HOUSE BILL NO. 1559

AMENDMENT IN THE NATURE OF A SUBSTITUTE

(Proposed by the House Committee on Transportation on January 19, 2017)

(Patron Prior to Substitute—Delegate Krizek)

A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 46.2-333.1 and 46.2-345 of the Code of Virginia, relating to renewal of special identification cards.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 46.2-333.1 and 46.2-345 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 46.2-333.1. Surcharges on certain fees of Department; disposition of proceeds.

Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this chapter, ~~beginning May 1, 2003,~~ there are hereby imposed, in addition to other fees imposed by this chapter, the following surcharges in the following amounts:

1. For the issuance of any driver's license other than a commercial driver's license, $1.60 per year of validity of the license;

2. For the issuance of any commercial driver's license, $1 per year of validity of the license;

3. For the reissuance or replacement of any driver's license, $5; and

4. ~~For the issuance of any special identification card, $5; and~~

5. For the reinstatement of any driver's license, $15.

All surcharges collected by the Department under this section shall be paid into the state treasury and shall be set aside as a special fund to be used to support the operation and activities of the Department's customer service centers.

§ 46.2-345. Issuance of special identification cards; fee; confidentiality; penalties.

A. On the application of any person who is a resident of the Commonwealth or the parent or legal guardian of any such person who is under the age of 15, the Department shall issue a special identification card to the person provided:

1. Application is made on a form prescribed by the Department and includes the applicant's full legal name; year, month, and date of birth; social security number; sex; and residence address;

2. The applicant presents, when required by the Department, proof of identity, legal presence, residency, and social security number or non-work authorized status;

3. The Department is satisfied that the applicant needs an identification card or the applicant shows he has a bona fide need for such a card; and

4. The applicant does not hold a driver's license, commercial driver's license, temporary driver's permit, learner's permit, or motorcycle learner's permit.

Persons 70 years of age or older may exchange a valid Virginia driver's license for a special identification card at no fee. Special identification cards subsequently issued to such persons shall be subject to the regular fees for special identification cards.

B. The fee for the issuance of an original, duplicate, reissue, or renewal special identification card is ~~$5~~ $2 per year, with a $10 minimum fee. ~~The fee for the issuance of a duplicate or reissue of a special identification card is $5.~~ Persons 21 years old or older may be issued a scenic special identification card for an additional fee of $5.

C. Every special identification card shall expire on the last day of the month of birth of the applicant in years in which the applicant attains an age exactly divisible by five ~~applicant's birthday at the end of the period of years for which a special identification card has been issued.~~ At no time shall any special identification card be issued for less than three nor more than ~~seven~~ eight years, except under the provisions of subsection B of § 46.2-328.1 and except that those cards issued to children under the age of 15 shall expire on the child's sixteenth birthday; ~~thereafter the special identification card may be renewed on or before the last day of the month of birth of the applicant and shall be valid for five years, expiring in the next year in which the applicant's age is exactly divisible by five, except under the provisions of subsection B of § 46.2-328.1.~~ Notwithstanding these limitations, the Commissioner may extend the validity period of an expiring card if (i) the Department is unable to process an application for renewal due to circumstances beyond its control, (ii) the extension has been authorized under a directive from the Governor, and (iii) the card was not issued as a temporary special identification card under the provisions of subsection B of § 46.2-328.1. However, in no event shall the validity period be extended more than 90 days per occurrence of such conditions. Any special identification card issued to a person required to register pursuant to Chapter 9 (§ 9.1-900 et seq.) of Title 9.1 shall expire on the applicant's birthday in years which the applicant attains an age equally divisible by five. For each person required to register pursuant to Chapter 9 of Title 9.1, the Department may not waive the requirement that each such person shall appear for each renewal or the requirement to obtain a 60 photograph in accordance with subsection C of § 46.2-323.

61 D. A special identification card issued under this section may be similar in size, shape, and design to
62 a driver's license, and include a photograph of its holder, but the card shall be readily distinguishable
63 from a driver's license and shall clearly state that it does not authorize the person to whom it is issued
64 to drive a motor vehicle. Every applicant for a special identification card shall appear in person before
65 the Department to apply for a renewal, duplicate or reissue unless specifically permitted by the 66 Department to apply in another manner.

67 E. Special identification cards, for persons at least 15 years old but less than 21 years old, shall be
68 immediately and readily distinguishable from those issued to persons 21 years old or older.
69 Distinguishing characteristics shall include unique design elements of the document and descriptors
70 within the photograph area to identify persons who are at least 15 years old but less than 21 years old.
71 These descriptors shall include the month, day, and year when the person will become 21 years old.

72 F. Special identification cards for persons under age 15 shall bear a full face photograph. The special
73 identification card issued to persons under age 15 shall be readily distinguishable from a driver's license
74 and from other special identification cards issued by the Department. Such cards shall clearly indicate
75 that it does not authorize the person to whom it is issued to drive a motor vehicle.

76 G. Unless otherwise prohibited by law, a valid Virginia driver's license may be surrendered for a
77 special identification card without the applicant's having to present proof of legal presence as required
78 by § 46.2-328.1 if the Virginia driver's license is unexpired and it has not been revoked, suspended, or
79 cancelled. The special identification card shall be considered a reissue and the expiration date shall be 80 the last day of the month of the surrendered driver's license's month of expiration.

81 H. Any personal information, as identified in § 2.2-3801, which is retained by the Department from 82 an application for the issuance of a special identification card is confidential and shall not be divulged to 83 any person, association, corporation, or organization, public or private, except to the legal guardian or 84 the attorney of the applicant or to a person, association, corporation, or organization nominated in 85 writing by the applicant, his legal guardian, or his attorney. This subsection shall not prevent the 86 Department from furnishing the application or any information thereon to any law-enforcement agency.

87 I. Any person who uses a false or fictitious name or gives a false or fictitious address in any
88 application for an identification card or knowingly makes a false statement or conceals a material fact or
89 otherwise commits a fraud in any such application shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor. However,
90 where the name or address is given, or false statement is made, or fact is concealed, or fraud committed,
91 with the intent to purchase a firearm or where the identification card is obtained for the purpose of
92 committing any offense punishable as a felony, a violation of this section shall constitute a Class 4
93 felony.

94 J. The Department may promulgate regulations necessary for the effective implementation of the 95 provisions of this section.

96 K. The Department shall utilize the various communications media throughout the Commonwealth to
97 inform Virginia residents of the provisions of this section and to promote and encourage the public to
98 take advantage of its provisions.

99 L. The Department shall electronically transmit application information to the Department of State
100 Police, in a format approved by the State Police, for comparison with information contained in the 101 Virginia Criminal Information Network and National Crime Information Center Convicted Sexual
102 Offender Registry Files, at the time of issuance of a special identification card. Whenever it appears
103 from the records of the State Police that a person has failed to comply with the duty to register or
104 reregister pursuant to Chapter 9 (§ 9.1-900 et seq.) of Title 9.1, the State Police shall promptly
105 investigate and, if there is probable cause to believe a violation has occurred, obtain a warrant or assist
106 in obtaining an indictment charging a violation of § 18.2-472.1 in the jurisdiction in which the person
107 made application for the special identification card.

108 M. When requested by the applicant, the applicant's parent if the applicant is a minor, or the 109 applicant's guardian, and upon presentation of a signed statement by a licensed physician confirming the 110 applicant's condition, the Department shall indicate on the applicant's special identification card that the 111 applicant has any condition listed in subsection K of § 46.2-342.
