To establish personal identification and residence in Virginia for purposes of this section, a dealer must require any prospective purchaser to present one photo-identification form issued by a governmental agency of the Commonwealth or by the United States Department of Defense, and other documentation of residence. Except where the photo-identification was issued by the United States Department of Defense, the other documentation of residence shall show an address identical to that shown on the photo-identification form, such as evidence of currently paid personal property tax or real estate tax, or a current (a) lease, (b) utility or telephone bill, (c) voter registration card, (d) bank check, (e) passport, (f) automobile registration, or (g) hunting or fishing license; other current identification allowed as evidence of residency by Part 178.124 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations and ATF Ruling 2001-5; or other documentation of residence determined to be acceptable by the Department of Criminal Justice Services, that corroborates that the prospective purchaser currently resides in Virginia. For the purposes of this section and establishment of residency for firearm purchase, residency of a member of the armed forces shall include both the state in which the member's permanent duty post is located and any nearby state in which the member resides and from which he commutes to the permanent duty post. When the photo-identification presented to a dealer by the prospective purchaser is a driver's license or other photo-identification issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles, and such identification form contains a date of issue, the dealer shall not, except for a renewed driver's license or other photo-identification issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles, sell or otherwise transfer a firearm to the prospective purchaser until 30 days after the date of issue of an original or duplicate driver's license unless the prospective purchaser also presents a copy of his Virginia Department of Motor Vehicles driver's record showing that the original date of issue of the driver's license was more than 30 days prior to the attempted purchase.

In addition, no dealer shall sell, rent, trade or transfer from his inventory any assault firearm to any person who is not a citizen of the United States or who is not a person lawfully admitted for permanent residence. To establish citizenship or lawful admission for a permanent residence for purposes of purchasing an assault firearm, a dealer shall require a prospective purchaser to present a certified birth certificate or a certificate of birth abroad issued by the United States State Department, a certificate of citizenship or a certificate of naturalization issued by the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services, an unexpired U.S. passport, a United States citizen identification card, a current voter registration card, a current selective service registration card, or an immigrant visa or other documentation of status as a person lawfully admitted for permanent residence issued by the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services.

Upon receipt of the request for a criminal history record information check, the State Police shall (1) review its criminal history record information to determine if the buyer or transferee is prohibited from possessing or transporting a firearm by state or federal law, (2) inform the dealer if its record indicates that the buyer or transferee is so prohibited, and (3) provide the dealer with a unique reference number for that inquiry.

2. The State Police shall provide its response to the requesting dealer during the dealer's request, or by return call without delay. If the criminal history record information check indicates the prospective purchaser or transferee has a disqualifying criminal record or has been acquitted by reason of insanity and committed to the custody of the Commissioner of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services, the State Police shall have until the end of the dealer's next business day to advise the dealer if its records indicate the buyer or transferee is prohibited from possessing or transporting a firearm by state or federal law. If not so advised by the end of the dealer's next business day, a dealer who has fulfilled the requirements of subdivision 1 may immediately complete the sale or transfer and shall not be deemed in violation of this section with respect to such sale or transfer. In case of electronic failure or other circumstances beyond the control of the State Police, the dealer shall be advised immediately of the reason for such delay and be given an estimate of the length of such delay. After such notification, the State Police shall, as soon as possible but in no event later than the end of the dealer's next business day, inform the requesting dealer if its records indicate the buyer or transferee is prohibited from possessing or transporting a firearm by state or federal law. A dealer who fulfills the requirements of subdivision 1 and is told by the State Police that a response will not be available by the end of the dealer's next business day may immediately complete the sale or transfer and shall not be deemed in violation of this section with respect to such sale or transfer.

3. Except as required by subsection D of § 9.1-132, the State Police shall not maintain records longer than 30 days, except for multiple handgun transactions for which records shall be maintained for 12 months, from any dealer's request for a criminal history record information check pertaining to a buyer or transferee who is not found to be prohibited from possessing and transporting a firearm under state or federal law. However, the log on requests made may be maintained for a period of 12 months, and such log shall consist of the name of the purchaser, the dealer identification number, the unique approval number and the transaction date.

4. On the last day of the week following the sale or transfer of any firearm, the dealer shall mail or deliver the written consent form required by subsection A to the Department of State Police. The State Police shall immediately initiate a search of all available criminal history record information to determine if the purchaser is prohibited from possessing or transporting a firearm under state or federal law. If the search discloses information indicating that the buyer or transferee is so prohibited from possessing or transporting a firearm, the State Police shall inform the chief law-enforcement officer in the jurisdiction where the sale or transfer occurred and the dealer without delay.

5. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, rifles and shotguns may be purchased by persons who are citizens of the United States or persons lawfully admitted for permanent residence but residents of other states under the terms of subsections A and B upon furnishing the dealer with proof of citizenship or status as a person lawfully admitted for permanent residence and one photo-identification form issued by a governmental agency of the person's state of residence and one other form of identification determined to be acceptable by the Department of Criminal Justice Services.

6. For the purposes of this subsection, the phrase "dealer's next business day" shall not include December 25.

C. No dealer shall sell, rent, trade or transfer from his inventory any firearm, except when the transaction involves a rifle or a shotgun and can be accomplished pursuant to the provisions of subdivision B 5 to any person who is not a resident of Virginia unless he has first obtained from the Department of State Police a report indicating that a search of all available criminal history record information has not disclosed that the person is prohibited from possessing or transporting a firearm under state or federal law. The dealer shall obtain the required report by mailing or delivering the written consent form required under subsection A to the State Police within 24 hours of its execution. If the dealer has complied with the provisions of this subsection and has not received the required report from the State Police within 10 days from the date the written consent form was mailed to the Department of State Police, he shall not be deemed in violation of this section for thereafter completing the sale or transfer.

D. Nothing herein shall prevent a resident of the Commonwealth, at his option, from buying, renting or receiving a firearm from a dealer in Virginia by obtaining a criminal history record information check through the dealer as provided in subsection C.

E. If any buyer or transferee is denied the right to purchase a firearm under this section, he may exercise his right of access to and review and correction of criminal history record information under § 9.1-132 or institute a civil action as provided in § 9.1-135, provided any such action is initiated within 30 days of such denial.

§ 19.2-60.2. Warrant and order for removal of firearms from persons posing a substantial risk of personal injury to self or others.

A. Upon complaint on oath, by any attorney for the Commonwealth or by any law-enforcement officer, to a circuit court judge that such attorney for the Commonwealth or law-enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that (i) a person poses a substantial risk of personal injury to himself or to other individuals in the near future, (ii) such person possesses one or more firearms, and (iii) such firearms are within or upon any place, thing, or person, the judge may issue a warrant commanding a law-enforcement officer to enter into or upon such place or thing, search the same or the person, and take into such officer's custody any and all firearms. An attorney for the Commonwealth or law-enforcement officer shall make a complaint only after he has conducted an independent investigation and determined that probable cause for the complaint exists as described in subsection B.

B. A warrant may issue only on affidavit sworn to by the complainant before a circuit court judge and establishing grounds for the issuance of a warrant, which affidavit shall be part of the file.

1. In determining whether probable cause for the issuance of a warrant exists, the judge shall consider (i) recent threats or acts of violence by such person directed toward other persons; (ii) recent threats or acts of violence by such person directed toward himself; (iii) recent issuance of a protective order pursuant to § 16.1-253.1, 16.1-253.4, 16.1-278.2, 16.1-279.1, 19.2-152.8, 19.2-152.9, or 19.2-152.10; (iv) recent violation of an unexpired protective order issued pursuant to § 16.1-253.1, 16.1-253.4, 16.1-278.2, 16.1-279.1, 19.2-152.8, 19.2-152.9, or 19.2-152.10; and (v) recent acts of cruelty to animals as described in § 3.2-6570 by such person.

2. In evaluating whether such recent threats or acts of violence constitute probable cause to believe that such person poses a substantial risk of personal injury to himself or to others in the near future, the judge may consider other factors, including (i) the reckless use, display, or brandishing of a firearm

428 by such person; (ii) a history of the use, attempted use, or threatened use of physical force by such 429 person against other persons; (iii) prior involuntary confinement of such person in a hospital for
430 persons with psychiatric disabilities; (iv) any prior arrest of such person for a violent felony offense
431 listed in § 17.1-805; (v) any history of a violation of a protective order issued pursuant to § 16.1-253.1,
432 16.1-253.4, 16.1-278.2, 16.1-279.1, 19.2-152.8, 19.2-152.9, or 19.2-152.10; (vi) the illegal use of 433 controlled substances or abuse of alcohol by such person; and (vii) evidence of recent acquisition of 434 firearms or other deadly weapons by such person.

435 3. If the judge determines that probable cause exists, the judge shall issue a warrant naming or 436 describing the person, place, or thing to be searched. The warrant shall be directed to a
437 law-enforcement officer. It shall state the grounds and probable cause for its issuance, and it shall 438 command the officer to immediately search the person, place, or thing named for any and all firearms.
439 A copy of the warrant shall be given to the person named therein together with a notice informing the 440 person that he has the right to a hearing under this section and may be represented by counsel at the 441 hearing.

442 C. The applicant for the warrant shall file a copy of the application for the warrant and all
443 affidavits upon which the warrant is based with the clerk of court for the jurisdiction where the search
444 will be conducted no later than the next business day following the execution of the warrant. Prior to 445 the execution and return of the warrant, the clerk of court shall not disclose any information pertaining 446 to the application for the warrant or any affidavits upon which the warrant is based.

447 D. During the execution of the warrant, the person shall be informed of the items sought and given
448 the opportunity to voluntarily relinquish the firearms. The law-enforcement officer executing the warrant
449 shall take custody of any firearm that is in the person's custody, control, or possession or that is owned
450 by the person. The warrant shall be executed and returned within 15 days after issuance and shall be 451 accompanied by a written inventory of all firearms taken.

452 E. If the location to be searched during the execution of the warrant is jointly occupied by the 453 person who is the subject of the warrant and other persons and the law-enforcement officer executing
454 the warrant finds a firearm that is not owned by the person who is the subject of the warrant, the 455 firearm shall not be taken if there is no independent evidence of unlawful possession of the firearm by 456 the owner of the firearm.

457 F. Not later than 14 days after the execution of a warrant under this section, the circuit court for the 458 jurisdiction where the person named in the warrant resides shall hold a hearing to determine whether 459 any firearm taken should be returned to the person named in the warrant or should continue to be held
460 by the agency that took the firearms. The attorney for the Commonwealth for the jurisdiction that issued
461 the warrant shall represent the interests of the Commonwealth. The Commonwealth shall have the 462 burden of proving all material facts by clear and convincing evidence. If, after such hearing, the court
463 finds by clear and convincing evidence that the person poses a substantial risk of personal injury to 464 himself or to other individuals in the near future, the court may order that any firearm taken pursuant 465 to the warrant issued under this section continue to be held by the agency that took the firearm for a
466 period not to exceed 180 days; otherwise, the court shall order any firearm taken to be returned to the 467 person named in the warrant. If the court finds that the person poses a substantial risk of personal 468 injury to himself or to other individuals in the near future, the court shall give notice to the local 469 community services board, which may take such action as it deems appropriate. A person who is the 470 subject of an order may petition the court one time during the 180 days for the return of his firearms
471 after 30 days from the date the order was issued.

472 G. Any person whose firearm has been taken pursuant to this section, or such person's legal 473 representative, may transfer the firearm to a third party, provided that:

474 1. The person named in the warrant and the third party appear at the hearing.

475 2. At the hearing, the court determines that the third party is not prohibited from possessing a
476 firearm.

477 3. The person to whom the firearm is to be transferred does not reside with the individual named in 478 the warrant.

479 4. The court informs the person to whom the firearm is surrendered of the requirements and 480 penalties under § 18.2-308.2:1.

481 5. The court, after considering all relevant factors and any input from the person named in the 482 warrant, approves the surrender of the firearm subject to such restrictions as the court deems necessary.

483 Upon notification in writing by such person, or such person's legal representative, and the 484 transferee, the head of the agency that took the firearm or his designee holding such firearm shall 485 within 10 days deliver the firearm to the transferee.

486 H. The court shall forthwith, but in all cases no later than the end of the business day on which the 487 warrant was served or order was issued, enter and transfer electronically the identifying information
488 and the name, date of birth, sex, and race of the person who is the subject of the warrant or order
489 along with other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia

Criminal Information Network established and maintained by the Department pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et seq.) of Title 52 and shall forthwith forward the attested copy of the warrant or order to the primary law-enforcement agency responsible for service and entry of the order. Upon receipt by the primary law-enforcement agency, the agency shall forthwith verify and enter any modification as necessary to the identifying information and other appropriate information. The warrant shall be served forthwith and due return made to the court. Upon service, the agency making service shall enter the date and time of service and other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police and make due return to the court. If the warrant or order is later dissolved or modified, a copy of the dissolution or modification shall be attested and forwarded forthwith to the primary law-enforcement agency responsible for entry of the warrant or order, and upon receipt of the warrant or order by the primary law-enforcement agency, the agency shall forthwith verify and enter any modification as necessary to the identifying information and other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal Information Network as described in this subsection.

I. For the purposes of this section, "law-enforcement officer" means any full-time or part-time employee of the Department of State Police or a police department or sheriff's office that is a part of or administered by the Commonwealth or any political subdivision thereof, and who is responsible for the prevention and detection of crime and the enforcement of the penal, traffic, or highway laws of the Commonwealth, for purposes of the administration of criminal justice as defined in § 9.1-101.

§ 19.2-387.2. Firearm Order Registry; maintenance; access.

A. The Department of State Police shall keep and maintain a computerized Firearm Order Registry for the entry of warrants and orders issued pursuant to § 19.2-60.2. The purpose of the Registry shall be to assist the efforts of law-enforcement agencies to protect their communities and their citizens. The Department of State Police shall make Registry information available, upon request, to criminal justice agencies, including local law-enforcement agencies, through the Virginia Criminal Information Network (VCIN). Registry information provided under this section shall be used only for the purposes of the administration of criminal justice as defined in § 9.1-101.

B. No liability shall be imposed upon any law-enforcement official who disseminates information or fails to disseminate information in good faith compliance with the requirements of this section, but this provision shall not be construed to grant immunity for gross negligence or willful misconduct.

2. That the provisions of this act may result in a net increase in periods of imprisonment or commitment. Pursuant to § 30-19.1:4, the estimated amount of the necessary appropriation cannot be determined for periods of imprisonment in state adult correctional facilities; therefore, Chapter 665 of the Acts of Assembly of 2015 requires the Virginia Criminal Sentencing Commission to assign a minimum fiscal impact of $50,000. Pursuant to § 30-19.1:4, the estimated amount of the necessary appropriation cannot be determined for periods of commitment to the custody of the Department of Juvenile Justice.
