3. Committee: Passed Both Houses

4. Title: Vacancies in constitutional offices; special elections.

5. Summary: Allows the governing body of a county or city in which a vacancy in a constitutional office has occurred to request in its petition for a writ of election that the circuit court order the special election to be held at the next ensuing general election and allows the court to issue such writ. The bill also authorizes the governing body to petition the circuit court to request that no special election be ordered when the vacancy occurs within the 12 months immediately preceding the end of the term of that office and requires the court to grant such a request. The enrolled bill specifies that in the event of a vacancy of an elected constitutional officer, the highest ranking deputy officer or full-time assistant attorney who is qualified to vote for and hold that office shall perform the duties and responsibilities of an elected or appointed constitutional officer until the vacancy has been filled.

6. Budget Amendment Necessary: No

7. No Fiscal Impact

8. Fiscal Implications: This legislation would not result in a state fiscal impact. This legislation is not expected to generate any savings for localities because the special election would be held concurrent with the general election.

9. Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Department of Elections and localities.

10. Technical Amendment Necessary: No.

11. Other Comments: This bill is a companion to SB308 (Hanger), as amended by the House.
