Patron—Price

Referred to Committee on Health, Welfare and Institutions

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 54.1-2400.1, 54.1-3500, and 54.1-3505 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 54.1-2400.1. Mental health service providers; duty to protect third parties; immunity.

A. As used in this section:

"Certified substance abuse counselor" means a person certified to provide substance abuse counseling in a state-approved public or private substance abuse program or facility.

"Client" or "patient" means any person who is voluntarily or involuntarily receiving mental health services or substance abuse services from any mental health service provider.

"Clinical psychologist" means a person who practices clinical psychology as defined in § 54.1-3600.

"Clinical social worker" means a person who practices social work as defined in § 54.1-3700.

"Licensed practical nurse" means a person licensed to practice practical nursing as defined in § 54.1-3000.

"Licensed substance abuse treatment practitioner" means any person licensed to engage in the practice of substance abuse treatment as defined in § 54.1-3500.

"Marriage and family therapist" means a person licensed to engage in the practice of marriage and family therapy as defined in § 54.1-3500.

"Mental health professional" means a person who by education and experience is professionally qualified and licensed in Virginia to provide counseling interventions designed to facilitate an individual's achievement of human development goals and remediate mental, emotional, or behavioral disorders and associated distresses which interfere with mental health and development.

"Mental health service provider" or "provider" refers to any of the following: (i) a person who provides professional services as a certified substance abuse counselor, clinical psychologist, clinical social worker, licensed substance abuse treatment practitioner, licensed practical nurse, marriage and family therapist, mental health professional, physician, physician assistant, professional counselor, psychologist, qualified mental health professional, registered nurse, registered peer recovery specialist, school psychologist, or social worker; (ii) a professional corporation, all of whose shareholders or members are so licensed; or (iii) a partnership, all of whose partners are so licensed.

"Professional counselor" means a person who practices counseling as defined in § 54.1-3500.

"Psychologist" means a person who practices psychology as defined in § 54.1-3600.

"Qualified mental health professional" means a person who by education and experience is professionally qualified and registered by the Board of Counseling to provide collaborative mental health services for adults or children. A qualified mental health professional shall provide such services as an employee or independent contractor of the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services, the Department of Corrections, or a provider licensed by the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services has the same meaning as provided in § 54.1-3500.

"Registered nurse" means a person licensed to practice professional nursing as defined in § 54.1-3000.

"Registered peer recovery specialist" means a person who by education and experience is professionally qualified and registered by the Board of Counseling to provide collaborative services to assist individuals in achieving sustained recovery from the effects of addiction or mental illness, or both. A registered peer recovery specialist shall provide such services as an employee or independent contractor of the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services, a provider licensed by the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services, a practitioner licensed by or holding a permit issued from the Department of Health Professions, or a facility licensed by the Department of Health.

"School psychologist" means a person who practices school psychology as defined in § 54.1-3600.

"Social worker" means a person who practices social work as defined in § 54.1-3700.

B. A mental health service provider has a duty to take precautions to protect third parties from violent behavior or other serious harm only when the client has orally, in writing, or via sign language,

INTRODUCED

HB2693

59 communicated to the provider a specific and immediate threat to cause serious bodily injury or death to 60 an identified or readily identifiable person or persons, if the provider reasonably believes, or should
61 believe according to the standards of his profession, that the client has the intent and ability to carry out
62 that threat immediately or imminently. If the third party is a child, in addition to taking precautions to 63 protect the child from the behaviors in the above types of threats, the provider also has a duty to take 64 precautions to protect the child if the client threatens to engage in behaviors that would constitute 65 physical abuse or sexual abuse as defined in § 18.2-67.10. The duty to protect does not attach unless the 66 threat has been communicated to the provider by the threatening client while the provider is engaged in 67 his professional duties.

68 C. The duty set forth in subsection B is discharged by a mental health service provider who takes 69 one or more of the following actions:

70 1. Seeks involuntary admission of the client under Article 16 (§ 16.1-335 et seq.) of Chapter 11 of 71 Title 16.1 or Chapter 8 (§ 37.2-800 et seq.) of Title 37.2.

72 2. Makes reasonable attempts to warn the potential victims or the parent or guardian of the potential
73 victim if the potential victim is under the age of 18.

74 3. Makes reasonable efforts to notify a law-enforcement official having jurisdiction in the client's or 75 potential victim's place of residence or place of work, or place of work of the parent or guardian if the 76 potential victim is under age 18, or both.

77 4. Takes steps reasonably available to the provider to prevent the client from using physical violence
78 or other means of harm to others until the appropriate law-enforcement agency can be summoned and 79 takes custody of the client.

80 5. Provides therapy or counseling to the client or patient in the session in which the threat has been 81 communicated until the mental health service provider reasonably believes that the client no longer has 82 the intent or the ability to carry out the threat.

83 6. In the case of a registered peer recovery specialist, or a qualified mental health professional who
84 is not otherwise licensed by a health regulatory board at the Department of Health Professions, reports
85 immediately to a licensed mental health service provider to take one or more of the actions set forth in 86 this subsection.

87 D. A mental health service provider shall not be held civilly liable to any person for:

88 1. Breaching confidentiality with the limited purpose of protecting third parties by communicating the
89 threats described in subsection B made by his clients to potential third party victims or law-enforcement
90 agencies or by taking any of the actions specified in subsection C.

91 2. Failing to predict, in the absence of a threat described in subsection B, that the client would cause
92 the third party serious physical harm.

93 3. Failing to take precautions other than those enumerated in subsection C to protect a potential third
94 party victim from the client's violent behavior.
