Patron—Suetterlein

Referred to Committee on General Laws and Technology

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 55-79.97 and 55-509.4 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 55-79.97. Resale by purchaser; resale certificate; use of for sale sign in connection with resale; designation of authorized representative.

A. In the event of any resale of a condominium unit by a unit owner other than the declarant, and subject to the provisions of subsection F and § 55-79.87 A, the unit owner shall disclose in the contract that (i) the unit is located within a development which is subject to the Condominium Act, (ii) the Act requires the seller to obtain from the unit owners' association a resale certificate and provide it to the purchaser, (iii) the purchaser may cancel the contract within three days after receiving the resale certificate or being notified that the resale certificate will not be available, (iv) if the purchaser has received the resale certificate, the purchaser has a right to request a resale certificate update or financial update in accordance with § 55-79.97:1, as appropriate, and (v) the right to receive the resale certificate and the right to cancel the contract are waived conclusively if not exercised before settlement.

For purposes of clause (iii), the resale certificate shall be deemed not to be available if (a) a current annual report has not been filed by the unit owners' association with either the State Corporation Commission pursuant to § 13.1-936 or the Common Interest Community Board pursuant to § 55-79.93:1, (b) the seller has made a written request to the unit owners' association that the resale certificate be provided and no such resale certificate has been received within 14 days in accordance with subsection C, or (c) written notice has been provided by the unit owners' association that a resale certificate is not available.

B. If the contract does not contain the disclosure required by subsection A, the purchaser's sole remedy is to cancel the contract prior to settlement.

C. The information contained in the resale certificate shall be current as of a date specified on the resale certificate. A resale certificate update or a financial update may be requested as provided in § 55-79.97:1, as appropriate. The purchaser may cancel the contract (i) within three days after the date of the contract, if the purchaser receives the resale certificate or is notified that the resale certificate will not be available on or before the date that the purchaser signs the contract; (ii) within three days after receiving the resale certificate if the resale certificate or notice that the resale certificate will not be available is hand delivered, delivered by electronic means, or delivered by a commercial overnight delivery service or the United States Postal Service, and a receipt obtained; or (iii) within six days after the postmark date if the resale certificate or notice that the resale certificate will not be available is sent to the purchaser by United States mail. These deadlines shall apply regardless of whether any resale certificate provided to the purchaser contains the information required by this subsection to be included in the resale certificate. The purchaser may also cancel the contract at any time prior to settlement if the purchaser has not been notified that the resale certificate will not be available and the resale certificate is not delivered to the purchaser.

Notice of cancellation shall be provided to the unit owner or his agent by one of the following methods:

- a. Hand delivery;
- b. United States mail, postage prepaid, provided the sender retains sufficient proof of mailing, which may be either a United States postal certificate of mailing or a certificate of service prepared by the sender confirming such mailing;
- c. Electronic means provided the sender retains sufficient proof of the electronic delivery, which may be an electronic receipt of delivery, a confirmation that the notice was sent by facsimile, or a certificate of service prepared by the sender confirming the electronic delivery; or
- d. Overnight delivery using a commercial service or the United States Postal Service.

In the event of a dispute, the sender shall have the burden to demonstrate delivery of the notice of cancellation. Such cancellation shall be without penalty, and the unit owner shall cause any deposit to be

71 4. A statement whether there is any other entity or facility to which the unit owner may be liable for

79 loans of the unit owners' association;

80 7. A statement of the nature and status of any pending suits or unpaid judgments to which the unit
81 owners' association is a party which either could or would have a material impact on the unit owners'
82 association or the unit owners or which relates to the unit being purchased;

83 8. A statement setting forth what insurance coverage is provided for all unit owners by the unit 84 owners' association, including the fidelity bond maintained by the unit owners' association, and what 85 additional insurance coverage would normally be secured by each individual unit owner;

86 9. A statement that any improvements or alterations made to the unit, or the limited common 87 elements assigned thereto, are or are not in violation of the condominium instruments;

88 10. A copy of the current bylaws, rules and regulations and architectural guidelines adopted by the 94 13. A copy of any approved minutes of the executive organ and unit owners' association meetings for 95 the six calendar months preceding the request for the resale certificate;

96 14. Certification that the unit owners' association has filed with the Common Interest Community
97 Board the annual report required by § 55-79.93:1; which certification shall indicate the filing number
98 assigned by the Common Interest Community Board and the expiration date of such filing;

99 15. A statement of any limitation on the number of persons who may occupy a unit as a dwelling;

100 16. A statement setting forth any restrictions, limitation or prohibition on the right of a unit owner to 101 display the flag of the United States, including, but not limited to reasonable restrictions as to the size, 102 time, place, and manner of placement or display of such flag;

103 17. A statement setting forth any restriction, limitation, or prohibition on the right of a unit owner to 104 install or use solar energy collection devices on the unit owner's property;

105 18. A statement indicating any known project approvals currently in effect issued by secondary 106 mortgage market agencies; and

107 19. A copy of the fully completed form developed by the Common Interest Community Board 108 pursuant to § 54.1-2350.

109 Failure to receive a resale certificate shall not excuse any failure to comply with the provisions of 110 the condominium instruments, articles of incorporation, or rules or regulations.

111 The resale certificate shall be delivered in accordance with the written request and instructions of the 112 seller or the seller's authorized agent, including whether the resale certificate shall be delivered 113 electronically or in hard copy, at the option of the seller or the seller's authorized agent, and shall 114 specify the complete contact information for the parties to whom the resale certificate shall be delivered.
115 The resale certificate shall be delivered within 14 days of receipt of such request. The resale certificate 116 shall not, in and of itself, be deemed a security within the meaning of § 13.1-501.

117 D. The seller or the seller's authorized agent may request that the resale certificate be provided in 118 hard copy or in electronic form. A unit owners' association or common interest community manager may 119 provide the resale certificate electronically; however, the seller or the seller's authorized agent shall have 120 the right to request that the resale certificate be provided in hard copy. The seller or the seller's

121 authorized agent shall continue to have the right to request a hard copy of the resale certificate in person
 122 at the principal place of business of the unit owners' association. If the seller or the seller's authorized 123 agent requests that the resale certificate be provided in electronic format, neither the unit owners'
 124 association nor its common interest community manager may require the seller or the seller's authorized
 125 agent to pay any fees to use the provider's electronic network or system. The resale certificate shall not 126 be delivered in hard copy if the requester has requested delivery of such resale certificate electronically.
 127 If the resale certificate is provided electronically by a website link, the preparer shall not cause the 128 website link to expire within the subsequent 90-day period. The preparer shall not charge another fee
 129 during the subsequent 12-month period, except that the preparer may charge an update fee for a
 130 financial update or for an inspection as provided in § 55-79.97:1. If the seller or the seller's authorized 131 agent asks that the resale certificate be provided in electronic format, the seller or the seller's authorized 132 agent may request that an electronic copy be provided to each of the following named in the request:
 133 the seller, the seller's authorized agent, the purchaser, the purchaser's authorized agent, and not more 134 than one other person designated by the requester. If so requested, the unit owners' association or its 135 common interest community manager may require the seller or the seller's authorized agent to pay the 136 fee specified in § 55-79.97:1. Regardless of whether the resale certificate is delivered in paper form or 137 electronically, the preparer of the resale certificate shall provide such resale certificate directly to the 138 persons designated by the requester to the addresses or, if applicable, the email addresses provided by 139 the requester.

140 E. Subject to the provisions of § 55-79.87, but notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter,
 141 the provisions and requirements of this section shall apply to any such resale of a condominium unit
 142 created under the provisions of the Horizontal Property Act (§ 55-79.1 et seq.).

143 F. The resale certificate required by this section need not be provided in the case of:

- 144 1. A disposition of a unit by gift;
- 145 2. A disposition of a unit pursuant to court order if the court so directs;
- 146 3. A disposition of a unit by foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure; or
- 147 4. A disposition of a unit by a sale at auction, when the resale certificate was made available as part 148 of the auction package for prospective purchasers prior to the auction.

149 G. In any transaction in which a resale certificate is required and a trustee acts as the seller in the 150 sale or resale of a unit, the trustee shall obtain the resale certificate from the unit owners' association 151 and provide the resale certificate to the purchaser.

152 H. For purposes of this chapter:

153 "Delivery" means that the resale certificate is delivered to the purchaser or purchaser's authorized
 154 agent by one of the methods specified in this section.

155 "Purchaser's authorized agent" means any person designated by such purchaser in a ratified real estate
 156 contract for purchase and sale of residential real property or other writing designating such agent.

157 "Receives, received, or receiving" the resale certificate means that the purchaser or purchaser's 158 authorized agent has received the resale certificate by one of the methods specified in this section.

159 "Seller's authorized agent" means a person designated by such seller in a ratified real estate contract
 160 for purchase and sale of residential real property or other writing designating such agent.

161 I. Unless otherwise provided in the ratified real estate contract or other writing, delivery to the 162 purchaser's authorized agent shall require delivery to such agent and not to a person other than such 163 agent. Delivery of the resale certificate may be made by the unit owner or the seller's authorized agent.

164 J. If the unit is governed by more than one association, the purchaser's right of cancellation may be 165 exercised within the required time frames following delivery of the last resale certificate or disclosure 166 packet.

167 K. Except as expressly authorized in this chapter or in the condominium instruments or as otherwise 168 provided by law, no unit owners' association shall:

- 169 1. Require the use of any for sale sign that is (i) a unit owners' association sign or (ii) a real estate
 170 sign that does not comply with the requirements of the Virginia Real Estate Board. A unit owners'
 171 association may, however, prohibit the placement of signs in the common elements and establish 172 reasonable rules and regulations that regulate (a) the number of real estate signs to be located on real 173 property upon which the owner has a separate ownership interest or a right of exclusive possession, so
 174 long as at least one real estate sign is permitted; (b) the geographical location of real estate signs on real 175 property in which the owner has a separate ownership interest or a right of exclusive possession, so long 176 as the location of the real estate signs complies with the requirements of the Virginia Real Estate Board;
 177 (c) the manner in which real estate signs are affixed to real property; and (d) the period of time after 178 settlement when the real estate signs on such real property shall be removed; or

179 2. Require any unit owner to execute a formal power of attorney if the unit owner designates a 180 person licensed under the provisions of § 54.1-2106.1 as the unit owner's authorized representative, and 181 the unit owners' association shall recognize such representation without a formal power of attorney,

182 provided that the unit owners' association is given a written authorization signed by the unit owner
183 designating such representative. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the requirements of § 55-79.77 and the 184 condominium instruments shall be satisfied before any such representative may exercise a vote on behalf 185 of a unit owner as a proxy.

186 § 55-509.4. Contract disclosure statement; right of cancellation; use of for sale sign in 187 connection with resale; designation of authorized representative.

188 A. Subject to the provisions of subsection A of § 55-509.10, an owner selling a lot shall disclose in 189 the contract that (i) the lot is located within a development that is subject to the Virginia Property
190 Owners' Association Act (§ 55-508 et seq.); (ii) the Act requires the seller to obtain from the property
191 owners' association an association disclosure packet and provide it to the purchaser; (iii) the purchaser 192 may cancel the contract within three days after receiving the association disclosure packet or being 193 notified that the association disclosure packet will not be available; (iv) if the purchaser has received the 194 association disclosure packet, the purchaser has a right to request an update of such disclosure packet in 195 accordance with subsection H of § 55-509.6 or subsection D of § 55-509.7, as appropriate; and (v) the 196 right to receive the association disclosure packet and the right to cancel the contract are waived 197 conclusively if not exercised before settlement.

198 For purposes of clause (iii), the association disclosure packet shall be deemed not to be available if 199 (a) a current annual report has not been filed by the association with either the State Corporation
200 Commission pursuant to § 13.1-936 or with the Common Interest Community Board pursuant to 201 § 55-516.1, (b) the seller has made a written request to the association that the packet be provided and 202 no such packet has been received within 14 days in accordance with subsection A of § 55-509.5, or (c)
203 written notice has been provided by the association that a packet is not available.

204 B. If the contract does not contain the disclosure required by subsection A, the purchaser's sole 205 remedy is to cancel the contract prior to settlement.

206 C. The information contained in the association disclosure packet shall be current as of a date
207 specified on the association disclosure packet prepared in accordance with this section; however, a 208 disclosure packet update or financial update may be requested in accordance with subsection G of 209 § 55-509.6 or subsection D of § 55-509.7, as appropriate. The purchaser may cancel the contract: (i) 210 within three days after the date of the contract, if on or before the date that the purchaser signs the 211 contract, the purchaser receives the association disclosure packet or is notified that the association
212 disclosure packet will not be available; (ii) within three days after receiving the association disclosure 213 packet if the association disclosure packet or notice that the association disclosure packet will not be 214 available is hand delivered, delivered by electronic means, or delivered by a commercial overnight
215 delivery service or the United States Postal Service, and a receipt obtained; or (iii) within six days after 216 the postmark date if the association disclosure packet or notice that the association disclosure packet will 217 not be available is sent to the purchaser by United States mail. These deadlines shall apply regardless of 218 whether any disclosure packet provided to the purchaser is in conformity with the provisions of 219 § 55-509.5. The purchaser may also cancel the contract at any time prior to settlement if the purchaser
220 has not been notified that the association disclosure packet will not be available and the association 221 disclosure packet is not delivered to the purchaser.

222 Notice of cancellation shall be provided to the lot owner or his agent by one of the following 223 methods:

224 1. Hand delivery;

225 2. United States mail, postage prepaid, provided the sender retains sufficient proof of mailing, which 226 may be either a United States postal certificate of mailing or a certificate of service prepared by the 227 sender confirming such mailing;

228 3. Electronic means provided the sender retains sufficient proof of the electronic delivery, which may 229 be an electronic receipt of delivery, a confirmation that the notice was sent by facsimile, or a certificate 230 of service prepared by the sender confirming the electronic delivery; or 231 4. Overnight delivery using a commercial service or the United States Postal Service.

232 In the event of a dispute, the sender shall have the burden to demonstrate delivery of the notice of 233 cancellation. Such cancellation shall be without penalty, and the seller shall cause any deposit to be 234 returned promptly to the purchaser.

235 D. Whenever any contract is canceled based on a failure to comply with subsection A or C or 236 pursuant to subsection B, any deposit or escrowed funds shall be returned within 30 days of the 237 cancellation, unless the parties to the contract specify in writing a shorter period.

238 E. Any rights of the purchaser to cancel the contract provided by this chapter are waived 239 conclusively if not exercised prior to settlement.

240 F. Except as expressly provided in this chapter, the provisions of this section and § 55-509.5 may not 241 be varied by agreement, and the rights conferred by this section and § 55-509.5 may not be waived.

242 G. For purposes of this chapter:

243 "Delivery" means that the disclosure packet is delivered to the purchaser or purchaser's authorized

244 agent by one of the methods specified in this section.

245 "Purchaser's authorized agent" means any person designated by such purchaser in a ratified real estate
246 contract for purchase and sale of residential real property or other writing designating such agent.

247 "Receives, received, or receiving" the disclosure packet means that the purchaser or purchaser's
248 authorized agent has received the disclosure packet by one of the methods specified in this section.

249 "Seller's authorized agent" means a person designated by such seller in a ratified real estate contract
250 for purchase and sale of residential real property or other writing designating such agent.

251 H. Unless otherwise provided in the ratified real estate contract or other writing, delivery to the 252 purchaser's authorized agent shall require delivery to such agent and not to a person other than such 253 agent. Delivery of the disclosure packet may be made by the lot owner or the lot owner's authorized 254 agent.

255 I. If the lot is governed by more than one association, the purchaser's right of cancellation may be 256 exercised within the required time frames following delivery of the last disclosure packet or resale 257 certificate.

258 J. Except as expressly authorized in this chapter or in the declaration or as otherwise provided by 259 law, no property owners' association shall:

260 1. Require the use of any for sale sign that is (i) an association sign or (ii) a real estate sign that 261 does not comply with the requirements of the Real Estate Board. An association may, however, prohibit 262 the placement of signs in the common area and establish reasonable rules and regulations that regulate 263 (a) the number of real estate signs to be located on real property upon which the owner has a separate 264 ownership interest or a right of exclusive possession so long as at least one real estate sign is permitted;
265 (b) the geographical location of real estate signs on real property in which the owner has a separate 266 ownership interest or a right of exclusive possession, so long as the location of the real estate signs
267 complies with the requirements of the Real Estate Board; (c) the manner in which real estate signs are 268 affixed to real property; and (d) the period of time after settlement when the real estate signs on such 269 real property shall be removed; or

270 2. Require any lot owner to execute a formal power of attorney if the lot owner designates a person 271 licensed under the provisions of § 54.1-2106.1 as the lot owner's authorized representative, and the 272 association shall recognize such representation without a formal power of attorney, provided that the 273 association is given a written authorization signed by the lot owner designating such representative.
274 Notwithstanding the foregoing, the requirements of § 13.1-849 of the Virginia Nonstock Corporation Act 275 (§ 13.1-801 et seq.) and the association's declaration, bylaws, and articles of incorporation shall be 276 satisfied before any such representative may exercise a vote on behalf of a lot owner as a proxy.
