

2018 SESSION

ENROLLED

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 193

Commending George D. Greenia.

Agreed to by the Senate, March 6, 2018
Agreed to by the House of Delegates, March 7, 2018

WHEREAS, George D. Greenia, a renowned scholar and professor at The College of William and Mary, retired in 2016 following a distinguished 34-year career; and

WHEREAS, a native of Detroit, George Greenia studied at a Franciscan seminary in Wisconsin as a young man, but left after five years to pursue a career as a professor; after graduating from Marquette University, he earned his doctoral degree from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor; and

WHEREAS, in 1982, George Greenia joined the faculty of The College of William and Mary as a professor of languages and literature; he later spent 10 years as director of the school's Medieval and Renaissance Studies program, and in 2011, he founded its Institute for Pilgrimage Studies; and

WHEREAS, a talented and dedicated scholar, George Greenia has written numerous books and articles on the literature and cultural history of medieval Spain; he served as an editor of the medieval language journal La corónica, editor-in-chief of American Pilgrim magazine, and associate editor of the journal Hispania; and

WHEREAS, a teacher first and foremost, George Greenia was devoted to crafting informative and thought-provoking courses and research opportunities for his students; during the summer, he often led field excursions to the Camino de Santiago, a famed pilgrimage route in Spain; and

WHEREAS, a tireless advocate of LGBT students at The College of William and Mary, George Greenia spent many years as the faculty facilitator of the Gay Student Support Group; in 2006, the William and Mary Gay and Lesbian Alumni/ae Association presented him with the Founders' Cup for Outstanding Lifetime Service to the Gay and Lesbian members of The College of William and Mary Community; and

WHEREAS, in 2007, George Greenia's promotion of Spanish history and culture saw him knighted by order of King Carlos I of Spain and awarded the Order of Isabella the Catholic, one of Spain's highest honors; and

WHEREAS, George Greenia's many other recognitions include a lifetime achievement award from the group American Pilgrims on the Camino and the William & Mary Diversity Leadership Award from the Office of Diversity and Equal Opportunity; a longtime supporter of the Phi Beta Kappa Society, he is the recipient of its President's Award and Judith F. Krug Medal; and

WHEREAS, since his retirement, George Greenia has continued to pursue knowledge by working on research projects and teaching and taking classes at the Christopher Wren Association for Lifelong Learning; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend George D. Greenia on his illustrious career as a professor at The College of William and Mary and his excellent service to his students; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to George D. Greenia as an expression of the General Assembly's admiration for his career accomplishments and best wishes for a well-deserved retirement.

ENROLLED

SJ193ER