HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 33

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, January 26, 2018

WHEREAS, Judith Lynn Colbert Casey, a vibrant member of the Williamsburg community and a beloved wife, mother, and friend, died on July 21, 2017; and

WHEREAS, a native of Newport News, Judith "Judy" Lynn Colbert Casey graduated from Homer L. Ferguson High School, where she was a model student and a talented gymnast; and

WHEREAS, Judy Casey married the love of her life, Art, and the couple were generous leaders in the community, giving freely of their time and never hesitating to offer a hand to a friend or neighbor in need; and

WHEREAS, Judy Casey's greatest joy in her life was her family; she relished the opportunity to watch her children start families of their own and inspired them to be good parents with her own example as a loving mother; and

WHEREAS, with an unparalleled zest for life, Judy Casey brought happiness to everyone she met through her vivacious personality, deep faith, and unfailing grace; and

WHEREAS, Judy Casey will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by her husband, Art; children, Shawn, Cadell, Tracy, and Stacy, and their families; and numerous other family members and friends; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the House of Delegates hereby note with great sadness the loss of Judith Lynn Colbert Casey, a beloved member of the Williamsburg community; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of Judith Lynn Colbert Casey as an expression of the House of Delegates' respect for her memory.
