HOUSE BILL NO. 2448

Offered January 9, 2019

Prefiled January 9, 2019

A BILL to amend and reenact § 19.2-120 of the Code of Virginia, relating to admission to bail; expiration and extension of recognizance; notice to bail bondsman and surety company.

 Patron—Wilt

 Referred to Committee for Courts of Justice

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:1. That § 19.2-120 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:*§ 19.2-120. Admission to bail.

Prior to conducting any hearing on the issue of bail, release or detention, the judicial officer shall, to the extent feasible, obtain the person's criminal history.

A. A person who is held in custody pending trial or hearing for an offense, civil or criminal contempt, or otherwise shall be admitted to bail by a judicial officer, unless there is probable cause to believe that:

1. He will not appear for trial or hearing or at such other time and place as may be directed, or

2. His liberty will constitute an unreasonable danger to himself or the public.

B. The judicial officer shall presume, subject to rebuttal, that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the person or the safety of the public if the person is currently charged with:

1. An act of violence as defined in § 19.2-297.1;

2. An offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death;

3. A violation of § 18.2-248, 18.2-248.01, 18.2-255, or 18.2-255.2 involving a Schedule I or II controlled substance if (i) the maximum term of imprisonment is 10 years or more and the person was previously convicted of a like offense or (ii) the person was previously convicted as a "drug kingpin" as defined in § 18.2-248;

4. A violation of § 18.2-308.1, 18.2-308.2, or 18.2-308.4 and which relates to a firearm and provides for a mandatory minimum sentence;

5. Any felony, if the person has been convicted of two or more offenses described in subdivision 1 or 2, whether under the laws of the Commonwealth or substantially similar laws of the United States;

6. Any felony committed while the person is on release pending trial for a prior felony under federal or state law or on release pending imposition or execution of sentence or appeal of sentence or conviction;

7. An offense listed in subsection B of § 18.2-67.5:2 and the person had previously been convicted of an offense listed in § 18.2-67.5:2 or a substantially similar offense under the laws of any state or the United States and the judicial officer finds probable cause to believe that the person who is currently charged with one of these offenses committed the offense charged;

8. A violation of § 18.2-374.1 or 18.2-374.3 where the offender has reason to believe that the solicited person is under 15 years of age and the offender is at least five years older than the solicited person;

9. A violation of § 18.2-46.2, 18.2-46.3, 18.2-46.5, or 18.2-46.7;

10. A violation of § 18.2-36.1, 18.2-51.4, 18.2-266, or 46.2-341.24 and the person has, within the past five years of the instant offense, been convicted three times on different dates of a violation of any combination of these Code sections, or any ordinance of any county, city, or town or the laws of any other state or of the United States substantially similar thereto, and has been at liberty between each conviction;

11. A second or subsequent violation of § 16.1-253.2 or 18.2-60.4 or a substantially similar offense under the laws of any state or the United States;

12. A violation of subsection B of § 18.2-57.2;

13. A violation of subsection C of § 18.2-460 charging the use of threats of bodily harm or force to knowingly attempt to intimidate or impede a witness;

14. A violation of § 18.2-51.6 if the alleged victim is a family or household member as defined in § 16.1-228; or

15. A violation of § 18.2-355, 18.2-356, 18.2-357, or 18.2-357.1.

C. The judicial officer shall presume, subject to rebuttal, that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the person or the safety of the public if the person is 59 being arrested pursuant to § 19.2-81.6.

60 D. A judicial officer who is a magistrate, clerk, or deputy clerk of a district court or circuit court
61 may not admit to bail, that is not set by a judge, any person who is charged with an offense giving rise
62 to a rebuttable presumption against bail as set out in subsection B or C without the concurrence of an
63 attorney for the Commonwealth. For a person who is charged with an offense giving rise to a rebuttable
64 presumption against bail, any judge may set or admit such person to bail in accordance with this section
65 after notice and an opportunity to be heard has been provided to the attorney for the Commonwealth.

66 E. The court shall consider the following factors and such others as it deems appropriate in
67 determining, for the purpose of rebuttal of the presumption against bail described in subsection B,
68 whether there are conditions of release that will reasonably assure the appearance of the person as
69 required and the safety of the public:

70 1. The nature and circumstances of the offense charged;

71 2. The history and characteristics of the person, including his character, physical and mental 72 condition, family ties, employment, financial resources, length of residence in the community,
73 community ties, past conduct, history relating to drug or alcohol abuse, criminal history, membership in
74 a criminal street gang as defined in § 18.2-46.1, and record concerning appearance at court proceedings;
75 and

76 3. The nature and seriousness of the danger to any person or the community that would be posed by 77 the person's release.

78 F. The judicial officer shall inform the person of his right to appeal from the order denying bail or 79 fixing terms of bond or recognizance consistent with § 19.2-124.

80 G. If the judicial officer sets a secured bond and the person engages the services of a licensed bail
81 bondsman, the magistrate executing recognizance for the accused shall provide the bondsman, upon
82 request, with a copy of the person's Virginia criminal history record, if readily available, to be used by 83 the bondsman only to determine appropriate reporting requirements to impose upon the accused upon his 84 release. The bondsman shall pay a $15 fee payable to the state treasury to be credited to the Literary 85 Fund, upon requesting the defendant's Virginia criminal history record issued pursuant to § 19.2-389.
86 The bondsman shall review the record on the premises and promptly return the record to the magistrate
87 after reviewing it.

88 H. Any recognizance entered into by a bail bondsman shall expire three years from the date such
89 recognizance was executed unless the court from which such recognizance was taken or the attorney for
90 the Commonwealth for the jurisdiction from which such recognizance was taken provides written notice
91 to the bail bondsman on the recognizance and any surety company that guarantees the bond in such 92 recognizance that the recognizance is being extended for an additional period of time not to exceed 93 three years.
