90 alleged discriminatory housing practice involves (i) the legality of any local zoning or land use
91 ordinance or (ii) activity [~~prescribed~~ proscribed] in subsection [~~B C~~] of § 36-96.3, instead of issuing 92 a charge, the Board shall immediately refer the matter to the Attorney General for civil action in the 93 appropriate circuit court for appropriate relief. A civil action under this subsection shall be commenced

96 B. Whenever the Attorney General has reasonable cause to believe that any person or group of 97 persons is engaged in a pattern or practice of resistance to the full enjoyment of any of the rights
98 granted by this chapter, or that any group of persons has been denied any of the rights granted by this 99 chapter and such denial raises an issue of general public importance, the Attorney General may 100 commence a civil action in the appropriate circuit court for appropriate relief.

101 C. In the event of a breach of a conciliation agreement by a respondent, the Board may authorize a 102 civil action by the Attorney General. The Attorney General may commence a civil action in any 104 no later than the expiration of ninety days after the referral of such alleged breach.

105 D. The Attorney General, on behalf of the Board, or other party at whose request a subpoena is 106 issued, under this chapter, may enforce such subpoena in appropriate proceedings in the appropriate 107 circuit court.

108 E. In a civil action under subsections A, B, and C, the court may:

109 1. Award such preventive relief, including a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or 110 other order against the person responsible for a violation of this chapter as is necessary to assure the full 111 enjoyment of the rights granted by this chapter.

112 2. Assess a civil penalty against the respondent (i) in an amount not exceeding $50,000 for a first 113 violation; and (ii) in an amount not exceeding $100,000 for any subsequent violation.

114 3. Award the prevailing party reasonable ~~attorney's~~ attorney fees and costs. The Commonwealth shall 115 be liable for such fees and costs to the extent provided by the Code of Virginia.

116 The court or jury may award such other relief to the aggrieved person, as the court deems
117 appropriate, including compensatory damages, and punitive damages without limitation otherwise 118 imposed by state law.

119 F. Upon timely application, any person may intervene in a civil action commenced by the Attorney 120 General under subsection A, B, or C ~~which~~ that involves an alleged discriminatory housing practice with

121 respect to which such person is an aggrieved person or a party to a conciliation agreement. The court 122 may grant such appropriate relief to any such intervening party as is authorized to be granted to a 123 plaintiff in a civil action under § 36-96.18.
