

19104007D

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 333

Offered January 29, 2019

Commending Falcon Heating and Air Conditioning.

Patrons—Black; Delegate: LaRock

WHEREAS, in 2018, Falcon Heating and Air Conditioning celebrated its 30th anniversary of serving customers' heating, ventilation, and air conditioning needs in the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area; and

WHEREAS, Falcon Heating and Air Conditioning has built its reputation upon the foundations of quality control, quality engineering, design efficiency, superior equipage, timely service response, and a cohesive flow of operations in the field of heating and cooling; and

WHEREAS, Falcon Heating and Air Conditioning believes in creating a culture around education and empowerment for its staff and for the community the company serves, supporting organizations such as HomeAid Northern Virginia, Wounded Warriors, Hero Homes, and other charities; and

WHEREAS, Falcon Heating and Air Conditioning will bring the business to a new level with a move into a new state-of-the-art facility in Loudoun County, which will expand the pioneering programs that have strengthened the Commonwealth's principles of craftsmanship and apprentice training; and

WHEREAS, Falcon Heating and Air Conditioning owner, Bruce Rahmani, has felt, as an immigrant business-owner, a patriotic duty to equip employees, past and future, with training and technical skills for success in heating, ventilation, and air conditioning service careers; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby commend Falcon Heating and Air Conditioning on the occasion of its 30th anniversary; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Falcon Heating and Air Conditioning owner, Bruce Rahmani, as an expression of the General Assembly's admiration for the company's contributions to technical craftsmanship and apprentice training.

INTRODUCED

SJ333