HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 134

Celebrating the life of Edwin C. Luther III.

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, March 7, 2018

WHEREAS, Edwin C. Luther III, a respected member of the Richmond community who promoted responsible economic growth in the Commonwealth as a longtime member of the Virginia Chamber of Commerce, died on February 7, 2018; and

WHEREAS, Edwin "Win" C. Luther III was born in Vivian, West Virginia, to the late Roland and Sarah Luther; and

WHEREAS, Win Luther was a graduate of Virginia Episcopal School and The College of William and Mary, and he served his country as a first lieutenant in the United States Army during the Vietnam War; and

WHEREAS, after his honorable military service, Win Luther relocated to Richmond to pursue a career in business; he served as a member of the Virginia Chamber of Commerce for many years, including as chief executive officer from 1981 to 1992; and

WHEREAS, Win Luther enjoyed fellowship and worship with the Richmond community as an active member of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church; and

WHEREAS, Win Luther will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by his wife, Roslyn; his children, Neil, Edie, and Mary Katheryn; and many other family members, friends, and members of the Richmond community; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the House of Delegates hereby note with great sadness the loss of Edwin C. Luther III, who made many contributions to the Commonwealth; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of Edwin C. Luther III as an expression of the House of Delegates' respect for his memory.
