Offered January 13, 2016

Prefiled January 12, 2016

A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 58.1-439.21 and 58.1-439.24 of the Code of Virginia, relating to neighborhood assistance tax credits.

Patron—Mason

Referred to Committee on Finance

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 58.1-439.21 and 58.1-439.24 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 58.1-439.21. Tax credit; amount; limitation; carry over.

A. The Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Commissioner of the State Department of Social Services shall certify to the Department of Taxation, or in the case of business firms subject to a tax under Article 1 (§ 58.1-2500 et seq.) of Chapter 25 or Article 2 (§ 58.1-2620 et seq.) of Chapter 26, to the State Corporation Commission, the applicability of the tax credit provided herein for a business firm.

B. A For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2012, but prior to January 1, 2017, a business firm shall be eligible for a credit against the taxes imposed by Articles 2 (§ 58.1-320 et seq.), 6 (§ 58.1-360 et seq.), and 10 (§ 58.1-400 et seq.) of Chapter 3, Chapter 12 (§ 58.1-1200 et seq.), Article 1 (§ 58.1-2500 et seq.) of Chapter 25, or Article 2 (§ 58.1-2620 et seq.) of Chapter 26, in an amount equal to 65 percent of the value of the money, property, professional services, and contracting services donated by the business firm during its taxable year to neighborhood organizations for programs approved pursuant to § 58.1-439.20. Notwithstanding any other law and for purposes of this article, the value of a motor vehicle donated by a business firm shall, in all cases, be such value as determined for federal income tax purposes using the laws and regulations of the United States relating to federal income taxes. No tax credit shall be granted for any donation made in the taxable year with a value of less than $616.

The tax credit shall equal (i) 60 percent of the value of qualified donations made by a business firm in its taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2017, but prior to January 1, 2018; (ii) 55 percent of the value of qualified donations made by a business firm in its taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2018, but prior to January 1, 2019; and (iii) 50 percent of the value of qualified donations made by a business firm in its taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2019.

A business firm shall be eligible for a tax credit under this section only to the extent that sufficient tax credits allocated to the neighborhood organization for an approved project are available. Notwithstanding that this section establishes a tax credit of 65 percent of the value of the qualified donation the tax credit percentage in effect for the taxable year, a business firm may by written agreement accept a lesser tax credit percentage from a neighborhood organization for any otherwise qualified donation it has made. No tax credit shall be granted to any business firm for donations to a neighborhood organization providing job training or education for individuals employed by the business firm. Any tax credit not usable for the taxable year the donation was made may be carried over to the extent usable for the next five succeeding taxable years or until the full credit has been utilized, whichever is sooner. Credits granted to a partnership, electing small business (Subchapter S) corporation, or limited liability company shall be allocated to their individual partners, shareholders, or members, respectively, in proportion to their ownership or interest in such business entities.

C. A tax credit shall be issued by the Superintendent of Public Instruction or the Commissioner of the State Department of Social Services to a business firm upon receipt of a certification made by a neighborhood organization to whom tax credits were allocated for an approved program pursuant to § 58.1-439.20. The certification shall identify the type and value of the donation received, the business firm making the donation, and the tax credit percentage to be used in determining the amount of the tax credit. The certification shall also include any written agreement under which a business firm accepts a tax credit of less than 65 percent for a donation at a credit percentage that is less than the tax credit percentage in effect for the taxable year of the business.

§ 58.1-439.24. Donations by individuals.

For purposes of this section, the term "individual" means the same as that term is defined in § 58.1-302, but excluding any individual included in the definition of a "business firm" as such term is defined in § 58.1-439.18.

A. Notwithstanding any provision of this article limiting eligibility for tax credits, an individual

59 making a monetary donation or a donation of marketable securities to a neighborhood organization
60 approved under this article shall be eligible for a credit against taxes imposed by § 58.1-320 as provided
61 in this section.

62 B. Notwithstanding any provision of this article specifying the amount of a tax credit, a tax credit 63 issued to an individual making a monetary donation or a donation of marketable securities to an 64 approved project shall be equal to 65 percent of the value of such donation for taxable years beginning
65 on or after January 1, 2012, but prior to January 1, 2017; however, tax credits (i) shall not be issued
66 for any donation made in the taxable year with a value of less than $500 and (ii) shall be issued only 67 for the first $125,000 in value of donations made by the individual during the taxable year. The 68 maximum aggregate donations of $125,000 for the taxable year for which tax credits may be issued and 69 the minimum required donation of $500 shall apply on an individual basis.

70 The tax credit shall equal (i) 60 percent of the value of qualified donations made by an individual in 71 taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2017, but prior to January 1, 2018; (ii) 55 percent of 72 the value of qualified donations made by an individual in taxable years beginning on or after January
73 1, 2018, but prior to January 1, 2019; and (iii) 50 percent of the value of qualified donations made by
74 an individual in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2019.

75 C. An individual shall be eligible for a tax credit under this section only to the extent that sufficient
76 tax credits allocated to the neighborhood organization approved under this article are available.
77 Notwithstanding ~~that this section establishes a tax credit of 65 percent of the value of the qualified~~
78 ~~donation the tax credit percentage in effect for the taxable year~~, an individual may by written agreement
79 accept a lesser tax credit percentage from a neighborhood organization for any otherwise qualified
80 donation he has made.

81 D. The amount of credit allowed pursuant to this section, if such credit has been issued by the 82 Superintendent of Public Instruction or the Commissioner of the State Department of Social Services, 83 shall not exceed the tax imposed pursuant to § 58.1-320 for such taxable year. Any credit not usable for 84 the taxable year may be carried over for credit against the individual's income taxes until the earlier of 85 (i) the full amount of the credit is used or (ii) the expiration of the fifth taxable year after the taxable
86 year in which the tax credit has been issued to such individual. If an individual that is subject to the tax
87 limitation imposed pursuant to this subsection is allowed another credit pursuant to any other section of 88 the Code of Virginia, or has a credit carryover from a preceding taxable year, such individual shall be 89 considered to have first utilized any credit allowed that does not have a carryover provision, and then
90 any credit that is carried forward from a preceding taxable year, prior to the utilization of any credit
91 allowed pursuant to this section.

92 E. A tax credit shall be issued by the Superintendent of Public Instruction or the Commissioner of 93 the State Department of Social Services to an individual only upon receipt of a certification made by a 94 neighborhood organization to whom tax credits were allocated for an approved program pursuant to 95 § 58.1-439.20.

96 The certification shall identify the type and value of the donation received, the individual making the 97 donation, and the tax credit percentage to be used in determining the amount of the tax credit. The 98 certification shall also include any written agreement under which an individual accepts a tax credit of 99 ~~less than 65 percent~~ for a donation at a credit percentage that is less than the tax credit percentage in 100 effect for the taxable year.
