Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 38.2-604.1 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

1981, c. 389, §38.1-57.7; 1986, c. 562; 2001, c. 371; 2002, c. 76; 2003, c. 266.

§ 38.2-604.1. Notice of financial information collection and disclosure practices.

A. An insurance institution or agent shall provide clear and conspicuous notice of financial information collection and disclosure practices in connection with insurance transactions as required by subsection B of this section:

1. To an applicant before any financial information is disclosed about that applicant to any nonaffiliated third party, if the disclosure is made other than as permitted under § 38.2-613. For purposes of this subdivision, a notice provided to an employer benefit plan sponsor, group or blanket insurance contract holder, or group annuity contract holder shall satisfy the notice requirements of this subdivision for applicants of such plan, policy, or annuity, provided the insurance institution or agent does not disclose the financial information of those applicants to a nonaffiliated third party, other than as permitted under § 38.2-613;

2. To a policyholder no later than delivery or issuance of the policy or any other evidence of coverage, or at the later of these events. For purposes of this subdivision, a notice provided to an employee benefit plan sponsor, group or blanket insurance contract holder, or group annuity contract holder shall satisfy the notice requirements of this subdivision for persons covered under such plans, policies, or annuities, provided the insurance institution or agent does not disclose the financial information of those persons to a nonaffiliated third party, other than as permitted under § 38.2-613; and

3. To a policyholder, other than a policyholder of a title insurance policy, not less than once in each calendar year. A notice provided to the sponsor of an employee benefit plan or the owner of a group or blanket insurance policy or group annuity contract shall satisfy the notice requirements of this subdivision for persons covered under such plan, policy or contract. For purposes of this subdivision only, "policyholder" does not include a person who owns a policy that is lapsed, expired or otherwise inactive or dormant under the insurance institution's business practices, and with whom the insurance institution has not communicated about the relationship for a period of 12 consecutive months, other than annual privacy notices, material required by law or regulation, communication at the direction of a state or federal authority, or promotional materials. An insurance institution or agent that provides nonpublic personal information to nonaffiliated third parties only in accordance with section 38.2-613 and has not changed its policies and practices with regard to disclosing nonpublic financial information from the policies and practices that were disclosed in the most recent notice sent to the policyholder in accordance with this section shall not be required to provide an annual notice under this section until such time as the licensee does not comply with any criteria described in this paragraph;

B. Any notice required by subsection A of this section shall be in writing or, if the applicant or policyholder agrees, in electronic format, and shall state:

1. The types of financial information that may be collected;

2. The types of financial information that may be disclosed;

3. The categories of persons to whom financial information may be disclosed; however, when disclosures are made pursuant to subsection B of § 38.2-613, the notice is only required to state that disclosures may be made without prior authorization as permitted by law;

4. If financial information is disclosed pursuant to subdivision C 1 of § 38.2-613, the types of financial information that may be disclosed and the categories of nonaffiliated third parties to whom financial information may be disclosed by contractual agreement;

5. An explanation of the right to direct that financial information not be disclosed to nonaffiliated third parties as provided in § 38.2-612.1, provided that this explanation shall not be required to be given when information is disclosed pursuant to the provisions of § 38.2-613;

60 Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. § 1681 et seq.) pertaining to the notices regarding the ability to opt out of 61 disclosure of information among affiliates; and

62 8. A description of the types of financial information about former policyholders that may be 63 disclosed and a description of the types of affiliates and nonaffiliated third parties to whom financial 64 information about former policyholders may be disclosed; however, when disclosures are made pursuant
65 to subsection B of § 38.2-613, the notice is only required to state that disclosures may be made without 66 prior authorization as permitted by law.

67 C. An insurance institution or agent that does not disclose, and does not wish to reserve the right to
68 disclose, financial information about policyholders or former policyholders to affiliates or nonaffiliated
69 third parties except as authorized in subsection B of § 38.2-613 may satisfy the requirements of this
70 section by providing a notice, as set forth in subdivisions A 2 and A 3 of this section, that:

71 1. States the foregoing information regarding such insurance institution or agent;

72 2. Includes the information described in subdivisions B 1 and B 6 of this section; and

73 3. States that the insurance institution or agent makes disclosures to other affiliated or nonaffiliated
74 third parties, as applicable, as permitted by law.

75 D. An insurance institution or agent may satisfy the notice requirements of subdivision A 1 of this
76 section by providing a short form notice at the same time that the insurance institution or agent delivers
77 an opt out notice as required by § 38.2-612.1. Such a short form notice shall: (i) be clear and
78 conspicuous; (ii) state that the notice prescribed in subsection B of this section is available upon request;
79 (iii) explain a reasonable means by which the applicant may obtain that notice; and (iv) be in writing or,
80 if the applicant agrees, in electronic format. The insurance institution or agent is not required to deliver
81 the notice prescribed in subsection B of this section with its short form notice, provided the insurance
82 institution or agent provides the applicant with a reasonable means to obtain such notice.

83 E. The obligations imposed by this section upon an insurance institution or agent may be satisfied by 84 another insurance institution or agent authorized to act on its behalf. An insurance institution may 85 provide a joint notice from the insurance institution and one or more of its affiliates or other financial
86 institutions, as identified in the notice, if the notice is accurate with respect to the insurance institution
87 and the other institutions.

88 F. An insurance institution or agent, prior to disclosing financial information to a nonaffiliated third
89 party other than as described in the notice prescribed in subsection B of this section, shall send a revised
90 notice that accurately describes its information collection and disclosure practices. Such notice shall 91 comply with the provisions of subsection B of this section.

92 G. An insurance institution or agent may satisfy the notice requirements of § 38.2-604 and this 93 section through the use of separate notices or a combined notice.

94 H. An insurance agent shall not be subject to the requirements of this section in any instance where
95 the insurance institution on whose behalf the agent is acting otherwise complies with the requirements
96 contained herein, and the agent does not disclose any financial information to any person other than the 97 insurance institution or its affiliates, or as permitted by § 38.2-613.

98 I. An insurance agent seeking to place coverage on behalf of a current policyholder shall be deemed
99 to be in compliance with the requirements of this section in any instance where the agent has provided 100 the notice required by this section within the previous 12 months.
