2. Patron: Peace

3. Committee: General Laws and Technology

4. Title: Administrative Process Act; economic impact analysis; opportunity for comment by affected business.

5. Summary: Requires the Department of Planning and Budget to revise and reissue its economic impact analysis within the time limits set forth for the Department's review of regulations at the final stage pursuant to the Governor's executive order for executive branch review if one of the following conditions is present and would materially change the Department's analysis: (i) public comment timely received at the proposed stage indicates significant errors in the economic impact analysis or (ii) there is a significant or material difference between the agency's proposed economic impact analysis and the anticipated negative economic impact to the business community as indicated by public comment. The bill provides that the determination as to whether either such condition is present shall be made by the Department and shall not be subject to judicial review. The bill contains an emergency clause.

6. Budget Amendment Necessary: No.

7. Fiscal Impact Estimates: Indeterminate – see Item 8.

8. Fiscal Implications: The fiscal impact of the proposed legislation is indeterminate at this time; however, the Department of Planning and Budget may require additional staff time to review and revise economic impact analysis that meet one of the conditions listed in the proposed legislation and to monitor the additional comments posted on the Town Hall website.

9. Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Department of Planning and Budget

10. Technical Amendment Necessary: No.

11. Other Comments: This bill is a companion to the substitute of Senate Bill 1431 (Reeves) and similar to the substitute of House Bill 1944 (Peace).
