SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 323

Offered January 19, 2017

3 Commending Pierce's Pitt Bar-B-Que. 4

Patrons-Norment, Cosgrove and Mason; Delegate: Pogge

5 6 WHEREAS, Pierce's Pitt Bar-B-Que near Williamsburg is a nationally known Virginia institution 7 that, in 2016, celebrated 45 years of serving award-winning, pit-smoked barbecue to loyal patrons; and WHEREAS, Pierce's Pitt Bar-B-Que grew from small and humble beginnings as a walk-up structure 8

9 in a horse pasture to become a thriving enterprise beloved by local residents, employees, and barbecue 10

aficionados, who flock to the bright yellow and orange landmark from miles away; and WHEREAS, Julius Conditt "Doc" Pierce, Sr., his wife, Verdie, and their son, Julius Conditt "Jay" Pierce, Jr., opened Pierce's Pitt Bar-B-Que on October 15, 1971, after borrowing $2,500 from a local 11 12 13 bank to fund their restaurant venture; and

14 WHEREAS, Doc Pierce served as the first pit master and would smoke Boston butts for eight hours 15 or more on a small barbecue pit he constructed beside his house, before slathering on the restaurant's legendary sauce, his mother's secret family recipe; and 16

WHEREAS, Pierce's Pitt Bar-B-Que now cooks over 400,000 pounds of meat a year, sells its famous 17 sauce commercially, and routinely wins highly sought-after recognition as one of the best barbecue 18 19 restaurants in the nation; and

20 WHEREAS, Pierce's Pitt Bar-B-Que has been successful by offering consistent quality and 21 reasonable prices, using fresh ingredients to make menu items from scratch, and by employing a loyal 22 staff, including multiple generations of the same family; and

WHEREAS, Pierce's Pitt Bar-B-Que's success could not have been possible without the unwavering 23 24 support of the Williamsburg community over the past 45 years, making it one of the busiest barbecue 25 restaurants in all of Virginia, if not the eastern seaboard; and

WHEREAS, Doc Pierce died in 1991, Verdie Pierce died in 2004, and Jay Pierce carries on his 26 27 family's tradition today, making Pierce's Pitt Bar-B-Que a testament to the power of a strong 28 family-owned business; now, therefore, be it

29 RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby 30 commend Pierce's Pitt Bar-B-Que on celebrating 45 years of business serving loyal patrons from all over 31 the Commonwealth and the country; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for 32 33 presentation to Julius Conditt Pierce, Jr., for carrying on his family's pit-smoked barbecue tradition and 34 for making Virginia a better place to visit.
