SENATE BILL NO. 1441

Offered January 9, 2019

Prefiled January 8, 2019

A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 2.2-3705.3, 2.2-3711, 8.01-405, and 54.1-111 of the Code of Virginia; to amend the Code of Virginia by adding in Title 54.1 a chapter numbered 45, containing articles numbered 1, 2, and 3, consisting of sections numbered 54.1-4500 through 54.1-4521; and to repeal Chapter 10 (§§ 17.1-1000 through 17.1-1005) of Title 17.1 of the Code of Virginia, relating to court reporters; Virginia Board for Court Reporters.

Patron—Stuart

Referred to Committee for Courts of Justice

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 2.2-3705.3, 2.2-3711, 8.01-405, and 54.1-111 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted and that the Code of Virginia is amended by adding in Title 54.1 a chapter numbered 45, containing articles numbered 1, 2, and 3, consisting of sections numbered 54.1-4500 through 54.1-4521, as follows:

§ 2.2-3705.3. Exclusions to application of chapter; records relating to administrative investigations.

The following information contained in a public record is excluded from the mandatory disclosure provisions of this chapter but may be disclosed by the custodian in his discretion, except where such disclosure is prohibited by law. Redaction of information excluded under this section from a public record shall be conducted in accordance with § 2.2-3704.01.

1. Information relating to investigations of applicants for licenses and permits, and of all licensees and permittees, made by or submitted to the Virginia Alcoholic Beverage Control Authority, the Virginia Lottery, the Virginia Racing Commission, the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services relating to investigations and applications pursuant to Article 1.1:1 (§ 18.2-340.15 et seq.) of Chapter 8 of Title 18.2, or the Private Security Services Unit of the Department of Criminal Justice Services.

2. Records of active investigations being conducted by the Department of Health Professions or by any health regulatory board in the Commonwealth pursuant to § 54.1-108.

3. Investigator notes, and other correspondence and information, furnished in confidence with respect to an active investigation of individual employment discrimination complaints made to the Department of Human Resource Management, to such personnel of any local public body, including local school boards, as are responsible for conducting such investigations in confidence, or to any public institution of higher education. However, nothing in this subdivision shall prevent the disclosure of information taken from inactive reports in a form that does not reveal the identity of charging parties, persons supplying the information, or other individuals involved in the investigation.

4. Records of active investigations being conducted by the Department of Medical Assistance Services pursuant to Chapter 10 (§ 32.1-323 et seq.) of Title 32.1.

5. Investigative notes and other correspondence and information furnished in confidence with respect to an investigation or conciliation process involving an alleged unlawful discriminatory practice under the Virginia Human Rights Act (§ 2.2-3900 et seq.) or under any local ordinance adopted in accordance with the authority specified in § 2.2-524, or adopted pursuant to § 15.2-965, or adopted prior to July 1, 1987, in accordance with applicable law, relating to local human rights or human relations commissions. However, nothing in this subdivision shall prevent the distribution of information taken from inactive reports in a form that does not reveal the identity of the parties involved or other persons supplying information.

6. Information relating to studies and investigations by the Virginia Lottery of (i) lottery agents, (ii) lottery vendors, (iii) lottery crimes under §§ 58.1-4014 through 58.1-4018, (iv) defects in the law or regulations that cause abuses in the administration and operation of the lottery and any evasions of such provisions, or (v) the use of the lottery as a subterfuge for organized crime and illegal gambling where such information has not been publicly released, published or copyrighted. All studies and investigations referred to under clauses (iii), (iv), and (v) shall be open to inspection and copying upon completion of the study or investigation.

7. Investigative notes, correspondence and information furnished in confidence, and records otherwise exempted by this chapter or any Virginia statute, provided to or produced by or for (i) the Auditor of Public Accounts; (ii) the Joint Legislative Audit and Review Commission; (iii) an appropriate authority as defined in § 2.2-3010 with respect to an allegation of wrongdoing or abuse under the Fraud and

59 Abuse Whistle Blower Protection Act (§ 2.2-3009 et seq.); (iv) the Office of the State Inspector General
60 with respect to an investigation initiated through the Fraud, Waste and Abuse Hotline or an investigation
61 initiated pursuant to Chapter 3.2 (§ 2.2-307 et seq.); (v) internal auditors appointed by the head of a
62 state agency or by any public institution of higher education; (vi) the committee or the auditor with 63 respect to an investigation or audit conducted pursuant to § 15.2-825; or (vii) the auditors, appointed by 64 the local governing body of any county, city, or town or a school board, who by charter, ordinance, or 65 statute have responsibility for conducting an investigation of any officer, department, or program of such 66 body. Information contained in completed investigations shall be disclosed in a form that does not reveal
67 the identity of the complainants or persons supplying information to investigators. Unless disclosure is 68 excluded by this subdivision, the information disclosed shall include the agency involved, the identity of 69 the person who is the subject of the complaint, the nature of the complaint, and the actions taken to 70 resolve the complaint. If an investigation does not lead to corrective action, the identity of the person
71 who is the subject of the complaint may be released only with the consent of the subject person. Local 72 governing bodies shall adopt guidelines to govern the disclosure required by this subdivision.

73 8. The names, addresses, and telephone numbers of complainants furnished in confidence with 74 respect to an investigation of individual zoning enforcement complaints or complaints relating to the 75 Uniform Statewide Building Code (§ 36-97 et seq.) or the Statewide Fire Prevention Code (§ 27-94 et 76 seq.) made to a local governing body.

77 9. Records of active investigations being conducted by the Department of Criminal Justice Services
78 pursuant to Article 4 (§ 9.1-138 et seq.), Article 4.1 (§ 9.1-150.1 et seq.), Article 11 (§ 9.1-185 et seq.),
79 and Article 12 (§ 9.1-186 et seq.) of Chapter 1 of Title 9.1.

80 10. Information furnished to or prepared by the Board of Education pursuant to subsection D of 81 § 22.1-253.13:3 in connection with the review or investigation of any alleged breach in security,
82 unauthorized alteration, or improper administration of tests by local school board employees responsible
83 for the distribution or administration of the tests. However, this section shall not prohibit the disclosure
84 of such information to (i) a local school board or division superintendent for the purpose of permitting
85 such board or superintendent to consider or to take personnel action with regard to an employee or (ii)
86 any requester, after the conclusion of a review or investigation, in a form that (a) does not reveal the 87 identity of any person making a complaint or supplying information to the Board on a confidential basis
88 and (b) does not compromise the security of any test mandated by the Board.

89 11. Information contained in (i) an application for licensure or renewal of a license for teachers and 90 other school personnel, including transcripts or other documents submitted in support of an application,
91 and (ii) an active investigation conducted by or for the Board of Education related to the denial,
92 suspension, cancellation, revocation, or reinstatement of teacher and other school personnel licenses
93 including investigator notes and other correspondence and information, furnished in confidence with 94 respect to such investigation. However, this subdivision shall not prohibit the disclosure of such (a)
95 application information to the applicant at his own expense or (b) investigation information to a local 96 school board or division superintendent for the purpose of permitting such board or superintendent to
97 consider or to take personnel action with regard to an employee. Information contained in completed
98 investigations shall be disclosed in a form that does not reveal the identity of any complainant or person
99 supplying information to investigators. The completed investigation information disclosed shall include 100 information regarding the school or facility involved, the identity of the person who was the subject of 101 the complaint, the nature of the complaint, and the actions taken to resolve the complaint. If an 102 investigation fails to support a complaint or does not lead to corrective action, the identity of the person
103 who was the subject of the complaint may be released only with the consent of the subject person. No
104 personally identifiable information regarding a current or former student shall be released except as 105 permitted by state or federal law.

106 12. Information provided in confidence and related to an investigation by the Attorney General under 107 Article 1 (§ 3.2-4200 et seq.) or Article 3 (§ 3.2-4204 et seq.) of Chapter 42 of Title 3.2, Article 10 (§
108 18.2-246.6 et seq.) of Chapter 6 or Chapter 13 (§ 18.2-512 et seq.) of Title 18.2, or Article 1
109 (§ 58.1-1000) of Chapter 10 of Title 58.1. However, information related to an investigation that has been 110 inactive for more than six months shall, upon request, be disclosed provided such disclosure is not 111 otherwise prohibited by law and does not reveal the identity of charging parties, complainants, persons 112 supplying information, witnesses, or other individuals involved in the investigation.

113 13. Records of active investigations being conducted by the Virginia Board for Court Reporters
114 pursuant to Chapter 45 (§ 54.1-4500 et seq.) of Title 54.1.

115 § 2.2-3711. Closed meetings authorized for certain limited purposes.

116 A. Public bodies may hold closed meetings only for the following purposes:

117 1. Discussion, consideration, or interviews of prospective candidates for employment; assignment,
118 appointment, promotion, performance, demotion, salaries, disciplining, or resignation of specific public
119 officers, appointees, or employees of any public body; and evaluation of performance of departments or 120 schools of public institutions of higher education where such evaluation will necessarily involve discussion of the performance of specific individuals. Any teacher shall be permitted to be present during a closed meeting in which there is a discussion or consideration of a disciplinary matter that involves the teacher and some student and the student involved in the matter is present, provided the teacher makes a written request to be present to the presiding officer of the appropriate board. Nothing in this subdivision, however, shall be construed to authorize a closed meeting by a local governing body or an elected school board to discuss compensation matters that affect the membership of such body or board collectively.

2. Discussion or consideration of admission or disciplinary matters or any other matters that would involve the disclosure of information contained in a scholastic record concerning any student of any public institution of higher education in the Commonwealth or any state school system. However, any such student, legal counsel and, if the student is a minor, the student's parents or legal guardians shall be permitted to be present during the taking of testimony or presentation of evidence at a closed meeting, if such student, parents, or guardians so request in writing and such request is submitted to the presiding officer of the appropriate board.

3. Discussion or consideration of the acquisition of real property for a public purpose, or of the disposition of publicly held real property, where discussion in an open meeting would adversely affect the bargaining position or negotiating strategy of the public body.

4. The protection of the privacy of individuals in personal matters not related to public business.

5. Discussion concerning a prospective business or industry or the expansion of an existing business or industry where no previous announcement has been made of the business' or industry's interest in locating or expanding its facilities in the community.

6. Discussion or consideration of the investment of public funds where competition or bargaining is involved, where, if made public initially, the financial interest of the governmental unit would be adversely affected.

7. Consultation with legal counsel and briefings by staff members or consultants pertaining to actual or probable litigation, where such consultation or briefing in open meeting would adversely affect the negotiating or litigating posture of the public body. For the purposes of this subdivision, "probable litigation" means litigation that has been specifically threatened or on which the public body or its legal counsel has a reasonable basis to believe will be commenced by or against a known party. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to permit the closure of a meeting merely because an attorney representing the public body is in attendance or is consulted on a matter.

8. Consultation with legal counsel employed or retained by a public body regarding specific legal matters requiring the provision of legal advice by such counsel. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to permit the closure of a meeting merely because an attorney representing the public body is in attendance or is consulted on a matter.

9. Discussion or consideration by governing boards of public institutions of higher education of matters relating to gifts, bequests and fund-raising activities, and of grants and contracts for services or work to be performed by such institution. However, the terms and conditions of any such gifts, bequests, grants, and contracts made by a foreign government, a foreign legal entity, or a foreign person and accepted by a public institution of higher education in the Commonwealth shall be subject to public disclosure upon written request to the appropriate board of visitors. For the purpose of this subdivision, (i) "foreign government" means any government other than the United States government or the government of a state or a political subdivision thereof, (ii) "foreign legal entity" means any legal entity (a) created under the laws of the United States or of any state thereof if a majority of the ownership of the stock of such legal entity is owned by foreign governments or foreign persons or if a majority of the membership of any such entity is composed of foreign persons or foreign legal entities or (b) created under the laws of a foreign government, and (iii) "foreign person" means any individual who is not a citizen or national of the United States or a trust territory or protectorate thereof.

10. Discussion or consideration by the boards of trustees of the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts, the Virginia Museum of Natural History, the Jamestown-Yorktown Foundation, and The Science Museum of Virginia of matters relating to specific gifts, bequests, and grants from private sources.

11. Discussion or consideration of honorary degrees or special awards.

12. Discussion or consideration of tests, examinations, or other information used, administered, or prepared by a public body and subject to the exclusion in subdivision 4 of § 2.2-3705.1.

13. Discussion, consideration, or review by the appropriate House or Senate committees of possible disciplinary action against a member arising out of the possible inadequacy of the disclosure statement filed by the member, provided the member may request in writing that the committee meeting not be conducted in a closed meeting.

14. Discussion of strategy with respect to the negotiation of a hazardous waste siting agreement or to consider the terms, conditions, and provisions of a hazardous waste siting agreement if the governing body in open meeting finds that an open meeting will have an adverse effect upon the negotiating

182 position of the governing body or the establishment of the terms, conditions and provisions of the siting
183 agreement, or both. All discussions with the applicant or its representatives may be conducted in a 184 closed meeting.

185 15. Discussion by the Governor and any economic advisory board reviewing forecasts of economic 186 activity and estimating general and nongeneral fund revenues.

187 16. Discussion or consideration of medical and mental health records subject to the exclusion in 188 subdivision 1 of § 2.2-3705.5.

189 17. Deliberations of the Virginia Lottery Board in a licensing appeal action conducted pursuant to 190 subsection D of § 58.1-4007 regarding the denial or revocation of a license of a lottery sales agent; and 191 discussion, consideration or review of Virginia Lottery matters related to proprietary lottery game
192 information and studies or investigations excluded from disclosure under subdivision 6 of § 2.2-3705.3
193 and subdivision 11 of § 2.2-3705.7.

194 18. Those portions of meetings in which the Board of Corrections discusses or discloses the identity
195 of, or information tending to identify, any prisoner who (i) provides information about crimes or 196 criminal activities, (ii) renders assistance in preventing the escape of another prisoner or in the 197 apprehension of an escaped prisoner, or (iii) voluntarily or at the instance of a prison official renders
198 other extraordinary services, the disclosure of which is likely to jeopardize the prisoner's life or safety.

199 19. Discussion of plans to protect public safety as it relates to terrorist activity or specific 200 cybersecurity threats or vulnerabilities and briefings by staff members, legal counsel, or law-enforcement
201 or emergency service officials concerning actions taken to respond to such matters or a related threat to 202 public safety; discussion of information subject to the exclusion in subdivision 2 or 14 of § 2.2-3705.2,
203 where discussion in an open meeting would jeopardize the safety of any person or the security of any
204 facility, building, structure, information technology system, or software program; or discussion of reports
205 or plans related to the security of any governmental facility, building or structure, or the safety of 206 persons using such facility, building or structure.

207 20. Discussion by the Board of the Virginia Retirement System, acting pursuant to § 51.1-124.30, or 208 of any local retirement system, acting pursuant to § 51.1-803, or by a local finance board or board of 209 trustees of a trust established by one or more local public bodies to invest funds for postemployment
210 benefits other than pensions, acting pursuant to Article 8 (§ 15.2-1544 et seq.) of Chapter 15 of Title
211 15.2, or by the board of visitors of the University of Virginia, acting pursuant to § 23.1-2210, or by the 212 Board of the Virginia College Savings Plan, acting pursuant to § 23.1-706, regarding the acquisition,
213 holding or disposition of a security or other ownership interest in an entity, where such security or 214 ownership interest is not traded on a governmentally regulated securities exchange, to the extent that 215 such discussion (i) concerns confidential analyses prepared for the board of visitors of the University of 216 Virginia, prepared by the retirement system, or a local finance board or board of trustees, or the Virginia
217 College Savings Plan or provided to the retirement system, a local finance board or board of trustees, or 218 the Virginia College Savings Plan under a promise of confidentiality, of the future value of such 219 ownership interest or the future financial performance of the entity, and (ii) would have an adverse 220 effect on the value of the investment to be acquired, held, or disposed of by the retirement system, a
221 local finance board or board of trustees, the board of visitors of the University of Virginia, or the 222 Virginia College Savings Plan. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to prevent the disclosure
223 of information relating to the identity of any investment held, the amount invested or the present value
224 of such investment.

225 21. Those portions of meetings in which individual child death cases are discussed by the State Child
226 Fatality Review team established pursuant to § 32.1-283.1, those portions of meetings in which 227 individual child death cases are discussed by a regional or local child fatality review team established
228 pursuant to § 32.1-283.2, those portions of meetings in which individual death cases are discussed by 229 family violence fatality review teams established pursuant to § 32.1-283.3, those portions of meetings in 230 which individual adult death cases are discussed by the state Adult Fatality Review Team established
231 pursuant to § 32.1-283.5, those portions of meetings in which individual adult death cases are discussed
232 by a local or regional adult fatality review team established pursuant to § 32.1-283.6, and those portions
233 of meetings in which individual death cases are discussed by overdose fatality review teams established
234 pursuant to § 32.1-283.7.

235 22. Those portions of meetings of the board of visitors of the University of Virginia or the Eastern
236 Virginia Medical School Board of Visitors, as the case may be, and those portions of meetings of any 237 persons to whom management responsibilities for the University of Virginia Medical Center or Eastern
238 Virginia Medical School, as the case may be, have been delegated, in which there is discussed
239 proprietary, business-related information pertaining to the operations of the University of Virginia
240 Medical Center or Eastern Virginia Medical School, as the case may be, including business development
241 or marketing strategies and activities with existing or future joint venturers, partners, or other parties
242 with whom the University of Virginia Medical Center or Eastern Virginia Medical School, as the case 243 may be, has formed, or forms, any arrangement for the delivery of health care, if disclosure of such information would adversely affect the competitive position of the Medical Center or Eastern Virginia Medical School, as the case may be.

23. Discussion or consideration by the Virginia Commonwealth University Health System Authority or the board of visitors of Virginia Commonwealth University of any of the following: the acquisition or disposition by the Authority of real property, equipment, or technology software or hardware and related goods or services, where disclosure would adversely affect the bargaining position or negotiating strategy of the Authority; matters relating to gifts or bequests to, and fund-raising activities of, the Authority; grants and contracts for services or work to be performed by the Authority; marketing or operational strategies plans of the Authority where disclosure of such strategies or plans would adversely affect the competitive position of the Authority; and members of the Authority's medical and teaching staffs and qualifications for appointments thereto.

361 discuss information received from the Virginia Employment Commission pursuant to subdivision C 2 of 362 § 60.2-114.

363 B. No resolution, ordinance, rule, contract, regulation or motion adopted, passed or agreed to in a
364 closed meeting shall become effective unless the public body, following the meeting, reconvenes in open 365 meeting and takes a vote of the membership on such resolution, ordinance, rule, contract, regulation, or 366 motion that shall have its substance reasonably identified in the open meeting.

C. Public officers improperly selected due to the failure of the public body to comply with the other provisions of this section shall be de facto officers and, as such, their official actions are valid until they obtain notice of the legal defect in their election.

D. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the holding of conferences between two or more public bodies, or their representatives, but these conferences shall be subject to the same procedures for holding closed meetings as are applicable to any other public body.

E. This section shall not be construed to (i) require the disclosure of any contract between the Department of Health Professions and an impaired practitioner entered into pursuant to Chapter 25.1 (§ 54.1-2515 et seq.) of Title 54.1 or (ii) require the board of directors of any authority created pursuant to the Industrial Development and Revenue Bond Act (§ 15.2-4900 et seq.), or any public body empowered to issue industrial revenue bonds by general or special law, to identify a business or industry to which subdivision A 5 applies. However, such business or industry shall be identified as a matter of public record at least 30 days prior to the actual date of the board's authorization of the sale or issuance of such bonds.

§ 8.01-405. Who may administer oath to witness.

A. Any person before whom a witness is to be examined may administer an oath to such witness. In addition, a clerk or deputy clerk may administer an oath to a witness in the presence and at the direction of a judge before whom the witness is to be examined.

B. A court reporter licensed pursuant to Chapter 45 (§ 54.1-4500 et seq.) of Title 54.1 may administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses and other persons upon confirmation of proper identification concerning any proceeding to be commenced or pending before him, whether the witness or other person is physically present or remotely present by teleconference, videoconference, or other remote means.

§ 54.1-111. Unlawful acts; prosecution; proceedings in equity; civil penalty.

A. It shall be unlawful for any person, partnership, corporation or other entity to engage in any of the following acts:

1. Practicing a profession or occupation without holding a valid license as required by statute or regulation.

2. Making use of any designation provided by statute or regulation to denote a standard of professional or occupational competence without being duly certified or licensed.

3. Making use of any titles, words, letters or abbreviations which may reasonably be confused with a designation provided by statute or regulation to denote a standard of professional or occupational competence without being duly certified or licensed.

4. Performing any act or function which is restricted by statute or regulation to persons holding a professional or occupational license or certification, without being duly certified or licensed.

5. Failing to register as a practitioner of a profession or occupation as required by statute or regulation.

6. Materially misrepresenting facts in an application for licensure, certification or registration.

7. Willfully refusing to furnish a regulatory board information or records required or requested pursuant to statute or regulation.

8. Violating any statute or regulation governing the practice of any profession or occupation regulated pursuant to this title.

9. Refusing to process a request, tendered in accordance with the regulations of the relevant health regulatory board or applicable statutory law, for patient records or prescription dispensing records after the closing of a business or professional practice or the transfer of ownership of a business or professional practice.

Any person who willfully engages in any unlawful act enumerated in this section shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. The third or any subsequent conviction for violating this section during a 36-month period shall constitute a Class 6 felony. In addition, any person convicted of any unlawful act enumerated in subdivision 1 through 8 of this subsection, for conduct that is within the purview of any regulatory board within the Department of Professional and Occupational Regulation, may be ordered by the court to pay restitution in accordance with §§ 19.2-305 through 19.2-305.4.

B. In addition to the criminal penalties provided for in subsection A, the Department of Professional and Occupational Regulation or, the Department of Health Professions, or the Virginia Board for Court Reporters, without compliance with the Administrative Process Act (§ 2.2-4000 et seq.), shall have the authority to enforce the provisions of subsection A and may institute proceedings in equity to enjoin any person, partnership, corporation or any other entity from engaging in any unlawful act enumerated in this section and to recover a civil penalty of at least $200 but not more than $5,000 per violation, with each unlawful act constituting a separate violation; but in no event shall the civil penalties against any one person, partnership, corporation or other entity exceed $25,000 per year. Such proceedings shall be brought in the name of the Commonwealth by the appropriate Department or Board in the circuit court

428 or general district court of the city or county in which the unlawful act occurred or in which the 429 defendant resides.

430 C. This section shall not be construed to prohibit or prevent the owner of patient records from (i)
431 retaining copies of his patient records or prescription dispensing records after the closing of a business
432 or professional practice or the transfer of ownership of a business or professional practice or (ii)
433 charging a reasonable fee, in accordance with subsections B2, B3, B4, and B6 of § 8.01-413 or 434 subsection J of § 32.1-127.1:03, for copies of patient records, as applicable under the circumstances.

435 D. Nothing in this section, nor §§ 13.1-543, 13.1-1102, 54.1-2902, and 54.1-2929, shall be construed
436 to prohibit or prevent any entity of a type listed in § 13.1-542.1 or 13.1-1101.1, which employs or 437 contracts with an individual licensed by a health regulatory board, from (i) practicing or engaging in the 438 practice of a profession or occupation for which such individual is licensed, (ii) providing or rendering
439 professional services related thereto through the licensed individual, or (iii) having a legitimate interest
440 in enforcing the terms of employment or its contract with the licensed individual.

441 E. This section shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to all persons holding a multistate licensure privilege
442 to practice nursing in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

443 CHAPTER 45.

444 COURT REPORTING.

445 Article I.

446 General Provisions.

447 § 54.1-4500. Definitions.

448 As used in this chapter, unless the context requires a different meaning:

449 "Board" means the Virginia Board for Court Reporters.

450 "Court reporter" means any person who is engaged in the practice of providing court reporting
451 services.

452 "Court reporting services" means the making of a verbatim recording by means of machine
453 shorthand, voice writing, or electronic/digital recording of any testimony given under oath before, or for 454 submission to, any (i) court, (ii) court-appointed referee or examiner, or (iii) board, commission, or 455 other body created by law, or in any other proceeding where a verbatim record is required.

456 "Court reporting services provider" means a business, entity, firm, or person that provides or 457 arranges for court reporting services.

458 "Executive Director" means the Executive Director of the Board.

459 "Legal proceeding" means a court proceeding, a deposition, an administrative hearing, an 460 arbitration hearing, an examination under oath, or a sworn statement.

461 § 54.1-4501. Virginia Board for Court Reporters; membership; terms; officers; meetings; expenses.

462 A. The Virginia Board for Court Reporters is established as an independent board in the executive 463 branch of state government.

464 B. The Board shall consist of nine nonlegislative citizen members appointed by the Governor as 465 follows:

466 1. Four members nationally certified as court reporters by the American Association of Electronic 467 Reporters and Transcribers, the National Court Reporters Association, or the National Verbatim
468 Reporters Association. The appointments may be made from a list of at least three names for each
469 vacancy submitted to the Governor by the Virginia Court Reporters Association, ensuring that each
470 method described in this chapter is represented;

471 2. Two members of the Virginia State Bar in good standing. The appointments may be made from a
472 list of at least three names for each vacancy submitted to the Governor by the Virginia State Bar;

473 3. One member of the Judicial Council of Virginia. A list of nominations for this position shall be 474 submitted to the Governor by the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia; and 475 4. Two citizen members.

476 Citizen members shall participate in all matters except decisions regarding the examination of 477 applicants for licensure or decisions regarding the professional competence of licensees. Nominations
478 for appointments shall be submitted to the Governor on or before June 1 of each year. The Governor
479 may notify the Virginia Court Reporters Association, the Virginia State Bar, or the Executive Secretary, 480 respectively, of any vacancy other than by expiration, and like nominations may be made for the filling 481 of the vacancy. In no case shall the Governor be bound to make any appointment from among the 482 nominees.

483 C. After an initial staggering of terms, members of the Board shall serve for terms of four years.
484 Each member shall serve until his successor is duly appointed and qualified.

485 D. The Board shall elect a chair and vice-chair. No member shall be elected to serve more than two 486 consecutive years in the same office. A majority of the members of the Board shall constitute a quorum.
487 Meetings of the Board shall be held upon the call of the chair or whenever a majority of the members
488 so request.

489 E. All members shall be reimbursed for all reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties as provided in §§ 2.2-2813 and 2.2-2825. The compensation and expenses shall be paid out of the funds of the Board. Reimbursement shall be made if available funds are sufficient for this purpose.

§ 54.1-4502. Powers and duties of the Board; maintenance of registry.

A. The Board shall have the power and duty to:

1. Establish the qualifications of applicants for licensure or registration, provided that all qualifications shall be necessary to ensure competence and integrity.

2. Examine, or cause to be examined, the qualifications of each applicant for licensure or registration.

3. Promulgate regulations in accordance with the Administrative Process Act (§ 2.2-4000 et seq.) necessary to (i) assure continued competency; (ii) prevent deceptive or misleading practices; (iii) establish and maintain requirements for the ethical behavior of court reporters, including conflict-of-interest provisions, inappropriate relationships with a party or a party's attorney, and failure to honor an agreement or commitment to furnish transcripts by licensees and registrants; and (iv) effectively administer the regulatory system.

4. Levy and collect fees for the issuance, renewal, or reinstatement of licenses and registrations that are sufficient to cover all expenses of the administration and operation of the Board.

5. Initiate or receive complaints concerning the conduct of licensees or registrants or concerning their violation of the provisions of this chapter or regulations promulgated by the Board, and to take appropriate disciplinary action if warranted.

6. Revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew or reinstate a license or registration for just causes as prescribed by the Board.

7. Establish continuing professional educational requirements as a condition for issuance, renewal, or reinstatement of a license or registration.

8. Enter into contracts necessary or convenient for carrying out the provisions of this chapter or the functions of the Board.

9. Do all things necessary and convenient for carrying into effect this chapter and regulations promulgated by the Board.

B. The Board shall maintain and make available to the public a current registry of registered court reporting services providers, licensed court reporters, temporarily licensed court reporters, and court reporters on inactive status.

§ 54.1-4503. Biennial report.

The Board shall submit a biennial report to the Governor and General Assembly on or before November 1 of each even-numbered year. The biennial report shall contain, at a minimum, the following information: (i) a summary of the Board's fiscal affairs, (ii) a description of the Board's activities, (iii) statistical information regarding the administrative hearings and decisions of the Board, and (iv) a general summary of all complaints received against licensees and registrants and the procedures used to resolve the complaints.

§ 54.1-4504. Liability of Board members.

All members of the Board shall be immune from civil liability while acting within the scope of their duties.

§ 54.1-4505. Executive Director; powers and duties; legal counsel.

A. The Board shall employ an Executive Director who shall serve at the pleasure of the Board. The Executive Director shall direct the affairs of the Board; keep records of all proceedings, transactions, communications, and official acts of the Board; be custodian of all records of the Board; and perform such duties as the Board may require. The Executive Director, with approval of the Board, may employ such additional staff as needed. The annual salary of the Executive Director shall be established by the Board.

B. Within the parameters of policies and guidelines established by the Board, the Executive Director shall have the power and duty to:

1. Employ personnel and assistance necessary for the operation of the Board and the purposes of this chapter;

2. Make and enter into all contracts and agreements necessary or incidental to the performance of the duties of the Board and the execution of its powers under this chapter;

3. Accept grants from the United States government, its agencies and instrumentalities, and any other source, and to these ends the Board shall have the power to comply with conditions and execute agreements that are necessary, convenient, or desirable;

4. Serve as the secretary of the Board;

5. Maintain all records of the Board and make such records available to the public;

6. Collect and account for all fees and deposit them into the Board for Court Reporters Fund, from which the expenses of the Board shall be paid;

7. Enforce all statutes and regulations the Executive Director is required to administer;
8. Exercise other powers necessary to function as the sole administrative officer of the Board; and
9. Perform any additional administrative functions prescribed by the Board.

C. The Office of the Attorney General shall provide counsel to the Board. In addition, subject to the approval of the Attorney General, the Board may, from time to time, employ such other counsel as it deems necessary.

Article 2.

Licensure and Registration.

§ 54.1-4506. License required.

Beginning July 1, 2020, no person shall engage in, or offer to engage in, work as a court reporter or otherwise provide court reporting services unless he has been licensed pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

§ 54.1-4507. Issuance of license to persons engaged in the practice of providing court reporting services prior to July 1, 2019.

The Board shall issue a license as a court reporter to any of the following applicants upon payment of a fee in an amount determined by the Board, unless the applicant is found by the Board to have engaged in any act that would constitute grounds for disciplinary action:

1. Any applicant applying prior to January 31, 2020, who is engaged in the practice of court reporting in the Commonwealth prior to July 1, 2019, and who provides to the Board an affidavit setting forth past education and work experience as a court reporter and an affidavit attesting to the court reporter's proficiency in court reporting of either (i) a judge for whom the person has worked as an official court reporter or (ii) three licensed attorneys, unrelated by blood or marriage to the person, who have utilized the services of the court reporter.

2. Any applicant who is a member in good standing with the Virginia Court Reporters Association (VCRA) and who holds a valid VCRA certified court reporter designation on July 1, 2019.

3. Any applicant who has passed on or before July 1, 2019, (i) the National Court Reporters Association registered professional reporter examination (RPR), (ii) the National Verbatim Reporters Association certified verbatim reporter examination (CVR or CVR-S), or (iii) the American Association of Electronic Reporters and Transcribers certified electronic reporter (CER) examination.

§ 54.1-4508. Qualification for licensure; use of court reporter's license number.

A. To be licensed as a court reporter, an applicant shall submit proof of passage of the National Court Reporters Association registered professional reporter examination (RPR), the National Verbatim Reporters Association certified verbatim reporter examination (CVR or CVR-S), or the American Association of Electronic Reporters and Transcribers certified electronic reporter (CER) examination. Applications for licensure shall be signed and sworn by the applicants and submitted on forms furnished by the Board. All applicants who are found qualified to engage in the practice of court reporting pursuant to this chapter shall be issued a license as a court reporter and a license number. The license shall be valid for two years from the date of issuance.

B. No court reporter may authorize the use of the court reporter's license number on any transcript not produced through the court reporter's personal effort or supervision.

§ 54.1-4509. Temporary licensure.

Any person who provides to the Board satisfactory proof of graduation from a court reporting program or its equivalent, upon application to the Board on forms approved by the Board and payment of a fee in an amount determined by the Board, may be issued a temporary license to practice as a court reporter. Such temporary license shall expire 12 months following the date of issuance. Additional temporary licenses following expiration may be issued at the discretion of the Board.

§ 54.1-4510. Reciprocal agreements; nonresident license.

A. The Board may enter into reciprocal agreements with any state, agency, or other entity that licenses, certifies, or registers court reporters, including the National Court Reporters Association, the National Verbatim Reporters Association, or the American Association of Electronic Reporters and Transcribers, if the Board finds that the state, agency, or other entity has substantially the same requirement as or more stringent requirements than the Board.

B. The Board may establish provisions for a nonresident license to allow a person who is not a resident of the Commonwealth and who desires to provide court reporting services for any proceeding, regardless of the jurisdiction of the action.

§ 54.1-4511. Continuing education; change of address notification.

A. The Board shall require continuing education as a condition for license renewal. In order to maintain licensure, all licensed court reporters will be required to obtain a minimum of two continuing education credits over a two-year period in courses approved by the Board or in compliance with the continuing education requirements of approved national or state associations. The two-year period shall begin on July 1 of the year during which the reporter is initially licensed. No credits may be carried over to the following two-year term.

B. Licensees shall notify the Board in writing of any change of address within 30 days of the change.

§ 54.1-4512. Inactive status.

The Board shall establish an inactive status for persons who are not actively engaged in the practice of court reporting. The holder of an inactive license issued pursuant to this section shall not engage in any activity for which a license is required. An inactive license issued pursuant to this section shall be renewed during the same time period in which an active license is renewed. The holder of an inactive license is exempt from any continuing education requirement for renewal of an active license. The renewal fee for a license or certification in an active status shall also apply to a renewal or a license or certification in an inactive status, unless a lesser renewal fee is specified by the Board. In order for the holder of an inactive license to restore his license to an active status, the holder of an inactive license shall pay the required renewal fee and complete the continuing education equivalent, if required by the Board, for renewal of an active license, unless a different requirement is specified by the Board.

§ 54.1-4513. Court reporting services providers; registration required; compliance with chapter.

A. Any business, entity, firm, or person that provides or arranges for court reporting services in the Commonwealth shall be required to register with the Board as a court reporting services provider. Any fees associated with registration of court reporting services providers shall be at the discretion of the Board.

B. A court reporting services provider shall ensure compliance with the provisions of this chapter by any court reporter whom the court reporting services provider contracts with or employs.

§ 54.1-4514. License and registration fees.

A. The Board shall establish license and registration fees in an amount providing sufficient revenues to pay all the costs and expenses incurred by the Board necessary to enforce the provisions of this chapter.

B. All fees and civil penalties collected under the provisions of this chapter shall be deposited into the Board for Court Reporters Fund.

§ 54.1-4515. Board for Court Reporters Fund; receipts; disbursements.

A. The Board for Court Reporting Fund (the Fund) is established as a special fund in the state treasury. All fees collected as provided in this chapter and regulations promulgated by the Board shall be paid into the state treasury immediately upon collection and credited to the Fund. Any interest income shall accrue to the Fund. All disbursements from the Fund shall be made by the State Treasurer upon warrants of the Comptroller issued upon vouchers signed by an authorized officer of the Board or the Executive Director as authorized by the Board.

B. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the Board shall have the discretion to use the moneys in the Fund to support its operations as the Board deems appropriate.

C. Any funds remaining in the Fund at the end of each year in excess of $250,000 shall be available to provide for the education and training of court reporters or to assist indigent parties in obtaining transcripts, as may be determined by the Board. At all times, the Board may retain a sum not in excess of $250,000 to meet any emergency that may affect the efficient operation of the Board. No funds shall be withdrawn or expended except as budgeted and allocated pursuant to this chapter and only in amounts as stipulated in the general appropriation act or other appropriation bill.

Article 3.

Prohibited Conduct; Penalties.

§ 54.1-4516. Prohibited actions; exception.

A. A licensed court reporter or registered court reporting services provider shall not:

1. Authorize the use of the court reporter's license number on any transcript not produced through the court reporter's personal effort or supervision;

2. Engage in fraudulent, deceitful, negligent, or incompetent conduct in the practice of the profession;

3. Enter into an oral or written contractual agreement for more than one case, action, or legal proceeding with any party, any insurance company, or any other person or entity that has a financial interest in the case, action, or legal proceeding. This prohibition does not apply to a contract for the provision of court reporting services between a court reporter or court reporting services provider and an attorney or law firm that is counsel of record in one or more cases, actions, or legal proceedings;

4. Give an economic or other advantage to a party or a party's attorney, representative, agent, insurer, or employee without offering the advantage to all parties or fail to offer comparable services, prices, or financial terms to all parties, except that different credit terms may be offered on the basis of payment experience and creditworthiness;

5. Offer or provide court reporting services if payment for those services is made contingent on the outcome of the legal proceeding, base the compensation for the court reporting services on the outcome of the legal proceeding, or otherwise give the court reporter or court reporting services provider a

674 financial interest in the action;

675 6. Enter into an agreement for court reporting services that restricts an attorney from using the 676 court reporter or court reporting services provider of the attorney's choosing;

677 7. Enter into an oral or written contractual agreement with any party, any insurance company, or 678 any other person or entity that has a financial interest in the case, action, or legal proceeding to

680 reporting services that is maintained by a person, business, entity, or firm that has entered into an oral 681 or written contractual agreement for more than one case, action, or legal proceeding with any attorney,
682 party, insurance company, third-party administrator, or other person or entity that has a financial 683 interest in the case, action, or legal proceeding. This prohibition does not apply to a contract between a
684 court reporter or court reporting services provider and an attorney or law firm to include such court 685 reporter or court reporting services provider on a list of preferred providers maintained by such 686 attorney or law firm;

687 8. Allow the format, content, or body of a certified transcript as submitted by the court reporter to 688 be manipulated in a manner that increases the cost of the transcript; or

689 9. Provide additional advocacy or litigation support services, including trial preparation assistance,
690 deposition summaries, and nonpublished transcript databases.

691 B. Notwithstanding subdivisions A 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9, if authorized or required by law,
692 ordinance, or rule, a governmental entity may obtain court reporting services on a long-term basis
693 through competitive bidding.

694 § 54.1-4517. Comparable treatment of parties.

695 A. At any time during or following a legal proceeding, an attorney or a party is entitled to an
696 itemized statement of the rates and charges for all services that have been or will be provided by a 697 court reporter or court reporting services provider that is providing court reporting services to any 698 party to the legal proceeding.

699 B. Upon request, a court reporter or court reporting services provider shall provide to the parties, if 700 known, information on prices, terms, and conditions of court reporting services in sufficient time prior 701 to the commencement of the legal proceeding to allow the parties the opportunity to effectively negotiate
702 for any changes necessary to ensure that comparable terms and conditions are made available to all
703 parties.

704 C. Upon request, a court reporter or court reporting services provider shall provide an itemized
705 invoice of all rates and charges for court reporting services provided in the administrative body, court,
706 or administrative tribunal in which the action upon which the legal proceeding is based is pending or 707 scheduled to be heard.

708 § 54.1-4518. Pro bono services.

709 Nothing in this article shall be construed to limit the ability of a court reporter or court reporting
710 services provider to provide pro bono services to persons or parties with limited means.

711 § 54.1-4519. Complaints; violations to be made public.

712 A. Any person harmed by a violation of § 54.1-4515 or 54.1-4516 may submit a complaint alleging
713 the violation to the Board. Such a complaint may also be submitted by any person with knowledge of 714 the alleged violation, including by the administrative body, court, or administrative tribunal before 715 which the alleged violation occurred.

716 B. Every violation found by the Board resulting of a complaint pursuant to this section shall be 717 made available to the public.

718 § 54.1-4520. Civil penalty.

719 A. Any court reporter or court reporting services provider that violates any statute or regulation
720 pertaining to the Board and that is not criminally prosecuted shall be subject to the civil penalty
721 provided in this section.

722 B. If a regulatory board determines that a respondent is guilty of the violation complained of, the 723 board shall determine the amount of the civil penalty for the violation, which shall not exceed $2,500
724 for each violation. The penalty may be sued for and recovered in the name of the Commonwealth and 725 deposited into the Board for Court Reporters Fund.

726 § 54.1-4521. Reviews and appeals.

727 Any person who has been aggrieved by any action of the Board shall be entitled to a review of such 728 action. Appeals from such actions shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative 729 Process Act (§ 2.2-4000 et seq.).

730 2. That Chapter 10 (§§ 17.1-1000 through 17.1-1005) of Title 17.1 of the Code of Virginia is 731 repealed.

732 3. That the initial terms of members of the Virginia Board for Court Reporters, as created by this 733 act, appointed by the Governor shall be staggered as follows: three members shall be appointed 734 for terms of one year, three members shall be appointed for terms of two years, and three 735 members shall be appointed for terms of three years.

736 4. That the Virginia Board for Court Reporters, as created by this act, shall promulgate
737 regulations to implement the provisions of this act to be effective within 280 days of its enactment.
738 5. That on or before August 1, 2019, a list of nominations for each position to be appointed by the 739 Governor in accordance with § 54.1-4501 of the Code of Virginia, as created by this act, shall be 740 submitted by the designated organization.
