5 Approved

6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 2.2-3121 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:8 § 2.2-3121. Advisory opinions.

9 A. A state officer or employee shall not be prosecuted for a knowing violation of this chapter if the 10 alleged violation resulted from his good faith reliance on a written opinion of the Attorney General or 11 the Virginia Conflict of Interest and Ethics Advisory Council made in response to his written request for 12 such opinion and the opinion was made after a full disclosure of the facts regardless of whether such 13 opinion is later withdrawn provided the alleged violation occurred prior to the withdrawal of the 14 opinion.

15 B. A local officer or employee shall not be prosecuted for a knowing violation of this chapter if the 16 alleged violation resulted from his good faith reliance on a written opinion of the attorney for the 17 Commonwealth, ~~his county, city, or town attorney,~~ or the Council made in response to his written 18 request for such opinion and the opinion was made after a full disclosure of the facts regardless of 19 whether such opinion is later withdrawn, provided that the alleged violation occurred prior to the 20 withdrawal of the opinion. The written opinion shall be a public record and shall be released upon 21 request.

22 C. If any officer or employee serving at the local level of government is charged with a knowing 23 violation of this chapter, and the alleged violation resulted from his reliance upon a written opinion of 24 his county, city, or town attorney, made after a full disclosure of the facts, that such action was not in 25 violation of this chapter, then the officer or employee shall have the right to introduce a copy of the 26 opinion at his trial as evidence that he did not knowingly violate this chapter.
