HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 600

Offered January 11, 2017

Prefiled January 5, 2017

Celebrating the life of Patricia Ann Logan-Reilly.

Patrons—Sullivan and Ingram; Senator: Dance

WHEREAS, Patricia Ann Logan-Reilly of Chesterfield, a longtime science teacher in the Richmond Public Schools, died on May 12, 2016; and

WHEREAS, Patricia "Tricia" Ann Logan-Reilly was born in Richmond to the late Norman and Iris Logan; and

WHEREAS, Tricia Logan-Reilly graduated from Manchester High School and earned a degree from Virginia Commonwealth University; and

WHEREAS, Tricia Logan-Reilly taught science in Richmond Public Schools for 41 years, touching the lives of countless students and colleagues at Thomas C. Boushall Middle School in southwestern Richmond; and

WHEREAS, Tricia Logan-Reilly was a devoted wife, loving mother, and caring friend; she loved a good book, a good movie, and felt at home at the beach; and

WHEREAS, Tricia Logan-Reilly lived her life in selfless service to others, abiding by the mantra "spread love wherever you go," teaching her family to value kindness and gratitude above all else, and that there is no such thing as caring too much; and

WHEREAS, Tricia Logan-Reilly will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by her husband, Charlie; children, Patrick and Megan; and many other beloved family and friends; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That the General Assembly hereby note with great sadness the loss of Patricia Ann Logan-Reilly, a longtime science teacher in Richmond Public Schools; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of Patricia Ann Logan-Reilly as an expression of the General Assembly's respect for her memory.
