6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 8.01-341.2 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:8 § 8.01-341.2. Deferral or limitation of jury service for particular occupational inconvenience or 9 for persons who have legal custody and are responsible for a child.

10 The court, at the request of a person selected for jury service or on its own motion, may exempt any 11 person from jury service for a particular term of court, or limit that person's service to particular dates
12 of that term, if serving on a jury during that term or certain dates of that term of court would cause
13 such person a particular occupational inconvenience. Any such person who is selected for jury service, 14 and who is exempted under the provisions of this section, shall not be discharged from his obligation to 15 serve on a jury, but such obligation shall only be deferred until the term of court next after such 16 particular occupational inconvenience ~~shall end~~ ends. For purposes of this section, "occupational 17 inconvenience" includes inconvenience to a person (i) who, during the term of court for which such 18 person is selected for jury service, is enrolled as a full-time student at an accredited public or private 19 institution of higher education and who is attending classes at such institution during such term and (ii)
20 who has legal custody of and is necessarily and personally responsible for a child or children 16 years
21 of age or younger requiring continuous care by him during normal court hours. The provisions of this 22 section shall not interfere with the exemption available under subdivision 8 of § 8.01-341.1.
