Offered January 9, 2019

Prefiled January 9, 2019

A BILL to amend and reenact § 40.1-29 of the Code of Virginia, relating to the failure or refusal to pay wages; private cause of action.

Patrons—Campbell, R.R., Carroll Foy, Krizek, Kory and Tran

Referred to Committee for Courts of Justice

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 40.1-29 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 40.1-29. Time and medium of payment; withholding wages; written statement of earnings; agreement for forfeiture of wages; proceedings to enforce compliance; penalties.

A. ~~1.~~ All employers operating a business shall establish regular pay periods and rates of pay for employees except executive personnel. All such employers shall pay salaried employees at least once each month and employees paid on an hourly rate at least once every two weeks or twice in each month, except that (i) a student who is currently enrolled in a work-study program or its equivalent administered by any secondary school, institution of higher education or trade school; and (ii) employees whose weekly wages total more than 150 percent of the average weekly wage of the Commonwealth as defined in § 65.2-500, upon agreement by each affected employee, may be paid once each month if the institution or employer so chooses. Upon termination of employment, an employee shall be paid all wages or salaries due him for work performed prior thereto; such payment shall be made on or before the date on which he would have been paid for such work had his employment not been terminated.

2. Any such employer who knowingly fails to make payment of wages in accordance with this section shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed $1,000 for each violation. The Commissioner shall notify any employer who he alleges has violated any provision of this section by certified mail. Such notice shall contain a description of the alleged violation. Within 15 days of receipt of notice of the alleged violation, the employer may request an informal conference regarding such violation with the Commissioner. In determining the amount of any penalty to be imposed, the Commissioner shall consider the size of the business of the employer charged and the gravity of the violation. The decision of the Commissioner shall be final.

B. Payment of wages or salaries shall be (i) in lawful money of the United States, (ii) by check payable at face value upon demand in lawful money of the United States, (iii) by electronic automated fund transfer in lawful money of the United States into an account in the name of the employee at a financial institution designated by the employee, or (iv) by credit to a prepaid debit card or card account from which the employee is able to withdraw or transfer funds with full written disclosure by the employer of any applicable fees and affirmative consent thereto by the employee. However, an employer that elects not to pay wages or salaries in accordance with clause (i) or (ii) to an employee who is hired after January 1, 2010, shall be permitted to pay wages or salaries by credit to a prepaid debit card or card account in accordance with clause (iv), even though such employee has not affirmatively consented thereto, if the employee fails to designate an account at a financial institution in accordance with clause (iii) and the employer arranges for such card or card account to be issued through a network system through which the employee shall have the ability to make at least one free withdrawal or transfer per pay period, which withdrawal may be for any sum in such card or card account as the employee may elect, using such card or card account at financial institutions participating in such network system.

C. No employer shall withhold any part of the wages or salaries of any employee except for payroll, wage or withholding taxes or in accordance with law, without the written and signed authorization of the employee. An employer, upon request of his employee, shall furnish the latter a written statement of the gross wages earned by the employee during any pay period and the amount and purpose of any deductions therefrom.

D. No employer shall require any employee, except executive personnel, to sign any contract or agreement which provides for the forfeiture of the employee's wages for time worked as a condition of employment or the continuance therein, except as otherwise provided by law.

E. An employer who willfully and with intent to defraud fails or refuses to pay wages in accordance with this section:

1. To an employee or employees is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor if the value of the wages earned and not paid by the employer is less than $10,000; and

2. To an employee or employees is guilty of a Class 6 felony (i) if the value of the wages earned

INTRODUCED

HB2524

59 and not paid is $10,000 or more or (ii) regardless of the value of the wages earned and not paid, if the 60 conviction is a second or subsequent conviction under this section.

61 For purposes of this section, the determination as to the "value of the wages earned" shall be made
62 by combining all wages the employer failed or refused to pay pursuant to this section.

63 F. The Commissioner may require a written complaint of the violation of this section and, with the 64 written and signed consent of an employee, may institute proceedings on behalf of an employee to 65 enforce compliance with this section, and to collect any moneys unlawfully withheld from such 66 employee which shall be paid to the employee entitled thereto. In addition, following the issuance of a
67 final order by the Commissioner or a court, the Commissioner may engage private counsel, approved by 68 the Attorney General, to collect any moneys owed to the employee or the Commonwealth. Upon entry
69 of a final order of the Commissioner, or upon entry of a judgment, against the employer, the 70 Commissioner or the court shall assess attorney's fees of one-third of the amount set forth in the final 71 order or judgment.

72 G. In addition to being subject to any other penalty provided by the provisions of this section, any 73 employer who fails to make payment of wages in accordance with subsection A shall be liable for the 74 payment of all wages due, plus interest at an annual rate of eight percent accruing from the date the 75 wages were due.

76 H. Civil penalties owed under this section shall be paid to the Commissioner for deposit into the 77 general fund of the State Treasurer. The Commissioner shall prescribe procedures for the payment of 78 proposed assessments of penalties which are not contested by employers. Such procedures shall include
79 provisions for an employer to consent to abatement of the alleged violation and pay a proposed penalty
80 or a negotiated sum in lieu of such penalty without admission of any civil liability arising from such 81 alleged violation.

82 I. Final orders of the Commissioner, the general district courts, or the circuit courts may be recorded,
83 enforced, and satisfied as orders or decrees of a circuit court upon certification of such orders by the 84 Commissioner or the court as appropriate.

85 J. In addition to any civil or criminal penalty provided by this section, and without regard to any 86 alternative administrative remedies provided for in this section, if an employer fails to pay wages to an 87 employee in accordance with this section, the employee may bring an action against the employer in a
88 court of competent jurisdiction to recover payment of the wages plus prejudgment interest thereon as 89 provided in subsection G. If the court finds that:

90 1. The employer knowingly failed to pay wages in accordance with this section, the court shall 91 award the employee, in addition to the amount of the wages due and prejudgment interest, the 92 employee's reasonable attorney fees and other costs; and

93 2. The employer willfully and with intent to defraud failed or refused to pay wages in accordance 94 with this section, the court shall award the employee, in addition to prejudgment interest and the 95 employee's reasonable attorney fees and other costs, an amount equal to three times the amount of 96 wages due.
