6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 8.01-195.6 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:8 § 8.01-195.6. Notice of claim.

9 A. Every claim cognizable against the Commonwealth or a transportation district shall be forever
10 barred unless the claimant or his agent, attorney or representative has filed a written statement of the 11 nature of the claim, which includes the time and place at which the injury is alleged to have occurred
12 and the agency or agencies alleged to be liable, within one year after such cause of action accrued.
13 However, if the claimant was under a disability at the time the cause of action accrued, the tolling
14 provisions of § 8.01-229 shall apply.

15 B. If the claim is against the Commonwealth, the statement shall be filed with the Director of the 16 Division of Risk Management or the Attorney General. If the claim is against a transportation district
17 the statement shall be filed with the chairman of the commission of the transportation district.

18 C. The notice is deemed filed when it is received in the office of the official to whom the notice is 19 directed. The notice may be delivered by hand, by any form of United States mail service (including 20 regular, certified, registered or overnight mail), or by commercial delivery service.

21 C1. If the claim is against the Department of Transportation, and the Attorney General has delegated
22 settlement authority to the Department of Transportation for such claims, the notice of such claim shall 23 be filed with the Department of Transportation. In addition to the methods specified in subsection C, the 24 notice may be delivered electronically, in a manner prescribed by the Department of Transportation.

25 D. In any action contesting the filing of the notice of claim, the burden of proof shall be on the 26 claimant to establish receipt of the notice in conformity with this section. A signed United States mail 27 return receipt indicating the date of delivery, or any other form of signed and dated acknowledgment of 28 delivery given by authorized personnel in the office of the official with whom the statement is filed,
29 shall be prima facie evidence of filing of the notice under this section.

30 E. Claims against the Commonwealth involving medical malpractice shall be subject to the 31 provisions of this article and to the provisions of Chapter 21.1 (§ 8.01-581.1 et seq.) of this title.
32 However, the recovery in such a claim involving medical malpractice shall not exceed the limits
33 imposed by § 8.01-195.3.
