6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

7 1. That § 22.1-207.1:1 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 22.1-207.1:1. Family life education; certain curricula and Standards of Learning.

9 A. Any family life education curriculum offered by a local school division shall require the 10 Standards of Learning objectives related to dating violence and the characteristics of abusive
11 relationships to be taught at least once in middle school and at least twice in high school, as described 12 in the Board of Education's family life education guidelines.

13 B. Any high school family life education curriculum offered by a local school division shall 14 incorporate age-appropriate elements of effective and evidence-based programs on the prevention of 15 dating violence, domestic abuse, sexual harassment, and sexual violence and may incorporate 16 age-appropriate elements of effective and evidence-based programs on the law and meaning of consent.
17 Such age-appropriate elements of effective and evidence-based programs on the prevention of sexual
18 violence may include instruction that increases student awareness of the fact that consent is required
19 before sexual activity.

20 C. Any family life education curriculum offered in any elementary school, middle school, or high 21 school shall incorporate age-appropriate elements of effective and evidence-based programs on the 22 importance of the personal privacy and personal boundaries of other individuals and tools for a student
23 to use to ensure that he respects the personal privacy and personal boundaries of other individuals.
