HOUSE BILL NO. 1657

House Amendments in [ ] — February 6, 2017

A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 2.2-3800, 2.2-3801, 2.2-3802, and 52-48 of the Code of Virginia, relating to the Government Data Collection and Dissemination Practices Act; license plate readers.

Patron Prior to Engrossment—Delegated Marshall, R.G.

Referred to Committee on Militia, Police and Public Safety

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 2.2-3800, 2.2-3801, 2.2-3802, and 52-48 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 2.2-3800. Short title; findings; principles of information practice.

A. This chapter may be cited as the "Government Data Collection and Dissemination Practices Act."

B. The General Assembly finds that:

1. An individual's privacy is directly affected by the extensive collection, maintenance, use and dissemination of personal information;

2. The increasing use of computers and sophisticated information technology has greatly magnified the harm that can occur from these practices;

3. An individual's opportunities to secure employment, insurance, credit, and his right to due process, and other legal protections are endangered by the misuse of certain of these personal information systems; and

4. In order to preserve the rights guaranteed a citizen in a free society, legislation is necessary to establish procedures to govern information systems containing records on individuals.

C. Recordkeeping agencies of the Commonwealth and political subdivisions shall adhere to the following principles of information practice to ensure safeguards for personal privacy:

1. There shall be no personal information system whose existence is secret.

2. Information shall not be collected unless the need for it has been clearly established in advance.

3. Information shall be appropriate and relevant to the purpose for which it has been collected.

4. Information shall not be obtained by fraudulent or unfair means.

5. Information shall not be used unless it is accurate and current.

6. There shall be a prescribed procedure for an individual to learn the purpose for which information has been recorded and particulars about its use and dissemination.

7. There shall be a clearly prescribed and uncomplicated procedure for an individual to correct, erase or amend inaccurate, obsolete or irrelevant information.

8. Any agency holding personal information shall assure its reliability and take precautions to prevent its misuse.

9. There shall be a clearly prescribed procedure to prevent personal information collected for one purpose from being used for another purpose.

10. The Commonwealth or any agency or political subdivision thereof shall not collect personal information except as explicitly or implicitly authorized by law.

11. Unless a criminal or administrative warrant has been issued, law-enforcement and regulatory agencies shall not use license plate readers to collect or maintain personal information in a manner where such data is of unknown relevance and is not intended for prompt evaluation and potential use respecting suspected criminal activity or terrorism by any person. Notwithstanding the restrictions set forth in this subdivision, law-enforcement and regulatory agencies shall be allowed to collect information from license plate readers without a warrant; however, any information collected from a license plate reader shall not be retained for more than [ ~~seven~~ 60 ] days or be subject to any outside inquiries or internal usage except for the investigation of a crime or a report of a missing person. A law-enforcement or regulatory agency shall purge any information collected from a license plate reader no later than [ ~~seven~~ 60 ] days after collection of such information unless the agency has determined that such information is relevant to an ongoing investigation of a crime or a report of a missing person.

[ A Unless a criminal or administrative warrant has been issued, a ] law-enforcement or regulatory agency shall not acquire from any other agency or a third-party vendor any personal information collected from a license plate reader that was collected or retained by such other agency or vendor in a manner that the law-enforcement or regulatory agency would not have been permitted to collect or retain pursuant to this subdivision.

§ 2.2-3801. Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context requires a different meaning:

ENGROSSED

HB1657E

59 "Agency" means any agency, authority, board, department, division, commission, institution, bureau,
60 or like governmental entity of the Commonwealth or of any unit of local government including counties,
61 cities, towns, regional governments, and the departments thereof, and includes constitutional officers,
62 except as otherwise expressly provided by law. "Agency" shall also include any entity, whether public or
63 private, with which any of the foregoing has entered into a contractual relationship for the operation of a
64 system of personal information to accomplish an agency function. Any such entity included in this
65 definition by reason of a contractual relationship shall only be deemed an agency as relates to services
66 performed pursuant to that contractual relationship, provided that if any such entity is a consumer
67 reporting agency, it shall be deemed to have satisfied all of the requirements of this chapter if it fully
68 complies with the requirements of the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act as applicable to services
69 performed pursuant to such contractual relationship.

70 "Data subject" means an individual about whom personal information is indexed or may be located
71 under his name, personal number, or other identifiable particulars, in an information system.

72 "Disseminate" means to release, transfer, or otherwise communicate information orally, in writing, or 73 by electronic means.

74 "Information system" means the total components and operations of a record-keeping process,
75 including information collected or managed by means of computer networks and the Internet, whether
76 automated or manual, containing personal information and the name, personal number, or other
77 identifying particulars of a data subject.

78 "License plate reader" means a law-enforcement system that scans vehicle license plates.

79 "Personal information" means all information that (i) describes, locates, or indexes anything about an 80 individual, including, but not limited to, his social security number, driver's license number, vehicle
81 license plate number, agency-issued identification number, student identification number, and real or 82 personal property holdings derived from tax returns; and his education, financial transactions, medical
83 history, ancestry, religion, political ideology, and criminal or employment record, or (ii) affords a basis
84 for inferring personal characteristics, such as finger and voice prints, photographs, or things done by or
85 to such individual; and the record of his presence, registration, or membership in an organization or
86 activity, presence at any place, or admission to an institution. "Personal information" ~~shall~~ does not
87 include routine information maintained for the purpose of internal office administration whose use could
88 not be such as to affect adversely any data subject nor does the term include real estate assessment
89 information.

90 "Purge" means to obliterate information completely from the transient, permanent, or archival records
91 of an agency.

92 § 2.2-3802. Systems to which chapter inapplicable.

93 The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to personal information systems:

154 Act (§ 2.2-3700 et seq.) or the Government Data Collection and Dissemination Practices Act (§ 2.2-3800
155 et seq.). Every three years, the Department shall conduct a review of information contained in any 156 database maintained by the Virginia Fusion Intelligence Center. Data that has been determined to not
157 have a nexus to terrorist activity shall be removed from such database. A reasonable suspicion standard
158 shall be applied when determining whether or not information has a nexus to terrorist activity.

159 B. No person, having access to information maintained by the Virginia Fusion Intelligence Center,
160 shall be subject to subpoena in a civil action in any court of the Commonwealth to testify concerning a
161 matter of which he has knowledge pursuant to his access to criminal intelligence information maintained
162 by the Virginia Fusion Intelligence Center.

163 C. No person or agency receiving information from the Virginia Fusion Intelligence Center shall
164 release or disseminate that information without prior authorization from the Virginia Fusion Intelligence
165 Center.

166 D. Any person who knowingly disseminates information in violation of this section is guilty of a
167 Class 1 misdemeanor. If such unauthorized dissemination results in death or serious bodily injury to 168 another person, such person is guilty of a Class 4 felony.

169 E. For purposes of this chapter:

170 "Criminal intelligence information" means data that has been evaluated and determined to be relevant
171 to the identification and criminal activity of individuals or organizations that are reasonably suspected of 172 involvement in criminal activity or terrorism. "Criminal intelligence information" shall does not include
173 criminal investigative files or personal information collected without a warrant by any law-enforcement
174 or regulatory agency through the use of license plate readers in a manner where such personal
175 information is of unknown relevance and not intended for prompt evaluation and potential use
176 respecting suspected criminal activity or terrorism by any person.
