222 "Vested interest" means:

223 1. A right to a mandatory distribution that is a noncontingent right as of the date of the exercise of 224 the decanting power;

 234 discretion over the income or principal of a first trust for the benefit of one or more current 235 beneficiaries may exercise the decanting power over the income or principal of the first trust.

236 C. Subject to § 64.2-779.10, in an exercise of the decanting power under this section, a second trust 237 may not:

238 1. Include as a current beneficiary a person that is not a current beneficiary of the first trust, except 239 as otherwise provided in subsection D;

240 2. Include as a presumptive remainder beneficiary or successor beneficiary a person that is not a 241 current beneficiary, presumptive remainder beneficiary, or successor beneficiary of the first trust, except 242 as otherwise provided in subsection D; or

243 3. Reduce or eliminate a vested interest.

244 D. Subject to subdivision C 3 and § 64.2-779.11, in an exercise of the decanting power under this 245 section, a second trust may be a trust created or administered under the law of any jurisdiction and 246 may:

247 1. Retain a power of appointment granted in the first trust;

248 2. Omit a power of appointment granted in the first trust, other than a presently exercisable general
 249 power of appointment;

250 3. Create or modify a power of appointment if the powerholder is a current beneficiary of the first 251 trust and the authorized fiduciary has expanded distributive discretion to distribute principal to the 252 beneficiary; and

253 4. Create or modify a power of appointment if the powerholder is a presumptive remainder 254 beneficiary or successor beneficiary of the first trust, but the exercise of the power may take effect only 255 after the powerholder becomes, or would have become if then living, a current beneficiary.

256 E. A power of appointment described in subdivisions D 1 through 4 may be general or nongeneral.
 257 The class of permissible appointees in favor of which the power may be exercised may be broader than 258 or different from the beneficiaries of the first trust.

259 F. If an authorized fiduciary has expanded distributive discretion over part but not all of the income 260 or principal of a first trust, the fiduciary may exercise the decanting power under this section over that 261 part of the income or principal over which the authorized fiduciary has expanded distributive discretion.

262 § 64.2-779.9. Decanting power under limited distributive discretion.

263 A. As used in this section, "limited distributive discretion" means a discretionary power of 264 distribution that is limited to an ascertainable standard or a reasonably definite standard.

265 B. An authorized fiduciary that has limited distributive discretion over the income or principal of the 266 first trust for benefit of one or more current beneficiaries may exercise the decanting power over the 267 income or principal of the first trust.

268 C. Under this section and subject to § 64.2-779.11, a second trust may be created or administered
 269 under the law of any jurisdiction. Under this section, the second trusts, in the aggregate, must grant
 270 each beneficiary of the first trust beneficial interests that are substantially similar to the beneficial
 271 interests of the beneficiary in the first trust. A second trust that defers or postpones a contingent right of 272 a beneficiary to receive an outright distribution of assets upon the attainment of a certain age or upon 273 the occurrence of a specific event (a "deferred distribution") shall be substantially similar to the first
 274 trust if the second trust provides that (i) during the lifetime of the beneficiary, no portion of the income 275 or principal attributable to the deferred distribution may be distributed to, or for the benefit of, any 276 person other than the beneficiary and (ii) the beneficiary shall have a testamentary general power of 277 appointment exercisable in favor of the beneficiary's estate over the deferred distribution or the deferred 278 distribution shall be payable to the beneficiary's estate if the second trust does not terminate during the 279 beneficiary's lifetime.

280 D. A power to make a distribution under a second trust for the benefit of a beneficiary who is an 281 individual is substantially similar to a power under the first trust to make a distribution directly to the 282 beneficiary. A distribution is for the benefit of a beneficiary if:

283 1. The distribution is applied for the benefit of the beneficiary;

284 2. The beneficiary is under a legal disability or the trustee reasonably believes the beneficiary is 285 incapacitated, and the distribution is made as permitted under this chapter; or

286 3. The distribution is made as permitted under the terms of the first-trust instrument and the 287 second-trust instrument for the benefit of the beneficiary.

288 E. If an authorized fiduciary has limited distributive discretion over part but not all of the income or 289 principal of a first trust, the fiduciary may exercise the decanting power under this section over that 290 part of the income or principal over which the authorized fiduciary has limited distributive discretion.

291 § 64.2-779.10. Trust for beneficiary with disability.

292 A. As used in this section:

293 "Beneficiary with a disability" means a beneficiary of a first trust who the special-needs fiduciary
 294 believes may qualify for governmental benefits based on disability, whether or not the beneficiary
 295 currently receives those benefits or is an individual who has been determined to be an incapacitated 296 person.

297 "Governmental benefits" means financial aid or services from a state, federal, or other public 298 agency.

299 "Special-needs fiduciary" means, with respect to a trust that has a beneficiary with a disability:

300 1. A trustee or other fiduciary, other than a settlor, that has discretion to distribute part or all of the

301 principal of a first trust to one or more current beneficiaries;

302 2. If no trustee or fiduciary has discretion under subdivision 1, a trustee or other fiduciary, other 303 than a settlor, that has discretion to distribute part or all of the income of the first trust to one or more 304 current beneficiaries; or

305 3. If no trustee or fiduciary has discretion under subdivisions 1 and 2, a trustee or other fiduciary,
306 other than a settlor, that is required to distribute part or all of the income or principal of the first trust
307 to one or more current beneficiaries.

308 "Special-needs trust" means a trust the trustee believes would not be considered a resource for 309 purposes of determining whether a beneficiary with a disability is eligible for governmental benefits.

310 B. A special-needs fiduciary may exercise the decanting power under § 64.2-779.8 over the income
311 or principal of a first trust, including a first trust under which the fiduciary has only limited distributive
312 discretion as defined in subsection A of § 64.2-779.9, as if the fiduciary had authority to distribute 313 income or principal to a beneficiary with a disability subject to expanded distributive discretion if:

314 1. A second trust is a special-needs trust that benefits the beneficiary with a disability; and 315 2. The special-needs fiduciary determines that exercise of the decanting power will further the 316 purposes of the first trust.

317 C. In an exercise of the decanting power under this section, the following rules apply:

318 1. Notwithstanding subdivision C 2 of § 64.2-779.8, the interest in the second trust of a beneficiary 319 with a disability may:

320 a. Be a pooled trust as defined by Medicaid law for the benefit of the beneficiary with a disability
321 under 42 U.S.C. § 1396p(d)(4)(C); or

322 b. Contain payback provisions complying with reimbursement requirements of Medicaid law under 42
323 U.S.C. § 1396p(d)(4)(A).

324 2. Subdivision C 3 of § 64.2-779.8 does not apply to the interests of the beneficiary with a disability.

325 3. Except as affected by any change to the interests of the beneficiary with a disability, the second
326 trust, or if there are two or more second trusts, the second trusts in the aggregate, must grant each 327 other beneficiary of the first trust beneficial interests in the second trusts that are substantially similar 328 to the beneficiary's beneficial interests in the first trust.

329 § 64.2-779.11. Protection of charitable interest.

330 A. As used in this section:

331 "Determinable charitable interest" means a charitable interest that is a right to a mandatory
332 distribution currently, periodically, on the occurrence of a specified event, or after the passage of a
333 specified time and that is unconditional or will be held solely for charitable purposes.

334 "Unconditional" means not subject to the occurrence of a specified event that is not certain to occur,
335 other than a requirement in a trust instrument that a charitable organization be in existence or qualify
336 under a particular provision of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986 on the date of the 337 distribution, if the charitable organization meets the requirement on the date of determination.

338 B. If a first trust contains a determinable charitable interest, the Attorney General has the rights of a 339 qualified beneficiary and may represent and bind the charitable interest.

340 C. If a first trust contains a charitable interest, the second trust or trusts may not:

341 1. Diminish the charitable interest;

342 2. Diminish the interest of an identified charitable organization that holds the charitable interest;

343 3. Alter any charitable purpose stated in the first-trust instrument; or 344 4. Alter any condition or restriction related to the charitable interest.

345 D. If there are two or more second trusts, the second trusts shall be treated as one trust for 346 purposes of determining whether the exercise of the decanting power diminishes the charitable interest
347 or diminishes the interest of an identified charitable organization for purposes of subsection C.

348 E. If a first trust contains a determinable charitable interest, the second trust or trusts that include a
349 charitable interest pursuant to subsection C must be administered under the law of the Commonwealth 350 unless:

351 1. The Attorney General, after receiving notice under § 64.2-779.5, fails to object in a signed record
352 delivered to the authorized fiduciary within the notice period;

353 2. The Attorney General consents in a signed record to the second trust or trusts being administered 354 under the law of another jurisdiction; or

355 3. The court approves the exercise of the decanting power.

356 F. This article does not limit the powers and duties of the Attorney General under law of the 357 Commonwealth other than this article.

358 § 64.2-779.12. Trust limitation on decanting.

359 A. An authorized fiduciary may not exercise the decanting power to the extent the first-trust 360 instrument expressly prohibits exercise of:

361 1. The decanting power; or

362 2. A power granted by state law to the fiduciary to distribute part or all of the income or principal 363 of the trust to another trust or to modify the trust.

364 B. Exercise of the decanting power is subject to any restriction in the first-trust instrument that 365 expressly applies to exercise of:

366 1. The decanting power; or

367 2. A power granted by state law to a fiduciary to distribute part or all of the income or principal of 368 the trust to another trust or to modify the trust.

369 C. A general prohibition of the amendment or revocation of a first trust, a spendthrift clause, or a 370 clause restraining the voluntary or involuntary transfer of a beneficiary's interest does not preclude 371 exercise of the decanting power.

372 D. Subject to subsections A and B, an authorized fiduciary may exercise the decanting power under 373 this article even if the first-trust instrument permits the authorized fiduciary or another person to modify 374 the first-trust instrument or to distribute part or all of the income or principal of the first trust to 375 another trust.

376 E. If a first-trust instrument contains an express prohibition described in subsection A or an express
377 restriction described in subsection B, the provision must be included in the second-trust instrument.

378 § 64.2-779.13. Change in compensation.

379 A. If a first-trust instrument specifies an authorized fiduciary's compensation, the fiduciary may not 380 exercise the decanting power to increase the fiduciary's compensation above the specified compensation 381 unless:

382 1. All qualified beneficiaries of the second trust consent to the increase in a signed record; or

383 2. The increase is approved by the court.

384 B. If a first-trust instrument does not specify an authorized fiduciary's compensation, the fiduciary
385 may not exercise the decanting power to increase the fiduciary's compensation above the compensation 386 permitted by this chapter unless:

387 1. All qualified beneficiaries of the second trust consent to the increase in a signed record; or

388 2. The increase is approved by the court.

389 C. A change in an authorized fiduciary's compensation that is incidental to other changes made by 390 the exercise of the decanting power is not an increase in the fiduciary's compensation for purposes of 391 subsections A and B.

392 § 64.2-779.14. Relief from liability and indemnification.

393 A. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a second-trust instrument may not relieve an 394 authorized fiduciary from liability for breach of trust to a greater extent than the first-trust instrument.

395 B. A second-trust instrument may provide for indemnification of an authorized fiduciary of the first 396 trust or another person acting in a fiduciary capacity under the first trust for any liability or claim that 397 would have been payable from the first trust if the decanting power had not been exercised.

398 C. A second-trust instrument may not reduce fiduciary liability in the aggregate.

399 D. Subject to subsection C, a second-trust instrument may divide and reallocate fiduciary powers
400 among fiduciaries, including one or more trustees, distribution advisors, investment advisors, trust
401 protectors, or other persons, and relieve a fiduciary from liability for an act or failure to act of another 402 fiduciary as permitted by law of the Commonwealth other than this article.

403 § 64.2-779.15. Removal or replacement of authorized fiduciary.

404 An authorized fiduciary may not exercise the decanting power to modify a provision in a first-trust 405 instrument granting another person power to remove or replace the fiduciary unless:

406 1. The person holding the power consents to the modification in a signed record and the 407 modification applies only to the person;

408 2. The person holding the power and the qualified beneficiaries of the second trust consent to the 409 modification in a signed record and the modification grants a substantially similar power to another
410 person; or

411 3. The court approves the modification and the modification grants a substantially similar power to 412 another person.

413 § 64.2-779.16. Tax-related provisions.

414 A. As used in this section:

415 "Grantor trust" means a trust as to which a settlor of a first trust is considered the owner under 416 §§ 671 through 677 of the Internal Revenue Code or § 679 of the Internal Revenue Code.

417 "Internal Revenue Code" means the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

418 "Nongrantor trust" means a trust that is not a grantor trust.

419 "Qualified benefits property" means property subject to the minimum distribution requirements of 420 § 401(a)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code and any applicable regulations, or to any similar requirements
421 that refer to § 401(a)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code or the regulations.

422 B. An exercise of the decanting power is subject to the following limitations:

423 1. If a first trust contains property that qualified, or would have qualified but for provisions of this 424 article other than this section, for a marital deduction for purposes of the gift or estate tax under the 425 Internal Revenue Code or a state gift, estate, or inheritance tax, the second-trust instrument must not 426 include or omit any term that, if included in or omitted from the trust instrument for the trust to which 427 the property was transferred, would have prevented the transfer from qualifying for the deduction, or 428 would have reduced the amount of the deduction, under the same provisions of the Internal Revenue
429 Code or state law under which the transfer qualified.

430 2. If the first trust contains property that qualified, or would have qualified but for provisions of this 431 article other than this section, for a charitable deduction for purposes of the income, gift, or estate tax
432 under the Internal Revenue Code or a state income, gift, estate, or inheritance tax, the second-trust
433 instrument must not include or omit any term that, if included in or omitted from the trust instrument
434 for the trust to which the property was transferred, would have prevented the transfer from qualifying 435 for the deduction, or would have reduced the amount of the deduction, under the same provisions of the 436 Internal Revenue Code or state law under which the transfer qualified.

437 3. If the first trust contains property that qualified, or would have qualified but for provisions of this 438 article other than this section, for the exclusion from the gift tax described in § 2503(b) of the Internal 439 Revenue Code, the second-trust instrument must not include or omit a term that, if included in or 440 omitted from the trust instrument for the trust to which the property was transferred, would have 441 prevented the transfer from qualifying under § 2503(b) of the Internal Revenue Code. If the first trust
442 contains property that qualified, or would have qualified but for provisions of this article other than this 443 section, for the exclusion from the gift tax described in § 2503(b) of the Internal Revenue Code by 444 application of § 2503(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, the second-trust instrument must not include or 445 omit a term that, if included or omitted from the trust instrument for the trust to which the property was 446 transferred, would have prevented the transfer from qualifying under § 2503(c) of the Internal Revenue
447 Code.

448 4. If the property of the first trust includes shares of stock in an S corporation, as defined in § 1361
449 of the Internal Revenue Code, and the first trust is, or but for provisions of this article other than this 450 section would be, a permitted shareholder under any provision of § 1361 of the Internal Revenue Code,
451 an authorized fiduciary may exercise the power with respect to part or all of the S-corporation stock
452 only if any second trust receiving the stock is a permitted shareholder under § 1361(c)(2) of the Internal 453 Revenue Code. If the property of the first trust includes shares of stock in an S corporation and the first
454 trust is, or but for provisions of this article other than this section would be, a qualified subchapter-S
455 trust within the meaning of § 1361(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, the second-trust instrument must 456 not include or omit a term that prevents the second trust from qualifying as a qualified subchapter-S 457 trust.

458 5. If the first trust contains property that qualified, or would have qualified but for provisions of this 459 article other than this section, for a zero inclusion ratio for purposes of the generation-skipping transfer
460 tax under § 2642(c) of the Internal Revenue Code the second-trust instrument must not include or omit a 461 term that, if included in or omitted from the first-trust instrument, would have prevented the transfer to 462 the first trust from qualifying for a zero inclusion ratio under § 2642(c) of the Internal Revenue Code.

463 6. If the first trust is directly or indirectly the beneficiary of qualified benefits property, the 464 second-trust instrument may not include or omit any term that, if included in or omitted from the 465 first-trust instrument, would have increased the minimum distributions required with respect to the 466 qualified benefits property under § 401(a)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code and any applicable
467 regulations, or any similar requirements that refer to § 401(a)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code or the 468 regulations. If an attempted exercise of the decanting power violates the preceding sentence, the trustee 469 is deemed to have held the qualified benefits property and any reinvested distributions of the property as 470 a separate share from the date of the exercise of the power, and § 64.2-779.19 applies to the separate 471 share.

472 7. If the first trust qualifies as a grantor trust because of the application of § 672(f)(2)(A) of the 473 Internal Revenue Code, the second trust may not include or omit a term that, if included in or omitted
474 from the first-trust instrument, would have prevented the first trust from qualifying under § 672(f)(2)(A)
475 of the Internal Revenue Code.

476 8. In this paragraph, "tax benefit" means a federal or state tax deduction, exemption, exclusion, or 477 other benefit not otherwise listed in this section, except for a benefit arising from being a grantor trust.
478 Subject to subdivision 9, a second-trust instrument may not include or omit a term that, if included in or 479 omitted from the first-trust instrument, would have prevented qualification for a tax benefit if:

480 a. The first-trust instrument expressly indicates an intent to qualify for the benefit or the first-trust 481 instrument clearly is designed to enable the first trust to qualify for the benefit; and

482 b. The transfer of property held by the first trust or the first trust qualified, or would have qualified 483 but for provisions of this article other than this section, would have qualified for the tax benefit.

484 9. Subject to subdivision 4:

485 a. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 7, the second trust may be a nongrantor trust, even if 486 the first trust is a grantor trust; and

487 b. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 10, the second trust may be a grantor trust, even if 488 the first trust is a nongrantor trust.

489 10. An authorized fiduciary may not exercise the decanting power if a settlor objects in a signed 490 record delivered to the fiduciary within the notice period and:

491 a. The first trust and a second trust are both grantor trusts, in whole or in part, the first-trust
492 instrument grants the settlor or another person the power to cause the first trust to cease to be a 493 grantor trust, and the second-trust instrument does not grant an equivalent power to the settlor or other 494 person; or

495 b. The first trust is a nongrantor trust and a second trust is a grantor trust, in whole or in part, with 496 respect to the settlor, unless:

497 (1) The settlor has the power at all times to cause the second trust to cease to be a grantor trust; or

498 (2) The first-trust instrument contains a provision granting the settlor or another person a power that 499 would cause the first trust to cease to be a grantor trust and the second-trust instrument contains the 500 same provision.

501 C. If an authorized fiduciary that has limited distributive discretion over the income or principal of a
502 first trust reasonably determines that the overall income, estate, gift, and generation-skipping tax 503 consequences of the first trust may be reduced by either (i) granting a general power of appointment to 504 a beneficiary of the first trust or (ii) eliminating a general power of appointment granted to a 505 beneficiary of the first trust, the fiduciary may exercise the decanting power over all or any portion of 506 the principal of the trust to grant or eliminate such a general power of appointment and shall, in 507 addition, have the powers found in subsection D of § 64.2-779.8 as if the fiduciary had expanded
508 distributive discretion, subject to the following provisions:

509 1. In the case of the grant of a general power of appointment, the class of permissible appointees 510 contained in the second trust shall be limited to the creditors of the powerholder or the creditors of the 511 powerholder's estate.

512 2. In the case of the elimination of a general power of appointment, the class of permissible 513 appointees in the second trust shall exclude the powerholder, the powerholder's creditors, the 514 powerholder's estate, and the creditors of the powerholder's estate, but shall otherwise be identical to 515 the class of appointees permitted in the first trust.

516 § 64.2-779.17. Duration of second trust.

517 A. Subject to subsection B, a second trust may have a duration that is the same as or different from 518 the duration of the first trust.

519 B. To the extent that property of a second trust is attributable to property of the first trust, the 520 property of the second trust is subject to any rules governing maximum perpetuity, accumulation, or 521 suspension of the power of alienation that apply to property of the first trust.

522 § 64.2-779.18. Need to distribute not required.

523 An authorized fiduciary may exercise the decanting power whether or not under the first trust's 524 discretionary distribution standard the fiduciary would have made or could have been compelled to 525 make a discretionary distribution of income or principal at the time of the exercise.

526 § 64.2-779.19. Savings provision.

527 A. If exercise of the decanting power would be effective under this article except that the 528 second-trust instrument in part does not comply with this article, the exercise of the power is effective 529 and the following rules apply with respect to the income or principal of the second trust attributable to 530 the exercise of the power:

531 1. A provision in the second-trust instrument which is not permitted under this article is void to the 532 extent necessary to comply with this article.

533 2. A provision required by this article to be in the second-trust instrument which is not contained in 534 the instrument is deemed to be included in the instrument to the extent necessary to comply with this 535 article.

536 B. If a trustee or other fiduciary of a second trust determines that subsection A applies to a prior 537 exercise of the decanting power, the fiduciary shall take corrective action consistent with the fiduciary's 538 duties.

539 § 64.2-779.20. Trust for care of animal.

540 A. As used in this section:

541 "Animal trust" means a trust or an interest in a trust created to provide for the care of one or more 542 animals.

543 "Protector" means a person appointed in an animal trust to enforce the trust on behalf of the animal 544 or, if no such person is appointed in the trust, a person appointed by the court for that purpose.

545 B. The decanting power may be exercised over an animal trust that has a protector to the extent that 546 the trust could be decanted under this article if each animal that benefits from the trust were an 547 individual, if the protector consents in a signed record to the exercise of the power.

548 C. A protector for an animal has the rights under this article of a qualified beneficiary.

549 D. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, if a first trust is an animal trust, in an 550 exercise of the decanting power, the second trust must provide that trust property may be applied only 551 to its intended purpose for the period the first trust benefited the animal.

552 § 64.2-779.21. Terms of second trust.

553 A reference in this chapter to a trust instrument or terms of the trust includes a second-trust 554 instrument and the terms of the second trust.

555 § 64.2-779.22. Settlor.

556 A. For purposes of law of the Commonwealth other than this article and subject to subsection B, a 557 settlor of a first trust is deemed to be the settlor of the second trust with respect to the portion of the 558 income or principal of the first trust subject to the exercise of the decanting power.

559 B. In determining settlor intent with respect to a second trust, the intent of a settlor of the first trust, 560 a settlor of the second trust, and the authorized fiduciary may be considered.

561 § 64.2-779.23. Later-discovered property.

562 A. Except as otherwise provided in subsection C, if exercise of the decanting power was intended to 563 distribute all the income or principal of the first trust to one or more second trusts, later-discovered
564 property belonging to the first trust and property paid to or acquired by the first trust after the exercise
565 of the power is part of the trust estate of the second trust or trusts.

566 B. Except as otherwise provided in subsection C, if exercise of the decanting power was intended to 567 distribute less than all the income or principal of the first trust to one or more second trusts,
568 later-discovered property belonging to the first trust or property paid to or acquired by the first trust
569 after exercise of the power remains part of the trust estate of the first trust.

570 C. An authorized fiduciary may provide in an exercise of the decanting power or by the terms of a 571 second trust for disposition of later-discovered property belonging to the first trust or property paid to 572 or acquired by the first trust after exercise of the power.

573 § 64.2-779.24. Obligations.

574 A debt, liability, or other obligation enforceable against property of a first trust is enforceable to the 575 same extent against the property when held by the second trust after exercise of the decanting power.

576 § 64.2-779.25. Accountings.

577 If accounts for the first trust are filed with the commissioner of accounts, the accounts for the second
578 trust shall be filed with the commissioner of accounts unless the court orders otherwise.

579 2. That § 64.2-778.1 of the Code of Virginia is repealed.
