- A BILL to amend and reenact § 23.1-1300 of the Code of Virginia, relating to governing boards of public institutions of higher education; leadership; residency.
- Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:
- 1. That § 23.1-1300 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

10 § 23.1-1300. Members of governing boards; removal; terms; nonvoting, advisory 11 representatives; residency.

A. Members appointed by the Governor to the governing boards of public institutions of higher 12 education shall serve for terms of four years. Vacancies occurring other than by expiration of a term 13 shall be filled for the unexpired term. No member appointed by the Governor to such a governing board 14 15 shall serve for more than two consecutive four-year terms; however, a member appointed by the Governor to serve an unexpired term is eligible to serve two consecutive four-vear terms immediately 16 17 succeeding such unexpired term. Except as otherwise provided in § 23.1-2601, all appointments are subject to confirmation by the General Assembly. Members appointed by the Governor to the governing 18 19 board of a public institution of higher education shall continue to hold office until their successors have 20 been appointed and confirmed. Ex officio members shall serve a term coincident with their term of 21 office.

B. No member appointed by the Governor to the governing board of a public institution of higher education who has served two consecutive four-year terms on such board is eligible to serve on the same board until at least four years have passed since the end of his second consecutive four-year term.

C. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection E or any other provision of law, the Governor may remove from office for malfeasance, misfeasance, incompetence, or gross neglect of duty any member of the board of any public institution of higher education and fill the vacancy resulting from the removal.

D. The Governor shall set forth in a written public statement his reasons for removing any member pursuant to subsection C at the time the removal occurs. The Governor is the sole judge of the sufficiency of the cause for removal as set forth in subsection C.

31 E. If any member of the governing board of a public institution of higher education fails to attend (i) 32 the meetings of the board for one year without sufficient cause, as determined by a majority vote of the board, or (ii) the educational programs required by § 23.1-1304 in his first two years of membership 33 34 without sufficient cause, as determined by a majority vote of the board, the remaining members of the 35 board shall record such failure in the minutes at its next meeting and notify the Governor, and the office 36 of such member shall be vacated. No member of the board of visitors of a four-year public institution of 37 higher education or the State Board for Community Colleges who fails to attend the educational 38 programs required by § 23.1-1304 during his first four-year term is eligible for reappointment to such 39 board.

F. The governing board of each public institution of higher education shall adopt in its bylaws policies (i) for removing members pursuant to subsection E and (ii) referencing the Governor's power to remove members described in subsection C.

43 G. The governing board of each public institution of higher education and each local community 44 college board may appoint one or more nonvoting, advisory faculty representatives to its respective board. In the case of local community college boards and boards of visitors, such representatives shall 45 be chosen from individuals elected by the faculty or the institution's faculty senate or its equivalent. In 46 47 the case of the State Board, such representatives shall be chosen from individuals elected by the Chancellor's Faculty Advisory Committee. Such representatives shall be appointed to serve (i) at least 48 49 one term of at least 12 months, which shall be coterminous with the institution's fiscal year or (ii) for such terms as may be mutually agreed to by the State Board and the Chancellor's Faculty Advisory 50 51 Committee, or by the local community college board or the board of visitors, and the institution's faculty 52 senate or its equivalent.

H. The board of visitors of any baccalaureate public institution of higher education shall appoint one or more students as nonvoting, advisory representatives. Such representatives shall be appointed under such circumstances and serve for such terms as the board of visitors of the institution shall prescribe.

I. Nothing in subsections G and H shall prohibit the governing board of any public institution of higher education or any local community college board from excluding such nonvoting, advisory faculty or student representatives from discussions of faculty grievances, faculty or staff disciplinary matters or salaries, or any other matter.
