which registration is required publicly available by means of the 11 Internet. The information to be made available shall include the offender's name; all aliases that he has 12 used or under which he may have been known; the date and locality of the conviction and a brief 13 description of the offense; his age, current address, and photograph; his current work address; the name
14 of any institution of higher education at which he is currently enrolled; and such other information as 15 the State Police may from time to time determine is necessary to preserve public safety, including but 16 not limited to the fact that an individual is wanted for failing to register or reregister. The system shall 17 be secure and not capable of being altered except by the State Police. The system shall be updated each 18 business day with newly received registrations and reregistrations. The State Police shall remove all 19 information that it knows to be inaccurate from the Internet system.
