§ 62. Division of fire.

The fire force shall be composed of a chief and of such other officers, firemen and employees as the city manager may determine. The fire chief shall have immediate direction and control of the said force, subject, however, to the supervision of the director of public safety, and to such rules and regulations and orders as the said director may prescribe, and through the fire chief the director of public safety shall promulgate all orders, rules and regulations for the government of the whole force.

The members of the fire force other than the chief shall be appointed from the list of eligibles prepared by the civil service commission and in accordance with such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the said commission; provided, however, that in case of riot, conflagration or emergency, the director of public safety may appoint additional firemen and officers for temporary service who need not be in the classified service.

The chief of the fire department and his assistants are authorized to exercise the powers of police officers while going to, attending or returning from any fire or alarm of fire. The fire chief and each of his assistants shall have issued to him a warrant of appointment signed by the director of public safety, in which the date of his appointment shall be stated, and such warrant shall be his commission. The director of public safety shall prescribe the uniform and badges for the members of the fire force.

Whenever any building in said city shall be on fire it shall be lawful for the chief of the fire department to order and direct such building or any other building which he may deem hazardous and likely to communicate fire to other buildings, or any part of such buildings, to be pulled down or destroyed; and no action shall be maintained against said chief or any person acting under his authority

57 or against the city therefor. But any person interested in the property so destroyed may within one year
58 thereafter apply in writing to the council to assess and pay the damages he has sustained. The council
59 may thereupon pay to the claimant such sum as may be agreed upon between him and the council. If no
60 agreement be effected, such claimant may give to the city attorney of said city ten days' written notice
61 of his intention to apply to the corporation court of said city for the appointment of commissioners to 62 ascertain and assess his said damage. Upon its appearing that such notice has been given, the 63 corporation court of said city shall appoint five disinterested freeholders, residents of said city, any three 64 or more of whom may act, for the purpose of ascertaining and assessing the amount of such damages.
65 Thereupon the said commissioners shall proceed to ascertain and assess the amount of such damages in 66 the same manner as is now or may hereafter be provided by law in the case of taking private property
67 for public use, and the procedure upon the filing of the report of said commissioners shall conform as 68 nearly as may be to the procedure under the statutes of Virginia relating to eminent domain.
