ENROLLED

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 957

Commending Herndon High School.

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, February 17, 2017

Agreed to by the Senate, February 22, 2017

WHEREAS, on the morning of October 6, 2016, Ethan Empfield, a junior at Herndon High School, collapsed on the football field during gym class and stopped breathing; and

WHEREAS, Philip Stone, the school resource officer at Herndon High School, heard calls for help and rushed to the football field where he began to perform chest compressions on the 16-year-old student; and

WHEREAS, Amanda Hudson, the assistant principal of Herndon High School, alerted nursing aide Robin Weinstein to retrieve the school's automated external defibrillator (AED); and

WHEREAS, while Amanda Hudson performed mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, Robin Weinstein prepped the AED; Philip Stone, Amanda Hudson, and Robin Weinstein relied on their training to provide the proper care until first responders arrived; and

WHEREAS, Joe Griffin, Jack Brown, Al Parker, Fatima Mejia, Dan Coghlan, Brenda Brinckmeyer, Jonathan Frohm, and Irma Munguia also played a role in helping Ethan Empfield; and

WHEREAS, thanks to the quick efforts of the students, faculty, and staff of Herndon High School, Ethan Empfield was transported to a local hospital where he made a full recovery; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend the students, faculty, and staff members of Herndon High School who helped save the life of a student in distress in October 2016; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Herndon High School as an expression of the General Assembly's admiration for the heroic, life-saving actions of its students, faculty, and staff.
