

2018 SESSION

ENROLLED

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 18

Celebrating the life of Nathan Watts.

Agreed to by the Senate, January 11, 2018
Agreed to by the House of Delegates, January 19, 2018

WHEREAS, Nathan Watts, a hardworking marketing professional, devoted youth athletics coach, and respected member of the Hampton community, died on June 28, 2017; and

WHEREAS, born in Hampton, Nathan Watts attended Hampton High School, where he played basketball and baseball; and

WHEREAS, known for his charismatic personality and infectious smile, Nathan Watts enjoyed a successful career in advertising and marketing, including a long tenure with Clear Channel Radio Group in Norfolk; and

WHEREAS, in 2004, Nathan Watts launched N-Sight Marketing and Management, a Hampton-based marketing, media placement, and promotional services company; and

WHEREAS, as chief executive officer of N-Sight Marketing and Management, Nathan Watts worked closely with Southeast Virginia radio stations and was also involved in promoting local events such as the Hampton Bay Days festival; and

WHEREAS, a passionate sports fan, Nathan Watts gave generously of his time as a mentor and coach, working variously with the Boo Williams basketball program, the Hampton Wythe Little League, Hampton Parks and Recreation, and the Aberdeen Athletic Association; and

WHEREAS, Nathan Watts was happiest in lively conversation with friends, meeting new people, or watching his favorite football team, the Pittsburgh Steelers; and

WHEREAS, Nathan Watts will be dearly missed and fondly remembered by his wife of 28 years, Tracye; his children, Taylor and Nathan II; his mother, Ellen; and countless other family, friends, and members of the Hampton community; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby note with great sadness the loss of Nathan Watts, a valued member of the Hampton community; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of Nathan Watts as an expression of the General Assembly's respect for his memory.

ENROLLED

SJ18ER