11. Other comments: Senate Bill 672 would change the Code of Virginia so that the definition in § 38.2-3406 of the Code of Virginia is consistent with the definition of "small employer" in § 38.2-3431 of the Code of Virginia. This change will ensure that the owner of the business counts as "one employee" for purposes of the small group health insurance market. The definition proposed in Senate Bill 672 may conflict with the federal Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.
