205 policyholder or certificate holder or sending fulfillment materials by postal mail or electronic means to

208 trade practice penalties contained in Chapter 5 (§ 38.2-500 et seq.), except as otherwise provided in 209 this section. In the event of a conflict between this article and other provisions of this title regarding the 210 sale and marketing of travel insurance and travel protection plans, the provisions of this article shall 211 control.

212 C. Offering or selling a travel insurance policy that could never result in payment of any claims for 213 any insured under the policy is an unfair trade practice pursuant to Chapter 5 (§ 38.2-500 et seq.).

214 D. All documents provided to consumers prior to the purchase of travel insurance, including sales
215 materials, advertising materials, and marketing materials, shall be consistent with the travel insurance

218 information and an opportunity to learn more about the pre-existing condition exclusions shall be

229 travel insurance is primary or secondary to other applicable coverage.

230 F. Where travel insurance is marketed directly to a consumer through an insurer's website or by 231 others through an aggregator site, it shall not be an unfair trade practice or other violation of law
232 where an accurate summary or short description of coverage is provided on the web page, so long as 233 the consumer has access to the full provisions of the policy through electronic means.

234 G. No person offering, soliciting, or negotiating travel insurance or travel protection plans on an 235 individual or group basis may do so by using negative option or opt out that would require a consumer
236 to take an affirmative action to deselect coverage, such as unchecking a box on an electronic form when 237 the consumer purchases a trip.

238 H. It shall be an unfair trade practice to market blanket travel insurance coverage as free.

239 I. Where a consumer's destination jurisdiction requires insurance coverage, it shall not be an unfair 240 trade practice to require that a consumer choose between the following options as a condition of 241 purchasing a trip or travel package:

242 1. Purchasing the coverage required by the destination jurisdiction through the travel retailer or 243 limited lines travel insurance agent supplying the trip or travel package; or § 38.2-1888.4. Classification of travel insurance.

A. Notwithstanding any other provision of this title, travel insurance shall be classified and filed for purposes of rates and forms under an inland marine line of insurance; however, travel insurance that provides coverage for sickness, accident, disability, or death occurring during travel, either exclusively or in conjunction with related coverages of emergency evacuation, repatriation of remains, or incidental limited property and casualty benefits such as baggage or trip cancellation, may be filed by an authorized insurer under either an accident and health line of insurance or an inland marine line of insurance.

B. Travel insurance may be in the form of an individual, group, or blanket policy.

C. Eligibility and underwriting standards for travel insurance may be developed and provided based on travel protection plans designed for individual or identified marketing or distribution channels, provided those standards also meet the underwriting standards for inland marine lines of insurance.

C. A travel insurer shall (i) document the state of residence or principal place of business of the primary policyholder or primary certificate holder and (ii) report as premium only the amount allocable to travel insurance and not any amounts received for travel assistance services or cancellation fee waivers.
